EX-CHAMPION DEMPSEY IN SMASHING COMEBACK KNOCKS OUT JACK SHARKEY IN SEVENTH ROUND

Tiger Jack, amid the cheers of 80,000 fans removes first obstacle in his path towards regaining the heavyweight crown at Yankee Stadium, New York last night. Former champion felled his opponent twice in the last round and receives greatest ovation ever accorded a fighter.

NEW YORK, July 21.—Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight champion of the world came back to the prize ring tonight to fight Jack Sharkey, 15 rounds for the right to challenge Gene Tunney for the title in September. Dempsey weighed 184 1/2, Sharkey 196.

The lure of the big bronze hard-punching Dempsey and the clever Boston sailorman drew a crowd of over $2,000 to the huge American League ball park. The gate was estimated at well over one million dollars, a record for non-championship fights.

THE FIGHT BY ROUNDS

Round One
Dempsey came out in a crouch and fell into a clinch hammering five short rights to the body as Sharkey missed a left hook. Dempsey bored in again, drilling hard smashes to the ribs. Jack hooked two lefts to Dempsey's head. They were close again and Sharkey got in two more to the head. Sharkey stabbed Dempsey with a left to the head. Dempsey bored in again, took two lefts to the head and again drove short punches to Sharkey's body. A left hook shook Sharkey's head back. Sharkey nicked Jack with two right uppercuts. Dempsey reeling and groggy moved about the ring under a fusillade. Sharkey smashed him again with rights. Dempsey was groggy as Sharkey missed a long right. The bell caught Sharkey half way through a right swing. Dempsey went to his corner virtually tired.

Round Two

Dempsey's seconds worked on him while Sharkey lay back calm and confident. Jack came out slowly and Sharkey missed a left. Sharkey drove Dempsey to the ropes with a right to the jaw. Dempsey fought fiercely at Sharkey's body, but landed heavy in the clinches. Dempsey missed a mild left hook. In close they swapped jolts to the ribs. Dempsey held as Sharkey clubbed him to the body. Sharkey nailed Dempsey with left to the head and drove Dempsey to the ropes with short rights to the jaw. The Boston boy was landing at will, solid smashes to the chin that rocked the former champion. They slugged fiercely in the centre of the ring as Dempsey nailed Sharkey with two hooks to the chin.

Round Three

A small cut appeared under Dempsey's left eye from Sharkey's jab. Dempsey drove a long left to the stomach and then took a left and right uppercut as he swayed to close quarters. Dempsey missed a left to the head but landed two right jolts at Sharkey's chin. Dempsey shuffled in apparently stronger, crowding Sharkey with a body attack. Dempsey whipped over a right uppercut as he wove in. Sharkey caught Dempsey with a wicked right smash to the chin as the former champion came in to whale at the Boston boy's body. Sharkey slipped and went down in his own corner but was up without a count.

Round Four

Sharkey was less confident as he came out and missed a mild right. Dempsey drove Sharkey around the ring with fierce punches to the body. Sharkey breathed hard as Dempsey nailed a left to the chin and a right to the ribs. Sharkey cut three left jabs into Dempsey's face and hooked both hands to the face. Dempsey's right eye was bleeding badly. Dempsey to the body and lifted Sharkey's head with a right uppercut. Sharkey missed and took two smashing jolts from Dempsey's left. Dempsey nailed Sharkey with a left hook full on the jaw.

Round Five

Dempsey appeared to be finding himself under the heat of the milling. Sharkey spit blood when Dempsey swung close for another short armed body attack. Sharkey met him with a right upper cut coming in but Dempsey got in two lefts to the ribs. Sharkey landed a straight right to the head and Dempsey clinched. A cut appeared on Dempsey's left cheek. Dempsey bored right back, throwing rights to the body but taking Sharkey's left four times to the head. Dempsey hooked a solid left to Sharkey's head and the sailor wobbled.

Round Six

Sharkey apparently much fresher than Dempsey, was playing a waiting game, he let Dempsey rush him again. Sharkey was short with a left to the chin, but his right smacked solidly on Dempsey's jaw. Dempsey missed a long left. Dempsey came steadily on, however, ramming away to the body but Sharkey was all elbows on defence. Sharkey slapped a right to Dempsey's face. Sharkey took Dempsey's head back with a terrific right uppercut to the jaw. It was the cleanest and hardest punch of the fight so far. Dempsey leaned in, however, pushing Sharkey to the ropes. Dempsey caught the sailor coming out with three smashes to the head and the crowd boomed as Sharkey deliberately jolted Dempsey in the face after the bell.

