That Burned and Pained Four Years. Hair Came Out. Loss of Sleep.

"My scalp was red and very itchy, and a fine rash developed which burned and pained incessantly. This seemed to destroy the hair roots, causing my hair to come out, which disfigured the top of my head. It also caused loss of sleep. The trouble lasted four years. Then I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment which encouraged me so I bought more, and I had one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Ointment and I was healed." (Signed) John Cunningham, Church St., Antigonish, N.S., April 4, 1917.

"Why not make Cuticura your every-day toilet soap and prevent skin troubles? Absolutely nothing better. For Free Sample Each by Mail address post paid 'Cuticura, Dept. A, Boston, U. S. A.' Sold everywhere.

IN MEMORIAM

CAPT. A. J. COOK.

The death occurred on the 22nd of March of one of Pictou's oldest citizens, Capt. A. J. Cook, aged seventy-four years. He was a man who was widely known and liked by all who knew him. He was one of the best pilots in the Maritime Provinces, being master since he was eighteen years old. He never lost a man or a ship, and many a person was saved from drowning by his brave deeds. He leaves a widow, a daughter of the late William Munro, White Haven, and three daughters, namely: Mrs. A. Scott, Dawson; Mrs. William Dalton of Pictou, and Mrs. C. H. Bennett of Charlottetown, P.E.I.; also three brothers, John, Edward, and Charles Cook, all of Sheet Harbor, N. S. The late Captain Cook was born at Sheet Harbor, N. S., October 29, 1843.

MRS. MARTIN WEST.

Many people both in city and country were pained and surprised to hear of the sudden and unexpected death of Mrs. Martin West, widow of the late Martin West, of Charlottetown, which sad event took place on the 11th at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. G. Mallet, of Union Road, with whom she has resided since the death of her husband only nine months ago. The late Mrs. West was a kind and unassuming disposition, a dutiful wife and a loving mother. The funeral service at the home and grave was conducted by Rev. R. G. Fulton, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Charlottetown, of which the deceased lady for the past 29 years had been a regular attendant. Notwithstanding the almost impossible condition of the roads the funeral was largely attended. The following gentlemen acted as pall bearers: Messrs. Isaac Bryenton, Geo. Abbott, Wm. Clark, H. Henderson, C. Mellett, and Wm. Partridge. There are left to mourn their loss two daughters, Mrs. L. W. Murphy of Kensington, Ont., and Mrs. A. G. Mallet, of Union Road, also two sisters Mrs. John Mallet, New Glasgow and Mrs. Wm. Allen of Charlottetown. To these sorrowing ones so suddenly bequeathed as well as relatives and friends, deepest sympathy is extended. (Pat. please copy.)

GERMANS DON BRITISH UNIFORMS

(Special to The Guardian) PARIS, March 28.—A number of German soldiers who had put on British uniforms in order to create confusion in the battle of the Somme front were taken prisoners and executed according to the intransigent. Another strike among commercial telegraphers employed by the Great North Western Telegraph Company in Canada is a dangerous probability.

GERMAN WOUNDED GOING TO BELGIUM

(Special to The Guardian) THE HAGUE, March 29.—The Germans are concealing the extent of their losses in wounded from their own people by sending the wounded not to Germany but to Belgium and particularly to places not lying in the direct lines of communication. Direct information today states that 143 trains of wounded run continuously into great stations. Partly the southern station but chiefly to St. Peter's. Many are transported to the great hall of the former exhibition buildings. The streets whereby the transport takes place are completely cut off from the public, not even German military men being allowed on the route.

My information in Ghent says German troops have been persuaded that this is the last battle of the war and that when this is over peace will follow immediately.

The Belgian population, whilst intensely anxious, is full of confidence, so confident that when the Germans placarded the first British Admission that ground had been lost the Belgians took even this for a German fabrication. My information learned, however, that Flanders is packed with fresh troops more than at any other time.

False Report Contradicted

It having been circulated that Messrs. Finley McDougall, Belle River, and R. E. McDonald, Pinnette, had written letters to the Registrar advising that the exemption appeal of John Blue, Belle River, be disallowed, these gentlemen wrote the Registrar, asking if there were any grounds for such imputation. The following letter from Mr. Stanley, received by McDougall and Mr. McDonald shows there was no ground for the report:

John Blue, Belle River, P. E. I.

Mr. R. E. McDonald, Pinnette, P. E. I.

