NOT TOO BAD.—The sum of $4,722.94 was paid out yesterday to the working men of Charlottetown in wages for two weeks labor on the s.r.ets.

CALEDONIAN CLUB.—The Charlottetown Driving Club are famed for putting on good races. See them on the 13th at the Scotch Gathering. The best yet.

TO ATTEND I. O. O. F. CONVENTION.—The following delegates from Charlottetown left yesterday for Moncton to attend the Oddfellows Grand Lodge which opens in that city today. Angus MacEachern, Louis Howatt, Geo. S. Grant, Geo. T. Nicholson, J. J. MacKinnon, J. F. Wear, George W. MacLeod, T. D. Morrison, D. F. Bethune, Chas. Black, John McLaughlan, David Waye, I. Jenkins, John T. Martin and Beverley Vanderstine. The following ladies will attend the Rebekah Assembly: Mrs. A. J. Houle, Miss Miriam Proctor, Miss Florence McLeod.

WAR VETERANS PARADE.—All Returned Soldiers will parade for the Prince of Wales' reception on the 19 inst. Owing to the fact that all the returned boys have not retained their uniforms the wearing of same will be optional, but it is advisable that uniforms should be in evidence as much as possible.

It is the intention of the Association to have the parade formed up according to the different arms of the service and in units as much as possible.

Arrangements are now being made whereby the Government will pay the return railway fares for all the returned men coming into Charlottetown from outside points.

The order of march and further arrangements about the parade will be published at a later date, but the present arrangements are to end up at the park for the inspection by the Prince of Wales and presentation of medals at 12 o'clock.

HELPING THE BOYS.—Individual effort, unselfish and social, could in many sections of Canada do much to dispel the unrest and discontent at present prevailing among returned soldiers. We had an instance of this late by says a correspondent during a short stay in Cumberland, N.S., at the home of Mr. Garnet Campbell whose household consists of self, young wife and venerable mother, an old lady of 84 years of age still possessing all her faculties and speaking the beautiful lowland Scotch accent, and 31 whom we might mention an incident which occurred lately. It seems the egg collector on his rounds mentioned to her how hard his wife had to work as she was rearing six children. The old lady quickly replied she had raised sixteen, ten of her own and six orphans. Well, at this home of Mr. Campbell who had a nephew in the army, it has been the custom to welcome the returned soldier boys; all of them are not only welcomed, but entertained with music and song, and on the 26th ult. about twenty soldier boys and young lady friends met and not only were they entertained with music and song but were treated to a sumptuous repast by Mr. Campbell. Among the ladies who entertained we noticed three daughters of Mr. Guilford Lowther of Red Point.

Pert Questions

Sir:—It would be alike interesting and profitable to receive from some competent authority answer to the following pert questions:—

Why is bacon retailed at 60 cents per pound when the farmer is only paid 20 cents per pound for pork? What is the cause for the increase of 55 cents on 100 pounds of sugar intimation of which was received by wire today?

In certain places there is also announced an advance in the price of boots—why?

To householders on stated salary the high cost of living is really alarming. The above commodities are singled out because the advances in prices are associated with the present movement, but the fact is that in respect to almost all essential commodities we need legitimate protection from the profiteer.

Hoping to obtain the information which is requested and is urgently called for in the interests of the suffering consumer who is on fixed salary and in some cases fixed on time immemorial.

I am Sir, etc., T. F. FULLERTON. St. James' Manse, Ch.town, August 11, 1919.
