"The World and His Wife" is a Story of Spain

The color and passion of modern Spain is reflected in "The World and His Wife", which is the feature attraction at the Prince Edward Theatre. The story, which was adapted from a famous Spanish play, tells of Don Julian and his beautiful girl-bride, Feodora. After their marriage, Ernesto, a young writer, comes to live with them, and the world, with Don Alvarez as its spokesman, starts spreading evil stories about Feodora and Ernesto. The result is a duel and a series of dramatic events that result in the death of Don Julian and the final happiness of the young folks. This excellent feature will be shown today, afternoon and evening for the last time.

BUY CANADIAN GOODS.—Hon. G. D. Robertson says conditions of unemployment in Canada are improving. Things are looking brighter. "It is obviously the duty of Canadians," he says, "to buy enough to keep things moving and to buy Canadian goods." In other words $800,000,000 of Canadian money spent in United States means work for men in that country and unemployment in Canada.
