Moir's

Our Name on Bottom of Each Chocolate

To make it easy for particular people to avoid deception and to procure, with certainty, the finest flavored, smoothest coated, richest of all chocolate bonbons, we engrave the name MOIR'S on the bottom of each chocolate. None genuine without the name.

Each box is a series of continual surprises—so widely varied are the delightful flavors.

He who brings Moir's is assured "her" sweetest smile.

S. S. LESSON.

Feb. 21st, 1909.

Stephen the First Christian Martyr.—Acts vi:1 to viii:3.

Golden Text—They stoned Stephen calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. Acts vii:59.

Study Acts vi:8-15; vii:54 to viii:3.

Verse 8.—Who was Stephen?

In view of present day distinctions, would you call Stephen a layman or a clergyman?

Why is it not a crime against the gospel, that the preaching of the gospel is so professionalized, that our pulpits to-day in the towns and cities, are practically closed to the laymen of the church, so that even men like Stephen, have to "keep silent" in our church pulpits? (This question is to be answered in writing by members of the club.)

What was the secret of Stephen's power as a preacher, and to what extent may every layman become like him?

Verse 9—When in a community of thoughtful men, who oppose the gospel, can its claims be established better by debate than by ordinary preaching or declamation?

Verse 10.—If you defeat an opposer in a debate, that is not likely to convert him to Christianity; unless he is a sincere seeker after truth, but is it likely to convert the hearers?

Verses 11-13. — What effect did Stephen's victory have upon his opponents, and what effect did it probably have upon the audience?

Is there any necessary moral value in mere opinion, and will men ever be condemned because of wrong doctrines; i.e. wrong opinions?

When a man with right views of truth, gets angry at the man with wrong views, and does mean things to him, that the latter takes with gentleness; which is likely to be the etter man of the two?

Why is it that men who profess religion, can act so like devils, when ew truth is presented to them as this case?

Verse 14.—Can a man's word in a religious dispute, be depended upon, n a matter of fact, if he is untrue to his conscience and to God?

How is it that unrighteous men will fight for their false religious creeds, and shrink from no sort f rascality to accomplish their purpose?

Can you give any other reason than their unrighteousness, or assign to any other principle, the hatred of these men for so lovely a character as Stephen?

Verse 15.—Did the fact that Stephen looked like an angel, make his persecutors love him, or hate him, more?

Chap. 7., Verse 54.—What is it which cuts wrong doers to the heart more than anything else?

If these rulers had been innocent of the charge Stephen brought against them, would they have been cut to the heart as they were?

Verse 5.—What do you understand by Stephen being full of the Holy Spirit?

What did Stephen see when he looked up into heaven?

Would the onlookers have probably seen the same things, as Stephen, if they had looked up?

Verse 56-57—Did they believe Stephen's testimony as to what he saw?

Do cold professors of religion as a rule, have any confidence in the experiences of those who walk and talk with God?

Verse 58.—How would these people justify themselves, for committing this great crime?

What was the method of stoning a victim to death?

Verses 59-60.—Does the spirit sleep at death, or go into a state of conscious presence with God?

By what power can a man love or forgive his murderers?

Chap. 8. Verses 1-3.—What was the measure of Saul's sin in the stoning of Stephen?

What were the chief results of the stoning of Stephen?

Lesson for Sunday Feb. 28th, 1909. The Gospel in Samaria.—Acts viii: 4-25.
