DRAKE-LEA.—An event of interest to a wide circle of friends in Vernon River and vicinity, took place in the Vernon River United Church on Wednesday, August 23rd, at 6:00 p.m. when Edith Estelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lea, was united in marriage to Lorin Minter Drake, son of Mr. Francis Drake and the late Mrs. Drake, nee Florence Keeping. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. S. Wells, pastor of the church, in the presence of a large number of guests and acquaintances. The church was decorated for the occasion by friends of the young couple, with a gorgeous array of flowers. Miss Edith Estelle, a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and Perley Drake, brother of the groom, was best man. Mrs. Hudson Lowther Alford, sister of the groom, presided at the organ and Mrs. A.S. Wells sang "O Perfect Love." The bride looked very sweet in a floor length gown of white crepe, brodered sheer with shoulder length veil. She carried a beautiful sheaf of gladioli arranged with baby's breath and fern, and traveled in a suit of Navy with matching accessories. The maid of honor wore a floor length gown of white crepe, taffeta. Her head dress was a harmonizing halo of veiling and flowers. She carried flowers blending with those of the bride. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. A delicious informal lunch was served by girl friends of the bride. There were many lovely and valuable wedding gifts, and previous to the wedding the bride had been tendered a miscellaneous "shower". Both bride and groom are very popular in their home communities, and the district gratified to know that after their return from a honeymoon trip to points in the Atlantic, they will be residing at Millview where the groom is a very promising farmer. They have the best wishes of the entire community for a married life of prosperity and happiness.

Kerrigan-Porter Wedding

In the lovely summer garden setting of the Chestnut Hill home of Mrs. F. Livermore, the marriage of Virginia Ernestine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Albee Porter, of Brookline, Mass., and Flight Lieut. Harold Fleming Kerrigan, D.S.O., D.F.C., R.C.A.F., son of the late Harold George Kerrigan and Mrs. Kerrigan, 619 Westmount, Que., and Ridgewood Park, Goderich, Ont., was solemnized on Saturday, August 12th. Rev. Mr. Geoffrey Lund of All Saints Episcopal Church officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a marquisette and taffeta gown with bishop sleeves and Peter Pan collar embroidered with seed pearls. She carried white orchids. Her coronet also of seed pearls was arranged with a lovely veil of tulle and lace. Miss Joan Ann Kerrigan, sister of the bridegroom, as maid of honor, was gowned in periwinkle blue chiton. Mrs. Doreen Kerrigan, in blue marquisette, and Miss Eileen Lanscott, wearing yellow chiffon, also carried nosegays, with flowers in their hair.

Mr. Peter F. Kerrigan acted as best man for his brother, and Ensign George King, U. S. N., ushered Mrs. Porter, the bride's mother, who was gowned in aqua blue crepe with black velvet hat and matching plumes. She carried mauve orchids. Mrs. Kerrigan, the bridegroom's mother, wore a two-piece gown of powder blue with black hat and matching accessories and wore mauve orchids.

The reception was held in the garden setting of summer flowers. The bride's travelling costume was of navy blue and white checked taffeta with hat and purse to match. Out-of-town guests included Sub-Lieut. Barbara F. Kerrigan, W.R.C.N.S., of Halifax, N.S., sister of the bridegroom. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Doreen Murray, now visiting here, and a niece of Miss Edith Rogers Charlottetown.

Five Holstein Prize Winners at Provincial Fair

The following article has been supplied by the Holstein Priesan Association of Canada:

The Holstein Show at Charlottetown Exhibition grounds, August 17, was the best in many years, the quality of the tops being particularly good. Numbers, too, were well up, fourteen exhibitors, including several new ones, bringing out a total of 116 head, 90 females and 26 males. J. E. McCague of Alliston, Ont., did a very satisfactory job of judging. The "Abegweit" entries of Premier J. Walter Jones, of eleven pairs, both Male and Female Grand Championships, and the Junior Female Championships, and the Junior Female Reserve Championships, his closest competitor was Colby C. Lewis, Freetown, with five firsts, eight second and three Reserve Grand Championships, and the Junior Reserve Grand Championship for Bull. The Senior and Grand Champion Female was Abegweit Robin, who headed the class for dry Cows. She is the dam of the first prize two-year-old, and is by Abegweit Mashee, but the sire of the first prize Senior Get-of-Sire, is well known as the sire of Abegweit Mildy who recently set a new championship production record in the three-year-old class. Abegweit Capitaine was named Junior Reserve Grand Champion Bull after heading the first class, in which last year's Grand Champion was forced down to third place. Lively King Deke, who stood second for Colby C. Lewis, went on to the Reserve Senior and Reserve Champion Championship. Abegweit Capitaine is a son of well-known Abegweit Sparkie who topped the 1942 Blue Ribbon Sale at Waukegan, Wisconsin, at $1,300. "Sparkie" is the dam of the first prize Progeny, composed of the Grand Champion bull and the second prize three-year-old milk, and is also a maternal sister of the Junior Champion heifer, Abegweit Mashee. The latter headed the Junior Yearlings. Second to "Mashee" in class and following her through to the Reserve Junior Championship was Seattle Countess Kerk, shown by a new exhibitor, Robert Chappell & Son, York, who also has the first prize two-year-old, first prize three-year-old and second prize Junior Get-of-Sire, a most satisfactory showing for a first attempt. The Junior Champion bull was River Bell Pathfinder Lad, who topped the Reserve Bull Calves for Oswald J. Newson, Clyde River. The Reserve Junior award went to the winning Senior Yearling, Lynnenth Rooker Stayright, shown by Colby C. Lewis. Mr. Lewis' Reserve Senior and Reserve Grand Champion milkers were the Farming milkers three-year-old, Mercedes Rooker Tycoon.

Other first prize winners were Colby C. Lewis, Freetown, and R. A. Profit, Freetown, each with two. A detailed list of the awards is as follows:

NOTICE TO FARMERS
Regarding Farr

As we have already stated in the press and on radio, The National Selective Service, Ottawa, in conjunction with the Military Authorities, have made it possible for the Dominion-Provincial Farm Labour Bureau to offer the services of 150 English-speaking members of a Nova Scotia Unit to the farmers of this Province under the Detailed Farm Duty Plan. Under this plan the soldiers work under strict Military Rule; Officers and N. C. O. accompany them to the Province. The rate of pay is $3.00 per day, wet days and Sundays excluded.

50 of these men have arrived and are now available for farmers who wish to procure their services. And further arrivals of these men will depend upon the number of applications received for their services. Therefore, it is important that farmers wishing to procure this help, now, or at a later date, advise this office immediately the number of men required and the approximate date they will be required. If we do not act quickly these men may be assigned to the other Provinces. To let us know later may be too late.

If you are interested, Phone your requirements (collect).

MARINES WITH JAP TO THE VERY END

SAIPAN, Aug. 26 - (CP) - A blue-eyed toothy Japanese ambled into the Marine lines waving a white flag. He asked if the Marines had taken all the island. They had. The Jap gushed with friendliness and said he was with the Marines to the very end.

A minute later he made a headlong dive for a grenade. The Marines were with him to his very end.