With reference to the inquiry by you at this office some little time ago regarding an alleged statement made by the marginally noted to the effect that you had written letters asking that his exemption from Military Service be refused.

I now wish to state that there is no letter or other document on file in this office bearing your signature which deals in any way at all with the case of John Blue or any other claimant for exemption.

This case was decided by the Central Appeal Judge at Ottawa and the decision of the Local Tribunal was confirmed by him.

W. W. STANLEY, Registrar, M.S.A.

GERMAN SPIES PREVENT PROGRESS

(Special to The Guardian) WASHINGTON, March 29.—Charges that German spies were responsible for this country's failure to keep up its airplane programme were made in the Senate today by Senator Overman, democrat of North Carolina.

He also declared spies took metal braces and sawing them in two joined the pieces with lead and then painted them over. The first Bristol machine tried fell an investigation disclosed the defeat. Many other pieces also had been tampered with and as a result the building of Bristol machines was delayed two months.

AMSTERDAM, March 28.—Berlin advices state that on Wednesday evening German newspapers showed remarkable unanimity in voicing the difficulties which lay in the way of the German advance on the western front.

It is observed that these difficulties are increasing daily and that the public must expect a somewhat slower advance in the forthcoming days. Field Marshal Von Hindenburg, they add, is as confident as ever that he will overcome the new difficulties, the nature of which is not revealed.

BRITISH SHIPPING LOSSES HEAVY

(Special to The Guardian) LONDON, March 28.—British shipping losses have been exceptionally heavy during the past week, the U. boat toll being sixteen vessels over 1,600 tons and twelve of less burthen. It is well that the United States begins to take its ship-building program seriously.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without gripping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, Mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment-given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

BRITISH CROSS JORDAN

(Special to The Guardian) LONDON, March 28.—A further advance by the British forces which have crossed the Jordan River, in Palestine, is announced by the war office. The statement follows:—"Yesterday afternoon our forces east of the Jordan converged on Amman. Our mounted troops are within a mile of the town. (Amman is about 25 miles east of the Jordan). We took 200 prisoners, drove down four enemy airplanes and heavily bombed enemy troop transport trains on the Hedjaz Railway. Many direct hits were observed."

GENERAL FOCH HONORED

(Special to The Guardian) LONDON, March 29.—The announcement is made in this morning's Chronicle that a statement bearing on the co-ordination of the British and French military exertions in France may be expected almost immediately. Under the contemplated arrangement an influential role may be assigned to General Foch, one of France's greatest soldiers. The foregoing probably means that General Foch is to be placed in supreme command of the Allied armies on the west front.

GERMAN PRISONERS IN JAPAN

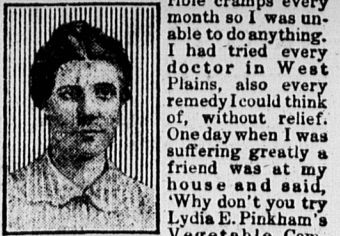

(Special to The Guardian) LONDON, March 29.—The detention camps in Japan have 4,500 German prisoners contrary to a general impression that these men have no employment to break the monotony of their lives. Except drills and exercise The Tokio Jiji prints an official communication from the military authorities stating that the policy from the first has been to offer to the prisoners some kind of labor. The experiment has proved highly satisfactory. Most of the Germans display high degrees of skill in the particular branches of work of their own choosing. The Japanese military authorities commend their industry and obedience.

WOMAN SAVED MUCH SUFFERING

By taking Friend's Advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

West Plains, Mo.—"I was all run down in health, had indigestion and terrible cramps every month so I was unable to do anything. I had tried every doctor in West Plains, also every remedy I could think of, without relief. One day when I was suffering greatly a friend was at my house and said, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?'"

"So I did, and through it I found relief from my suffering and I really believe it saved my life. It does not seem as though I can say enough in praise of this wonderful medicine for the health it has brought me."—Miss CORA LEE HALL, West Plains, Mo.

Perhaps it may seem an extravagant statement to say that this great remedy saved a life; but women like Mrs. Hall, to whom it has brought health, appreciate the danger and suffering they have escaped too well to doubt it! All who suffer should try it. Why risk life and health without it?

For special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

OTTAWA, March 27.—The Order in Council which, for the present, restricts coal orders of citizens to 70 per cent of their normal supply for next winter will not apply to customers who use six tons or under. These will get their supply.
