PRIME MINISTER CONFERS WITH KING GEORGE

(Canadian Press)
 LONDON, July 20.—His Majesty had a long talk with Premier Stanley Baldwin at Buckingham Palace today about the Premier's forthcoming visit to Canada with the Prince of Wales and Prince George. The Ministers arrived at the cabinet meeting in Downing Street today attired in silk hats and morning coats to bid farewell to the Premier, but a special meeting of the cabinet was fixed for this evening on account of the recall of Hon. W. C. Bridgeman and Viscount Cecil from the Geneva Conference on further limitation of naval armament. The Prime Minister wishes to know from Mr. Bridgeman what the position really is, as the negotiations between Britain and Japan have become rather complicated, recently, and it has been difficult to explain matters by telegram. A further reason why the first lords presence at the meeting is important is that Lord Balfour who will be in charge of affairs during the Prime Minister's absence, may be made acquainted with the course of events. Well informed quarters in London today state that the present position of the conference is such as to justify a continuance of the negotiations.

PICNIC TODAY—The Trinity Church Choir Picnic which was to be held yesterday afternoon will take place today. Cars will leave Hearts Hall at 4 p. m.

HOME ON HOLIDAY—S. A. MacDonald, Jr., son of S. A. MacDonald arrived home last evening from Edinburgh University. He will spend a short holiday at home before returning to Scotland.

PICNICS—The League of the Cross Picnic which had to be postponed yesterday on account of inclement weather, takes place today, as does also the St. Peter's Home Races. The Scottish Gathering has been indefinitely postponed.

CENTRAL PARISH (Church of Scotland)—Rev. J. Eustace Purdie, B. A., will preach at Glasgow Road on Sabbath, July 24th, at 10.30 a. m. Lot 48 at 3.00 p. m. and in the Peoples' Church, Charlottetown at 7.00 p. m. Special collection at all services.

POSTPONED—The annual meeting of the Prince Edward Island Bible Society was to have been held in Cavendish yesterday but could not be held on account of the weather and is now postponed until further notice.

DISAPPOINTING WEATHER—The weather man handed out a brand of weather yesterday that disappointed thousands throughout the province, the city being possibly affected most of all. Four outings were billed for yesterday—The League of the Cross Picnic at North Wiltshire; the Scottish Gathering at Vernon River; a tea party at Fort Augustus and horse races at St. Peter's, all of which were postponed until today on account of the rain, which started to fall shortly before 9 o'clock and continued intermittently all day. It is to be hoped the different events will be favored with better weather today.

Laid To Rest

The funeral of the late Ralph W. MacDonald who died at Rochester, New Hampshire, last Friday morning, was held Monday afternoon at Georgetown from the residence of his sister, Mrs. L. H. Douglas. There was a large attendance, friends from Charlottetown and other parts of the Province, as well as Georgetown, being present to pay their last tributes of respect. Mr. MacDonald belonged to the Masonic Order, and his fellow members of Saint George's Lodge, A. F. and A. M., Georgetown, attended in a body. Services were conducted at the house by Rev. Henry Pierce, Pastor of the United Church, who also offered prayer at the grave. The solemn Masonic Ritual was then celebrated by the Rev. J. W. MacPhee, then performed by East Worshipful Master, J. W. MacPhee.

The pall bearers were Seymour C. Knight, Captain Charles Fitzgerald, John Stewart, Thomas E. Morrison, Peter Ross, and J. Howard MacDonald.

The following floral tributes were received:—Cross from N. B. Thayer and Company of Ottawa; wreath and cross from the employees of the same firm, with whom Mr. MacDonald had been connected for many years; emblematic wreath from St. George's Lodge A. F. & A. M.; wreath from his brothers and sisters; casket from the office staff of the Patriot Publishing Company, and Mr. John McLaughlin; bouquets from Mrs. Renton and family, and Mrs. Norman MacDonald.

PERSONALS
 Rev. Father Quinn, C. S. S. R., is preaching a retreat at Notre Dame Academy.

Rev. Joseph McGrivell, C. S. S. R., of St. Peter's Rectory, St. John, N. B., is on the Island preaching missions. He is at present at the Brae.

Miss Mary McKee of Ottawa and Miss Vic Craig also of Ottawa are visiting in the city the guests of Mrs. Edison Mullin, Water Street.

The many friends of R. J. McDonald, Western Union Telephone Co., will be pleased to learn that he has so far recovered from his recent operation in the City Hospital as to be able to return to his home. Mr. McDonald has been confined to the hospital for three weeks as the result of an accident met with while in the discharge of his duties as a lineman.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Swindells, of Princeport, Nova Scotia, arrived yesterday by the Hochelaga to attend the Guesney Field Day and Picnic at the Experimental Farm. This event has been postponed till today owing to the rain. Mr. and Mrs. Swindells will remain over and attend it today. Mr. Swindells is the proprietor of the well known Beach Hill Farm, and is one of the most prominent breeders of Guernsey in Eastern Canada. He will be one of the principal speakers at the Field Day today.

Miss Hilda Allen, in charge of V. C. A. work in Yarmouth, arrived in the city Monday and left Tuesday afternoon for Canoe Cove where she will direct the provincial C. G. I. T. Camp.

Camp registrations have come in to the number of 76 making the camp opening Wednesday the largest in the history of C. G. I. T. work in the Island.

On Wednesday afternoon, July 27, the Camp will be open to visitors when a program of sports and dramatics will be presented.

The Camp staff will be glad if friends of the Campers will respect the scheduled program, and come only at that time.

