As We Face 1912

At the beginning of a new year we desire to extend to our friends the compliments of the season and to express our appreciation of confidence and good-will shown us in the year that is past.

The year 1911 has been a very successful one, not only in the volume of trade we have had but also in permanent friends and customers gained.

In 1912 we hope we shall be able to give even better service than in the past and can assure the people of this community that no effort will be spared that can contribute to that end.

We extend to all thanks for patronage given us and best wishes for A Happy New Year.

ABOUT OUR AGRICULTURAL AND OTHER POSSIBILITIES.

In the fine new year's issue of the Halifax Chronicle are a number of interesting articles on the agricultural and horticultural possibilities of that Province, telling what has been achieved and pointing the way to further progress along the same lines. Rev. J. A. McGlashan tells of what Denmark has done and how that little Kingdom became the market garden of Europe. Beyond that he tells of what has been done in Nova Scotia during the past year. Here is one little story:

Writing from Bridgeport, C. B., he says, "I have a Danish neighbor who has made a garden of one of the bleakest spots on the Cape Breton coast. Six years ago, he bought, for a trifle, four and a half acres on a bare bluff facing Lingan Bay. Today it is worth, including a fine nursery plant, $15,000. As one item he sold 40,000 cabbages this year, one of which, weighing 20 lbs., grew 15 feet from the cliff. Last spring he bought a piece of waste wild land, half way to Sydney, for $600. He put an English farmer in charge and from the five acres tilled he sold, last summer, vegetables that netted him $1,427. He got an average of $1.18 for his potatoes, and says he could have sold 4,000 bushels instead of 400."

Take another industry which is capable of the same development in Prince Edward Island that it has attained in Nova Scotia—the fruit growing industry. Thirty years ago Nova Scotia's export of apples was under 24,000 barrels yearly. Ten years ago it had grown to 250,000 barrels. This year, down to December 22, there had been 925,000 barrels shipped and the shipping season was then but half over. The Chronicle's correspondent says:

"A thousand barrel crop this year in Nova Scotia was a common occurrence. There were many 5,000 barrel yields and some climbed to nearly 10,000. Men who, twenty years ago, the great majority of people thought crazy for planting over 25 acres of orchard, today are smiling blandly as they pocket $2,000 to $10,000 as the year's orchard income."

The like could be done here and it ought to be done. If our own people will not rise to the occasion in apple raising, small-fruit raising, market gardening, and in developing our fisheries, then experts from Denmark, or Nova Scotia or wherever they can be obtained should be imported or induced to come here and show what the capabilities of our soil and our fisheries really are. The coming of the Car-Ferry with the better possibilities for shipment which it will give ought to give a powerful stimulus to every line of development in the products of the soil and the sea in Prince Edward Island.

THE CAR FERRY.

There has been some carping over the telegram sent by Premier Borden to Mr. McLean, M. P., in which "a Government Ferry" and not a Car Ferry was named. The St. John Standard and other Government papers east and west contain the following despatch, dated Ottawa, December 28:

"The Government has met the wishes of the Province by arranging at once for the installation of a Car Service between the P. E. I. Railway and the Intercolonial Railway, and for this purpose the gauge of the P. E. I. Railway will be increased from three feet six inches to four feet eight and a half inches, the standard gauge.

"The following semi-official announcement was given out from the Prime Minister's office at the close of today's council meeting:—"Messrs. McLean and Nicholson have during the past two months urged upon the Government the establishment of a Car Ferry service between Prince Edward Island and the mainland.

"The Prime Minister announced today that the Government had determined to undertake the establishment of such a service."

SIR JOSEPH POPE.

In the distribution of imperial honors at the new year a well-known son of this Province has been signally distinguished. Joseph Pope., C. M. G., has been advanced to full Knighthood and is now receiving congratulations, in which The Guardian desires to join, as Sir Joseph Pope.

Sir Joseph Pope was born in Charlottetown on August 16, 1854. He was educated at Prince of Wales College; married in October, 1884 the eldest daughter of Judge H. F. Taschereau of the Supreme Court of Quebec. He was engaged in banking from 1870 to 1878, when he was appointed private secretary to the late Hon. J. C. Pope, then Minister of Marine and Fisheries. Later he was private secretary to Sir John A. Macdonald from 1882 down to Sir John's death in 1891. In November, 1889 he was appointed Assistant Clerk of the Privy Council and in 1896 was promoted Under Secretary of State.

In addition to his prominence as a member of the Canadian civil service, Mr. Pope served on the Behring Sea arbitration tribunal at Paris in 1893 and received the thanks of the Governor in Council for his services in that connection. He is the author of a number of books and pamphlets, among which his Memoirs of Sir John A. Macdonald and his book on Confederation are most widely known. He was some years ago made a C. M. G., in recognition of his public services, and is now advanced to full Knighthood.

NOTES.

Ontario clergymen are said to be rejoicing that the Christmas day a week ago was the most quiet and orderly in the entire history of the Province. The reason was that for the first time the bars were all ordered to be closed. On the other hand the publicans complain that they lost the usual Christmas day receipts, which are commonly the largest of any day in the year.