Round Seven

Dempsey was weaving again and Sharkey held as the fire grew hot about his body. Dempsey suddenly whipped his left into Sharkey's stomach and followed with a straight right hand smash to the jaw that sent Sharkey down. Sharkey got to his knees at the count of nine, swayed and fell flat to his face as the referee counted ten. Sharkey's hands clanked the floor when he rose, but the referee disallowed it. Probably the greatest ovation given a fighter was accorded Dempsey as the referee raised his hand in victory. The stadium fairly rocked. The round had lasted only forty-five seconds.

Preliminaries

James J. Braddock, Jersey City, lightweight scored a six round decision over his Harlem rival, rugged George Larocco. In the final round Braddock floored his rival twice for counts of nine but could not keep him down. Braddock weighed 165 1/2 and Larocco 179.

American Custom's Decision Reversed

(Canadian Press)
NEW YORK, July 21.—A Treasury Department ruling designed to protect United States merchants from Canadian competition was reversed today by the United States customs court, which decided that Americans remaining in Canada less than four or five days may return with one hundred dollars worth of merchandise duty free. The decision applies to citizens returning from Canada the same as applies to those returning from "abroad." The case decided was brought by Henry Goldsmith, consultant on immigration matters who protested against paying duty on a table cloth purchased in Canada recently. He was upheld by Justice Young of North Dakota and Adamson of Georgia while Justice Waste of Michigan dissented.

SALEM, Ore., July 21.—The brothers, Ray, Roy and Hugh de Autremont, who are serving life sentences in the state penitentiary here for the murder of four men in the dynamiting of a mail train in the Siskiyou Tunnel four years ago, have turned their backs upon the philosophy of Nietzsche and Huxley in favor of the Bible.

Doctor Must Give Evidence in Court

BIRMINGHAM, July 21.—A doctor when on the witness stand in court has not the privileges of a legal adviser but must make disclosures about a patient, however confidential, if ordered by the court to do so. An important ruling to this effect has been given by Mr. Justice Sir Henry McCardie, of the King's Bench Division of the High Court of Justice, at the assizes in Birmingham.

Automatic Wireless Alarm Invented

(Special to the Guardian)
LONDON, July 21.—All large ocean-going vessels will shortly be fitted with a new automatic wireless alarm apparatus. The apparatus which has been designed by the Marconi company will automatically pick up, discriminate and then call attention to the fact that the vessel is within wireless range for sending out distress signals. This will relieve operators from the necessity of being always at their posts.

C.N. PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES BIG HOTEL FOR HFX.

MONTREAL, July 21.—In connection with the possible participation by the Canadian National Railway in the construction of the proposed Lord Nelson Hotel at Halifax, the following statement was given out today in Montreal by Sir Henry Thornton, President of the National System:

"In view of the fact that any partial investment in the proposed hotel at Halifax would require the approval of Parliament, which could not be obtained until the next session, and the preference indicated that the Canadian National should construct and entirely own a hotel at Halifax which is in accordance with the original desire of the railway, an appropriate amount will be included in the annual railway budget to be submitted at the next session of Parliament.

Temperature of 90 In Arctic Circle

(Canadian Press)
GOTHENBURG, Sweden, July 21.—Freak weather conditions have been harassing Sweden causing most damage in the Lapland regions and on the west coast at Gellivare far north of Arctic circles temperatures above 90 degrees have been reported while Stockholm has been much cooler. Lightning bolts ruined a giant transformer at the famous Porjus Hydro Electric Power Station, owned by the government and located close to the Arctic circle in Lapland, while at Umea on the Northern Baltic coast, a 16 year old girl was killed and a military patrol of three men struck unconscious.

United States Takes Firm Stand

(Canadian Press)
GENEVA, July 21.—The United States will stand pat in her insistence upon the liberty to build any kind of secondary cruisers she desires and mount on them those types of guns best suited to United States naval needs, according to information available in Geneva tonight. The British have been vigorously advocating the limitations of secondary cruisers to 6,000 tons displacement with maximum gun caliber of six inches. The difference of opinion continues to constitute the danger problem of the tripartite naval conference and is doubtless the main question on which the British Cabinet will deliberate tomorrow in London.

MAN'S DREAM GUIDES SEARCHERS TO BODY OF LONG-MISSING WOMAN

JACKSON, Mich., July 21.—A dream today guided searchers to the body of Mrs. Julia M. Wheeler, 70 years old, who has been missing from her home near Gillet Lake since June 19 Edward Acton, one of the men who has been aiding in a search for Mrs. Wheeler, dreamed last night that the body would be found in some bushes on swampy ground a quarter of a mile from Mrs. Wheeler's home. Acton had searched through this section previously but after telling another searcher of his dream, the men decided to revisit the spot. They found the body covered with vines and long grass.