60 VIENNA RIOT VICTIMS BURIED
 (Canadian Press)
 VIENNA, July 20.—Vienna bowed its head today in sorrow as sixty victims of last week's rioting were laid at rest in a common plot in the great public cemetery on the outskirts of the city. As if to atone for the deaths of so many of their townsfolk even those who sponsored the riots maintained an attitude of reverence during the funerals. There were no demonstrations of any kind. Thirty nine others who were killed in the disorders, including eleven policemen, will be buried tomorrow. In an oration at the graveside, the Communist leader said that the dead comrades had led the way where more timid members of the party dare not follow. Dr. Friedrich Adler, Secretary of the International Labor Union, said that he had been deputed to utter a greeting to the workmen of every state affiliated with the greatest world union. At the graveside of their valiant comrades, he declared, they repeated their oaths of solidarity. After speeches by other socialist leaders, including Lord Mayor Carl Seitz, relatives of the victims were invited to gather round the coffins and follow them to the mortuary where an opportunity would be given to look once more on the faces of the dead. Then the multitude was assembled before the cemetery gates at a given signal joined in with the male choir in singing the workmen's international. Small deputations representing all industrial enterprises and public utilities were present. Altogether about 5,000 people attended the obsequies and the majority of these were women. It was revealed today that 350 policemen in Friday's disorders killed seven of them were grievously hurt.

A Club for Tramps
 (By British United Press)
 PARIS, July 20.—One of the strangest stories which has recently come to the ears of the Paris police has its origin in a dramatic rescue from the Seine.

Shortly after midnight somewhere in the shadows a man leaped out, and two minutes later was drawing a half-drowned woman to the bank. Two or three other people emerged mysteriously from the shelter of dark corners. A man got out to find a policeman, who would arrange for the woman's transfer to a hospital of first-aid post.

When the policeman and his guide returned the woman and her rescuers had disappeared.

Inquiries have revealed a remarkable story. The rescued woman had attempted to commit suicide. She had been a servant on a farm and was about to have a child of whom her employer was the father. The man had dismissed her on leaving of her condition, and she yesterday by the Hochelaga to attend the Guesney Field Day and Picnic at the Experimental Farm. This event has been postponed till today owing to the rain. Mr. and Mrs. Swindells will remain over and attend it today. Mr. Swindells is the proprietor of the well known Beach Hill Farm, and is one of the most prominent breeders of Guernsey in Eastern Canada. He will be one of the principal speakers at the Field Day today.

Livestock Market
 (Canadian Press)
 MONTREAL, July 20.—There were a few odd cattle left over from Monday and only 7 lambs, 45 hogs and 18 calves for sale on the two markets.

Cattle sales were very drab. Lambs were steady. Hog prices showed a strong undertone and veal calves were in demand.

Two choice veals weighing close to 200 pounds each were sold for 12 1/2 cents per pound.

HEAVY RAINS IN WEST
 WINNIPEG, July 19.—Heavy rains drenched a wide stretch of territory in Alberta and Saskatchewan during the night and today. Hall accompanied the deluge in some districts causing crop damage, the extent of which has not yet been determined. Practically the entire prairie section has been liberally soaked by intermittent rains during weeks and farmers generally are praying for cool, dry weather.

COMMUNISTS IMPRISONED
 (Canadian Press)
 PARIS, July 20.—Marcel Cachin, member of the French Parliament and leader of the Communist party in France, and Jacques Doriot, another deputy now behind the bars of the LaSante prison in Paris for twenty-four hours, have failed to obtain their release through legal channels. The two deputies were sentenced to imprisonment on charges of inciting soldiers to disobedience. "Above all," said Mr. Doriot when entering the prison, "Mister Jailer, don't let us go free on mere telephone authority." (This had reference to the release from the same prison of Leon Daudet, the Royalist leader, and two other men, on a fake telephone message alleged to have been sent by the Ministry of the Interior.) "We will take good care of you," responded the jailer.

Blood Circulation Is Restored
 (By British United Press)
 PARIS, July 20.—A Viennese doctor has, it is reported, invented an apparatus which, while it has not yet succeeded in awakening the dead, has induced circulation of the blood in the body of a person dead for some hours.

The apparatus is electrically driven and is applied to the stomach. The message effected by means of the machine causes the muscle and blood-vessels of the stomach to vibrate sufficiently to re-establish circulation.

Dr. Eisenmenger, the inventor, had hitherto applied his invention only to persons who were almost dead as the result of asphyxiation or drowning and who were in need of artificial respiration.

Now, however, it has been tried on a person for two hours, a woman of forty who fell from a third-floor window and died on her way to hospital. Two hours after death the apparatus was set in motion. While the tongue was held with pinchers, a litre of salt water was injected in the arm.

After half-an-hour the blood began to circulate under the skin, the pulse beat, and the cheeks showed that in the veins was flowing—not the red blood of a living person, but the blue blood of the dead.

It is true that there was no sign of an awakening, but this is not the object of Dr. Eisenmenger's invention, which is designed simply to re-establish circulation of the blood. The old method of inducing artificial respiration, by means of rhythmic movements of the tongue, often fails because the quantity of blood which benefits by the action of the lungs is insufficient. Consequently, in the case of a person who is apparently dead, if both artificial respiration and circulation of the blood by the new method are restored to the chances of success should be increased.

A powerful drug might also be added to the saline solution injected. Further experiments are to be made with artificial respiration and an injection of adrenaline, administered at the same time as the massage is applied, and there is great curiosity in Vienna as to the results.
