HOW TO BEAUTIFY THE COMPLEXION.

To have a soft, smooth, skin, free free from eruptions and pimples, the blood must be healthy and pure. Ferrozone invigorates enfeebled blood, and cleanses it of all impurities and poisons; it brings color to the lips and cheeks, brilliancy to the eyes, whitens the teeth and sweetens the breath. No tonic compares with Ferrozone in rapid action and permanent results. Try it. Price 50c. at druggists or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

THE ATTITUDE OF GERMANY.

It has been assumed, perhaps too hastily, that in the war between Russia and Japan the sympathies of the German nation are with Russia. Herr Bebel, leader of the large and growing body of Socialists, asserts the contrary of this. During a debate in the Reighstag on the 9th instant the Socialist orator animadverted severely upon the Kaiser's message to the Czar when the the battleship Petropavlovsk was sunk, the message containing the words "Russia's mourning is Germany's mourning." Herr Bebel proceeded:

"I deny most emphatically that the Emperor's telegram reflects the sentiments of the German people. In my opinion Germany's sympathies are far more on the side of Japan than on that of Russia.

"The land in which such things can happen as recently occurred in Russia," continued Herr Bebel, "stands upon such a low level of civilization that all the rest of Europe has the most lively interest in seeing the sun of civilization rise upon it".

The speaker claimed that western Europe would have special reasons to rejoice if Russia loses in the war, for "the more Russia is weakened by the struggle the less likely it becomes that Russia will mix in the affairs of western Europe.' The fact appears to be that the Kaiser and the governing classes in Germany sympathise with Russia, just as they sympathise with Russian absolutism and would gladly revert to the order of things in which the Kaiser, like the Czar, could rule without the assistance of a troublesome parliament in which speech is sometimes much too free for their liking. So it would appear that German sympathies are divided a good deal along political party lines. Even thus considered the various Socialist, Liberal and Democratic bodies in the Reichstag make up 162 of the total membership of 397. Although still in the minority the Socialist and Liberal element in the nation is growing, and this element is undoubtedly anti-Russian. To put it broadly in a sentence, the German Government sympathises with Russia while the people largly sympathise with Japan.

SOUTH CAROLINA'S LIQUOR PROBLEM.

South Carolina eleven years ago adopted the dispensary system, as it is called, of dealing with the liquor traffic, which is a modification of the Swedish plan. The population of the state by the last census was 1,340,316 of whom 782,321, or more than one half the total, were negroes. It is said the negroes were more addicted to drink than the whites. The dispensary system was adopted as a compromise between license and prohibition.

Under the dispensary system the liquor sold is supplied by the state and is inspected as a guard against adulteration. All supplies for the dispensaries are purchased by a state board of three members, and are shipped to and stored in the state dispensary in Columbia. A state commissioner has the oversight of the whole business. The county dispensaries are under the supervision of county boards of three members, who select the retailing agents, the latter being paid salaries.

The retail dispensaries have their supplies invoiced to them from the state dispensary at a price which nets about 6 per cent profit, and is limited by law to 10 per cent. In this way the state receives $125,000, which is turned into the treasury for the support of schools. The retail dispensaries also sell at a price fixed by the state board, and a net profit of about 16 per cent is realized, which profits, amounting to about $500,000 throughout the entire state, are divided between the county and the town in which the dispensary is located.

At these dispensaries liquor can only be sold between sunrise and sunset, and only in sealed packages of not less than half a pint nor more than four and seven eights gallons. It is sold only for cash. It is not permitted to be drank on the premises. The law prohibits any sale to drunkard or minors. According to the latest report there were in South Carolina 490 retail and 3 wholesale liquor dealers, and 10 wholesale and 44 retail dealers in malt liquors. But 113 of the retail and two of the wholesale liquor dealers, 33 of the retail and all of the wholesale dealers in malt liquors are state officials selling according to law. In other words there were 389 illicit sellers to 158 selling to law.

It will be seen that the dispensary system does not do away with the illegal sale of liquor. In fact there are more than twice as many selling at all hours and in all sorts of places the vile stuff common to the illicit trade, and permitting it to be drank on the premises, and selling for the profit of the sellers as there were of the dispensary agents who are supposed to keep the law and make no personal profit. But compromises are often popular and the state, counties and cities find it profitable and get a revenue from the business. This is practically the system which Premier Ross proposes for Ontario.

DEATH OF CHIEF HERMANS.

