Break Chest Colds With Red Pepper

Beat your tight, aching chest. Stop the pain. Break up the congestion. Feel a bad cold loosen up in just a short time.

"Red Pepper Rub" is the cold remedy that brings quickest relief. It cannot hurt you and it certainly seems to end the tightness and drive the congestion and soreness right out.

Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers, and when heat penetrates right down into cold, congested, aching muscles and sore, stiff joints relief comes at once.

The moment you apply Red Pepper Rub you feel the tingling heat. In three minutes the congested spots are warmed through and through. When you are suffering from a cold, rheumatism, backache, stiff neck or sore muscles, just get a jar of Rowles Red Pepper Rub, made from red peppers, at any drug store. You will have the quickest relief known. Always say "Rowles."

"The Man From Glengarry"

Carries Important Message to the World

Apart from being a picture of real worth and merit, "The Man From Glengarry," which comes to the Prince Edward Theatre today, will broadcast to the world the fact that "Canadian-made" pictures have "arrived." The pictorialization is made from the novel of the same name by the well-known author, Ralph Connor. Portraying real life among the lumbermen and the river drivers, their loves and hates, in an environment of rare natural beauty, with a heart interest centering in a courageous and lovely girl and her man of the "white water," filled with live, tense moments and dramatic climaxes and thrills, giving a wide berth to problems of sex and any and all salacious angles. "The Man From Glengarry" comes to us as a veritable breath of his own beloved forests, mountains and rivers, so that one can almost sense the pungent, pine-laden aroma of the trees and hear the rush and roar of the rapids and the falls while watching the picture. How different this from the ordinarily accepted version exploited as Canadian pictures? The wolves, half-breed trappers, mounted police and the snow, are absent, and from the flashing of the title on the screen to the final dramatic climax which grips the audience in breathless suspense, not one of these stock characters, popularly supposed to be bound up in the life of all Canadians, is seen. A better, fairer phase of Canadian life is shown, a phase which all who are fortunate enough to see it's wonderful picture will readily agree is not only more pleasant to contemplate, but is eminently more just to Canada, her customs and her people. The "Canadian-made" picture industry is as yet in its infancy, creeping, as it were. Who among you then will not hold out the strengthening hand of encouragement so that this "baby" will soon learn to walk with a firm step towards that point which must ever be its goal—the top?

COFFEE

"How good it smells"—for it is packed fresh roasted, and the doubly sealed can preserves its rare aroma and flavor.

The Easter Breakfast

Premium Ham or Bacon

THAT breakfast on Easter Morning should consist of Bacon and Eggs has become almost as honored a national institution as Turkey for Thanksgiving.

But on this Easter Morning, bright with the promise of Springtime—vigor—and joy—the Bacon certainly should be "Premium"—the world's standard—as befitting the occasion. Substitute ordinary Bacon or Ham for Swift's "Premium" and you dull the joy of the meal.

For Swift's "Premium" Bacon is of characteristic and distinctive quality. Firstly, by its choice selection—for "Premium" Brand must have just the right proportion of fat and lean. Then next it possesses an unmatched succulence and savoriness due to the exclusive Swift process of curing and smoking.

Be careful to get Swift's "Premium" when you buy Bacon or Ham—make sure of it this coming Easter Morning. Order from your Butcher or Grocer.
