

13 Running Sores.

Mr. Stephen Wescott, Freeport, N.S., gives the following experience with Burdock Blood Bitters.

"I was very much run down in health and employed our local physician who attended me three months; finally my leg broke out in running sores with fearful burning. I had thirteen running sores at one time from my knee to the top of my foot. All the medicine I took did me no good, so I threw it aside and tried B.B.B. When one-half the bottle was gone I noticed a change for the better and by the time I had finished two bottles my leg was perfectly healed and my health greatly improved."

SUMMONS DISMISSED.

 On enquiry of the Stipendiary Magistrate he said that the information against Dougherty had been abandoned and information laid against James Haley who confessed and was fined $100 which he (the Magistrate) believed he paid. He was given to understand that there was not sufficient evidence to convict Dougherty. He remarked that the prosecutor was not required to give names of witnesses.
 Inspector Campbell was next called upon and asked why the prosecution against Dougherty had been dropped. He said that in two other cases the proprietors wife or an inmate of the house were summoned and convicted and in consequence the proprietor of the license did not forfeit it.
 THE GUARDIAN representative then asked Mr. Campbell if Mr. Dougherty had approached him with a view to have Haley prosecuted in his stead.
 Mr. Campbell.—"Mr. Dougherty did not approach me."
 G. Rep.—Was it suggested to you by Dougherty's counsel?
 Mr. Campbell.—"Dougherty's bartender offered to confess if summons was transferred to him. He said so personally."
 Premier Farquharson when seen said he had every confidence in Mr. Campbell and would look into the matter this morning.

 THE usual complaints are coming in about boys bathing around the wharves and basking in the sun regardless of the style and apparel required by the usage to civilized society. A little wholesome advice from the police might induce the boys to take up their headquarters in more secluded places along the shore, where their undressed uniforms would attract less attention. This would leave the wharves free from promenaders who wish to get the benefit of the sea air occasionally and would not seriously inconvenience the boys.
 WHEN the typical P. E. I. farmer gets hold of a good thing the missionary spirit is strong enough in him to wish to show his good fortune with his neighbors. One of these was discovered by Mr. John Dickieson during a recent tour through the country calling at the houses of a farmer to whom he had sold a Little Maxwell Binder and with whom he had an appointment for that day he found pinned on the door the following notice: "Mr.—is back in the feald stumpin. Mr. John Dickieson if you want to see Mr.—come back to the feald. I know 2 men wants Little Maxwell Binders." Needless to say Mr. Dickieson went to the field and was soon put into communication with the two men referred to and as a result they have become missionaries for the Little Maxwell Binder.

To P. E. ISLAND FARMERS
 I purpose being at Summerside on or about Oct. 1st to begin my annual purchase of Lambs, Geese, Turkeys, Chickens & etc. when I trust that my former pleasant business intercourse with the Farmers of P. E. Island will be renewed. My facilities for handling stock at Parkside Farm are second to none in the Maritime Provinces. With a set of Platform Fairbanks Scales to weigh stock and sample room for their accommodation I can handle 2500 to 3500 Lambs per week until the close of navigation, and I will as herebefore pay the highest prices the Market will afford. My headquarters will be the Queen Hotel, and I hope to have the patronage of all my old friends on the Island. Any correspondence in reference to the above can be addressed to Mr. R. C. McLeod who will give all information on the subject.
