Committee On Fisheries Meet

BOSTON, June 12.—The Maritime Provinces were well represented at the 14th Annual meeting of the North American Committee on Fishery Investigations here.

Dr. A. G. Huntsman, director of the St. Andrews Biological station, New Brunswick, secretary of the committee representing Canada; Dr. G. F. Sleggs, of the University College, St. John's, representing Newfoundland; and A. W. H. Needler, another Canadian.

Dr. Huntsman discussed the cod tagging done by the Canadian government. He stated that many of the tagged Canadian cod remained localized just as the cod do off the United States coast.

Several of these burners will be installed in Charlottetown this month and we would be glad to arrange for demonstrations and information.

A paper submitted by A. W. H. Needler, dealing with the haddock fishery in the waters of the Western Atlantic showed that the catch of this fish in American vessels off the United States coast has been on the increase since 1880.

William C. Schroeder of the United States Bureau of Fisheries, discussed the cod situation, pointing out that each fall a migration of cod took place from Nantucket Shoals to the waters of Rhode Island, New York, New Jersey and Delaware.

The great increase in the consumption of haddock, which may be taken in nets, has caused some persons to look with mild alarm on the supply of this fish for the future.

The annual world catch of cod aggregates one billion pounds, of which only twelve percent is taken by United States vessels.

Mr. Joseph Delaney, student at St. Dunstan's University, returned to his home last week to spend his summer holidays.

Mrs. H. A. Stewart, Miss Elma Stewart, Mrs. Lee Owen and Mr. James Ramsay, all of Hamilton, motored to Scarsletown, where they were in attendance at the funeral of the late Dr. Thomson Trueman.

Mrs. Will Essery, Summerside spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert MacKenzie.

Miss Grace Riley visited friends in Summerside during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon MacKay and two sons, Messrs. Allan and Ralph of Bradalbane, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hume Hopgood, on Wednesday.

The lobster season is now well advanced and so far the returns have been very meagre.