Premier Borden, who came to his present office so recently, has made rapid advance in titles and honors. He was plain Mr. Borden until he became leader of the Government. On assuming office he became an "Honorable" and he is now "The Right Honorable Sir Robert Laird Borden, P. C., by virtue of having been appointed a Privy Councillor by the King.

NO MORE DISTRESS FROM STOMACH OR ANY INDIGESTION

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or you feel bloated after eating, and you believe that it is the food which fills you; if what little you eat lies like a lump of lead on your stomach; if there is difficulty in breathing after eating, eructations of sour, undigested food and acid, heartburn, brash or a belching of gas, you can make up your mind that you need something to stop food fermenting and cure Indigestion.

To make every bite of food you eat aid in the nourishment and strength of your body, you must rid your Stomach of poisons, excessive acid and stomach gas, which sours your entire meal—interferes with digestion and causes so many sufferers of Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Biliousness, Constipation, Griping, etc. Your case is no different—you are a stomach sufferer, though you may call it by some other mame; your real and only trouble is that which you eat does not digest, but quickly ferments and sours, producing almost any unhealthy condition.

A case of Pape's Diapepsin will cost fifty cents at any Pharmacy here, and will convince any stomach sufferer five minutes after taking a single dose that Fermentation and Sour Stomach is causing the misery of Indigestion.

No matter if you call your trouble Catarrh of the Stomach, Nervousness or Gastritis, or by any other name—always remember that a certain cure is waiting at any drug store the moment you decide to begin its use.

Pape's Diapepsin will regulate any out-of-order stomach within five minutes, and digest promptly, without any fuss or discomfort, all of any kind of food you eat.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

A. S. Morson, Elder Superintendent of the Forest Hill Sunday School:

Dear Sir:—Allow us, the Sunday School pupils and teachers of Forest Hill Sabbath School to express our appreciation of the efficient manner in which you have conducted this school from year to year. Your diligence, self-sacrifice, and painstaking in teaching us the moral precepts and spiritual truths contained in the word of God is highly pleasing to us though hitherto we have not made known to you our appreciation of it. We may be dull of hearing and slow to comprehend the meaning of those truths, but we are conscious of the fact that you are faithfully discharging your duties as superintendent, and we believe that your work of faith and labor of love will not be in vain. The passages of Scripture we study and the hymns we learn to sing may help us to resist temptation, and cheer us in the dark and cloudy day of adversity and sorrow and may be the means in the hand of the Spirit to lead us up to God and to the home he has prepared for all those who love him. We would also express our appreciation of the good work Mrs. Morson is doing both in the Sabbath School and otherwise in our midst, and at such a season of the year as this, as at all other seasons, we wish both you and your family a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year with many returns of the same. As a proof of the sincerity of these sentiments we beg you to accept this small gift, not as the measure, but as a token of our good will toward you. Signed on behalf of the school, Martha Reilly, Maggie M. McBeth, Katie L. McLaren. Forest Hill, P.E.I., December 23rd, 1911.

HOME RULE FIGHT ON IN EARNEST.

LONDON, Dec. 31—While every member of the Unionist party is taking some part in the campaign against Home Rule, which A. J. Balfour opened just before his retirement from the leadership of the opposition forces and which Bonar Law, the new leader, endorsed in a recent speech, the man who is looked to keep up the fight is Sir Edward Carson, member for Dublin University, and Solicitor-General for Ireland in the last two Unionists Governments. Sir Edward Carson is an uncompromising opponent of any change in the form of Government in Ireland and one of the best platform speakers in the country.

Sir Edward started his campaign by announcing that no matter what happened Ulster, for which he speaks, would under no circumstances accept Home Rule even if it was passed by the House of Commons and intimating that if necessary he would lead an armed rebellion against it. Whether he will go to these extremes or get the men in Ulster to follow him should he decide to do so, it is for time to tell. However, he is fighting his battle with all the fervor of an Irishman, and his voice is being raised from one end of the country to the other against what he declares to be "the crime of the age."

Generally his argument is: "Ireland is prospering, leave her alone." Another version of Bonar Law's battle cry: "What Ireland requires is less politics and more industry." These arguments are for those Englishmen who no longer believe that Home Rule means separation and who tired of the Irish question, advocate the granting of self-government to get rid of the subject."

There are other arguments against the desire of Ireland for nationhood, chief among them being that which caused Joseph Chamberlain and other Non-conformist leaders to desert Mr. Gladstone, and which some of the Non-conformist followers of the present Government cannot forget, the possibility of religious intolerance.

Other Non-Conformists are in doubt as to whether to throw over their convictions against placing their co-religionists in Ulster under the rule of Catholic Ireland or the Government which has promised them a new Education Bill and dis-establishment of the Church in Wales. In place of Home Rule Sir Edward Carson offers his fellow countrymen under Unionist administration, complete restoration of land purchase, cessation of political interference with the Department of Agriculture, reformation of the poor laws, improvement of primary and secondary education, and better treatment for teachers, Tariff Reform, which Unionists declare will benefit Ireland even more than England.
