NEWS OF THE HORSES FROM ALL SOURCES

TRADE IN CLYDESDALES in the States has been more than ordinarily brisk. After the late International Secretary, Ogilvie sent out six hundred circular letters to Clydesdale breeders, asking if they would contribute to a combination sale in Chicago, but only two replied that they had horses to sell, and these had but three or four.

HARSH SKIN, dry hair, and lack of spirit are common complaints at this time of year. Look after the teeth, give some boiled feed, flax or oil cake, and a carrot or two, increase the grain allowance, and, if necessary, feed a tonic. Half the trouble in keeping horses in condition during summer may be avoided now by fitting them up.

A LITTLE TIME SPENT in selecting a horse to breed a certain mare to, carefully analyzing the inheritance of the mare and stallion, and taking cognizance, as far as possible, of any physical defects which may be known to be possessed by the family of either, then making a choice in accordance with the facts deduced, will reduce the chances for disappointment greatly. To some who have not given the matter much thought, the selection of a sire to breed to seems to be a simple matter, but is, on the contrary, about as important as any work a breeder is called upon to perform.

THE WORST FEATURE of horse-breeding is that men want to raise a heavy-draft team, a general purpose team, and a fly roadster, all from the same mare, and in trying to do so, all manner of crossing and mixing is resorted to, with the final result that there is a lot of mongrels not suited to any purpose. In addition to their uselessness they are an eye-sore and a burden to the man who raised them. If such a course is pursued, there will never be producers worth the name of such. We should decide as to the class and type we want, and stick to that only.

AT THE SALE of the Thorncliffe Clydesdale stud of Mr. Robert Davies, Toronto, recently, it was largely attended, and proved a very successful event, the 34 stallions, mares and colts sold averaging $575 each. Buyers were present from Ontario, Quebec, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Wisconsin and Illinois. The highest price, $2,400, was paid by Thomas Graham, of Clarendon, Ont., for the best four-year-old stallion, Right for the boy, by Prince Thomas. The highest price for a mare, $1,575, was paid by Miss K. L. Wilks, Galt, Ont., for Lady Superior, seven years old, by Imp. Cedric; and the Ontario Agricultural College took the nine-year-old mare, Her pretty Sel, by Cedric, at $1,225.

THE TROTTER YEAR BOOK for 1906, just issued, shows that from the earliest period of harness racing the close of the racing season of 1905 have been bred, developed and a total of 34,138 horses, that speed of 2:30 or better, an all better.

During the past few years a number of names are in the standard list of 1900, 4,522 names, while the total number of names of that time have received an average of 4,960 names. The new names give the names of 21,230 (after deducting 12,822 peccers).

During the last ten years, or since the close of the season of 1895, the number of trotters in the standard list has increased from 11,880 to 21,230, while that of 2:25 peccers increased from 3,455 to 12,822.

THE KIND OF care bestowed upon the dam while carrying the foal is important. Exercise of some kind must be given, and if light work cannot be given, then she should be turned into a field or paddock every day if it is fit to be out. Good, nourishing feed must be given during this period. Do not expect a strong, healthy colt from a dam that has been improperly nourished. Always aim to be present when the foal is expected to arrive, so as to lend any assistance necessary. Oftentimes the dam will pass through this ordeal without any help, but at other times, being present means the life of the foal, and sometimes of the dam. The more quiet the dam can be kept for a few hours after foaling, the better. Her diet should be of a light, cooling nature.

AS THE HORSE for the farmer to produce, says a writer in a horseman's paper—both for his own use and for the market, if he have blocky mares of good substance, I would advocate the Clydesdale as the best obtainable breed at present. The general run of farmers are calling for a horse of from 1,200 to 1,400 lbs., not too high up in the air, and with an average speed in light wagon of 7 or 8 miles per hour. Possibly Clydesdale grades are as near as we can get. Personally, because he is shorter legged and more blocky, I prefer the Belgian; but from the commercial point of view, the Clyde will probably take the lead.

I am pretty sure that in the next ten years the heavy horse and the stylish driver will increase, while the nondescript scrub will fade.

I would say emphatically NO, do not introduce new breeds, but, on the contrary, weed out some more of the useless types, and, considering all things, let us stick to the Clyde with its grades for the farmer.

You Are Ailing

Find the Cause for the Weakness and Nervous Dread That Overshadows Your Life.

You can't keep up forever. Sooner or later Nature will rebel against the strain that is imposed on your overworked system. So far, will power and nerve may have held you over, but the end is probably near at hand.

To day the common complaint with weak men and women is lack of kidney vitality. Here you have the cause of your ill-health.

Wool's Pills is wise to use a time-tested remedy like Dr. Hamilton's Pills—they cure that "ailing" feeling in one night. Next morning you feel like new—bright, fresh, and happy. Appetite improves, dull, sallow color grows ruddy, and clear, proving that great good is being done by this scientific medicine.

This writes Mrs. D. F. Fowler, of Yarmouth: "I used to feel drifty and heavy, my color was sallow, and there was usually a bad taste in my mouth. I had vague pains all through my limbs, and an annoying headache as well. After one dose of Dr. Hamilton's Pills there was a sudden change. I felt better, my appetite increased, and that exhaustion and depression gradually left me. Life seemed brighter and happier after I used Dr. Hamilton's Pills, so I strongly recommend such a good medicine."

Mrs. Fowler's letter is a message to you and all others in poor health. You can't do better than follow her advice. Dr. Hamilton's Pills you certainly need; that's why you got them now and enjoy the abundant good health they are sure to bring you! Price 25c per box, or five boxes for $1.
