The ladies prize was won by Miss Annie Harper, who wore a pretty costume and a 'spooky' mask. The gentlemen's prize was won by (Miss) Dora Hackett, who impersonated a western cowboy and wore a nifty rig which might have been taken from the wardrobe of Tom Mix. I. O. D. E. MEETING.—The monthly meeting of the Abergweit Chapter of the I. O. D. E. was held in the Public Library, Summerside, on Thursday afternoon with a good attendance of members. After reading the minutes of the previous meeting the Treasurer's report was submitted and showed a good balance. Several matters came up for discussion, the most important being an address from the President of the National Chapter of the I. O. D. E. The points stressed were self education of members on the work which is being done by the Order as a whole, the increase of membership, the giving of their wholehearted support to educational and immigration policies and activities. The President also issued a pamphlet containing a compact history of the Order and a resume of the work accomplished and advised each member to obtain one and study it. There was a personal appeal to all members to interest themselves in the work.

Splendid Recital At Summerside

In St. Mary's Hall, Summerside, last night, a large audience had the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Kenneth Richards, a dramatic soprano from New York, of very unusual talent. Her charming personality captivated her audience even before they were entranced by her voice. Her offerings were varied and rendered in such a manner that every mood of the composer was brought out with wonderful clearness and expression. "My Rosary" was really wonderful, when sung by Madame Richards and brought out the richness and sweetness of her lovely voice. A 14th century German folk song "Spinn Mein Kleins Tochter," was really delightful. One cannot attempt to do justice to this talented artist, but it is hoped that it will not be the last time that Mrs. Richards will be heard in Summerside. Her assistants, Mrs. Helen Hughes Lawson and Mr. Horace McEwen, were also well received. Mr. McEwen, although quite young, is a musician of surprising talent and skill. His rendering of a Norwegian battle march was perhaps his masterpiece, and showed great capabilities. Mrs. Lawson is a pupil of Mrs. Richards, has a very beautiful voice and shows careful training and promise of a great future in musical circles. Her duet with Mrs. Richards was particularly pleasing and her solos were enjoyed again and again. Mrs. Richards was presented with a beautiful bouquet of roses at the close of the recital. There were a number of Charlottetown people in the audience, who no doubt took this opportunity of hearing Mrs. Richards a second time. The concert was given in aid of the Prince County Hospital.

He leaves a widow and five children to mourn their loss, also four brothers and four sisters, Dan in Ohio; John in Georgetown; Peter and Alex in Marshfield; Mrs. Munn in Port Arthur; Mrs. Fullerton in Hanover, New Hampshire; Mrs. Gillis in Charlottetown and Miss Jessie Stewart, in Marshfield.