The death of Charles Hermans, Chief of the Fire Department took place at the Charlottetown Hospital yesterday morning and was learned by our citizens with general and sincere regret. Mr. Hermans was of stalwart form and in the prime of life, being 52 years of age last August. For many years he was a prominent member of the Fire Department, and had well earned his promotion to the position of Assistant to the Chief Engineer when he received it in 1892. Upon the death of Chief Engineer Large in 1900 he was appointed Chief and has since filled the position with conspicuous ability and with satisfaction to those who served under him.

Mr. Hermans was a son of the late Augustus E. C. Hermans, and succeeded his father in his large plumbing business on Grafton Street which he continued to conduct until the present time. He was a popular member of several societies including the C. M. B. A. and Knights of Columbus, and was also a leading member of St. Dunstan's Cathedral choir. In all these various associations his early and unexpected demise will create sad vacancies where his loss will be sincerely mourned.

He married in 1876 Miss Mary McCarron—a sister of ex-Councillor McCarron, who survives him and to whom The Guardian joins with the entire community in extending sincere and hearty sympathy. This sympathy is enhanced by his brief illness and unexpected demise, and especially by the universal respect and esteem in which the deceased gentleman was held. He was a good citizen, a faithful and zealous public official and a man who well discharged his duties in all the relations of life. His death is a public loss.

KEEP THE BALANCE UP.

It has been truthfully said that any disturbance of the even balance of health causes serious trouble. Nobody can be too careful to keep this balance up. When people begin to lose appetite, or to get tired easily, the least imprudence brings on sickness, weakness, or debility. The system needs a tonic, craves it, and should not be denied it; and the best tonic of which we have any knowledge is Hood's Sarsaparilla. What this medicine has done in keeping healthy people healthy, in keeping up the even balance of health, gives it the same distinction as a preventive that it enjoys as a cure. Its early use has illustrated the wisdom of the old saying that a stitch in time saves nine. Take Hood's for appetite, strength and endurance.

WHAT HAPPENED IN SUMMERSIDE

A commercial traveller well known to nearly everybody in Ch'town, told us a little story yesterday of what happened to him one day last week while visiting Summerside.

HERE ARE HIS OWN WORDS

I went to Summerside on business, put up at a hotel, hung my hat on the hat rack and went into dinner. After dinner wishing to go out, I went to the hat rack, picked up a hat, looked inside it, saw Prowse Bros. name, said to myself this is my hat alright, put it on my head, found it wasn't mine; picked up the next hat, saw Prowse Bros. name, said this is it this time sure, put it on, found it wasn't; picked up hat no. three, looked inside found Prowse Bros. name, said I got my own this time positively, found it was'nt; picked up the next hat, looked inside found same name and thought my trouble must surely be ended now, but they were'nt, had to try again; picked up hat number five, looked inside, same old name, said, well if I haven't my own hat this time, someone must have put a hoo-doo on me. It wasn't my hat yet. Almost in despair I grabbed for nat number six looked inside found that same Prowse Bros. staring me in the face, said to myself well try, try again, and the seventh time I did not fail, it was my own hat, and I went away rejoicing, also thinking that if Prowse Bros were going to sell hats to every man on the Island that I would make them stamp my name in mine so I would know it without trying on every other hat on the rack.

NOW LISTEN

Every word in the above is absolutely true. The first 7 Hats in a Summerside Hotel rack had Prowse Bros. name on them and perhaps all the rest of the Hats had too, the gentlemen did not wait to see.

This will give you a slight inkling of where the good hats come from. Many other men had troubles like this; that's why we got the machine that stamps your name in the hat, and avoids all mistakes. If you buy hats elsewhere, you need not worry about having your name in it, because nobody else around here sells enough hats to have two of them come together more than once in a million years. Wouldn't you like to be one of the great crowd who wear our Hats, and are happy.

SWALLOWED HIS TEETH.

Brockville, May 10.—F. M. Scott, a leading dairyman of this section, retired Friday night and two hours latter was awakened by a choking sensation. He quickly discovered that he had swallowed the plate holding his false teeth, and that it had become firmly lodged in his throat. He awakened members of the family and was driven to Prescott. At the Ogdensburg City Hospital efforts to extricate the teeth were made without success and after consultation it was agreed that an operation was necessary. By means of an opening in the neck the oesophagus was reached and the plate finally removed.

HEAD AND SHOULDERS ABOVE ALL

is the rapturous feeling of any man, no matter how diminutive physically, who wears clothing of our make. Even a little fellow drapperly clad makes a good impression, while a giant improperly dressed is a laughing stock. Fortunately we know how to build clothes for big men and little men and-in-betweens.
