...ys ago a local appeared in the Guardian regarding the poisoning of foxes. Since then a party who read the item brings word that ... driving through Dromore one ... some time ago he noticed a ... crossing a field near the road. ... he was watching the animal it ... down in the field and he stopped his horse and crossed over to where the fox lay. When he arrived at the spot he found it dead, having succumbed to a dose of poison. This story, which is rather an unusual one, is vouched for by a responsible party.

Carter's Seed Catalogue for 1910 will be issued March 1st. This is the thirteenth year Messrs. Carter & Co., Limited, have been in the seed business in this city. An edition of 10,000 copies is issued each season, and mailed to the farmers and gardeners of this Province, as well as many abroad. Many orders for "Carter's Tested Seeds" are received by the firm each year from the United States, as far away as California, and also from nearly every Province in Canada. A post card requesting a copy will receive prompt attention. Carter's Seed Catalogue tells where and how to get and grow the varieties of seeds and seed grain best adapted to P. E. Island soil and climate, true to name and free from noxious weed seeds. This firm lives right here in this Province, and has a reputation second to none for supplying the best seeds obtainable, and they will no doubt receive a large patronage.

A resident writes that Clyde River is highly favored at the present time in being able to listen to the word of the Lord, as presented by the Rev. Mr Green, Presbyterian, and the Rev Mr Calder, Baptist. These gentlemen are held in high esteem by the whole community, for their fearless proclamation of the truth. Their watchword is, "Thus saith the Lord."

The students of St. Dunstan's College were well entertained Thursday night by John Caven, who delivered before that body a lecture, entitled, "Sketches From Canadian History." Mr. Caven first described the terrible earthquake of 1663 and the awe-inspiring phenomena by which it was accompanied. Next he told about Dollard and the heroic band of young Frenchmen who saved Montreal in 1660 from the reckless bands of savages, whose purpose was to annihilate that village. A vote of thanks was moved by Mr. Kiggins, one of the lecturer's former students, and seconded by Mr. Murphy.

The demand for private rooms at the P. E. Island Hospital, lately, has been so great (at one time seven patients waiting their turn) that the Trustees have about decided to make the old Brecken home adjoining the Hospital into a Nurse's Home and use the rooms in the Hospital at present occupied by the nurses as Private Rooms. This move would add about ten rooms and bring the capacity of the Hospital up to forty-three beds. Naturally there will be a large outlay of money required to make this change, but the ladies have as usual come to the rescue, and at a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Ladies' Aid of the P. E. I. Hospital held in the Y. M. C. A. Parlors yesterday morning they willingly and unanimously agreed to furnish the Nurses' Home, thus relieving the Trustees of a large share of the responsibility. In order to raise funds to carry out their laudable undertaking they intend holding what is called a "Flag Day" on Easter Saturday, March 26th of which due notice will be given later. The ladies of the Hospital Aid deserve the support of all and no doubt "Flag Day" will turn out to be the grand success which the object deserves.
