Gay Law Is Winner Of Junior Free - For - All

Sensational Racing Witnessed On Final Day Of Meeting

Sensational finishes in every heat marked the closing of the Old Home Week racing program on Saturday afternoon when another record crowd, for the final day, saw Gay Law, piloted by Angie Allen, win the junior free for all in duels of speed with Judd, and also saw Brewer's Gallon win the 2:28 Trot, Mayme Axworthy take the 2:29 Pace, and Vella La Vella the 2:17 Pace.

It was a fitting closing to what had been a great racing program and as a final salute the fans were brought to their feet in the final heat of the meeting when seven horses competing in the 2:17 Pace came down to the wire in a blanket finish with the first four strung out across the track in a line and the other three just a stride behind them. It took a photo finish to decide the various positions, with Jerry Lee Volo having a nose to the good and by his victory paying his backers $60.20 for each two dollar ticket.

That was the big thrill of what was a thrill-packed day as all the classes produced great racing with three of the favorites again falling by the wayside in the torrid duels of speed that were taking place all over the track.

Presents Prizes

Immediately after the closing mile President H.J. Kennedy presented the prizes to the winning owners and drivers, with Fergie Baxter winning the Macdonald Tobacco Co. trophy as the leading driver of the meeting. Baxter was tied in points with Chester Smith but gained possession of the coveter trophy by winning the draw.

Gay Law and Judd waged three terrific battles in the feature event, the Junior Free For All, before the former was returned the winner. In the first heat Judd, pacing a storm went around the field of five starters on the second turn to take over the lead and hold it practically to the wire. But the smooth pacing Gay Law, rated well by driver Allen, started to move up from his fourth position on the back stretch the second trip around; at the top of the stretch he was second and in the race home just nipped the favored Judd in a hairbreadth finish.

Judd got back on even footing in the middle mile. Right after the start he snapped the rail from Gay Law; again Gay Law waited until the final quarter to make his bid and with Kavola made a three horse battle of it, but Judd had too much left, winning by a length over Gay Law with Kavola just a step behind and Wilkin and Joe Direct, the other entrants in that order.

Thrilling Duel

Gay Law showed his gameness in the third heat. Judd was off to front to lead the field around to the backstretch the second time around. Kavola was trailing with Wilkin third and Gay Law fourth. As they hit the backstretch Gay Law made his move and the fans could sense the mighty battle that was coming. At the top of the stretch Gay Law had got up on even terms with Kavola just a stride behind the leader, but in the stretch the Allen-driven horse had too much pace, winning by a length and a half with Kavola third and the Wilkin fourth. It was Gay Law's second race of the week, having started in the free for all pace on Thursday.

The fans saw the first upset occur in the very first class of the day, the 2:28 Trot, second division, when Brewer's Gallon, second choice in the betting chalked up a straight heat victory over a field of seven starters. The favored San Ton couldn't get going and fell in the stretch in the second heat and was drawn for the third. In the first heat it was Prairie Pete who furnished the competition; Reuben Lee was runner-up in the third with King Grattan 2nd. adding more excitement by winding up in second place in the final mile and paying over $18.00 for a two dollar ticket.

Mayme Axworthy accounted for the second straight upset in the 2:29 Pace when she headed a field of seven starters in the first two heats before falling back to third in the final mile that was won by Ace Fingo. The race provided keen racing in all three heats with positions changing rapidly practically over every part of the racing oval.

Vella La Vella was the only favorite to withstand the onslaught of the lesser lights, winning the first two miles in duels of speed with Sandy D. that saw the two horses race to the wire in neck and neck finishes. Then came the big thrill of the day with the sensational finish the seven horses staged. Jerry Lee Volo was returned the winner, with Josedale Clipper second, Lee's Nightmare third and Vella La Vella fourth, and the other horses, Sandy D., O. U. Volo and Money Maker inches apart just a stride behind the winner. It was as pretty a racing picture as one would want to see and it was also the closest one of a meeting that had produced many close ones.

Red Sox Team Topples Vics

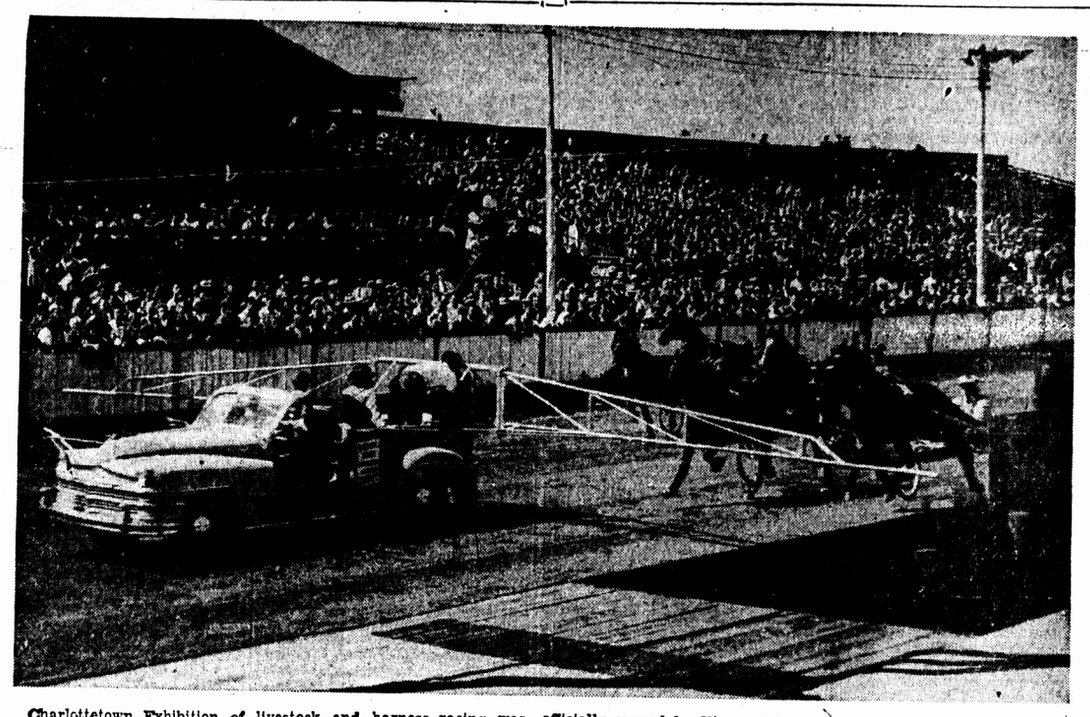
The Red Sox took the Vics into camp in a softball game played on the Knights of Columbus diamond last evening, by a score of 16 to 7.

They lined up as follows:—

Red Sox: Wright, Connors, Gallant, Hoyt, Hartinger, Thacker, Birt, Ward, MacDougall.

Vics: LeClair, Drew, Joseph, Coyle, Coady, Gillis, Kaye, McLeod, Tulle.

The next game will be Tuesday evening at 6.



Charlottetown Exhibition of livestock and harness racing was officially opened by Viscount Alexander, Governor-General of Canada, who enjoyed the racing following ceremony. A part of crowd watches a "start" from new starting gate. Premier of Prince Edward Island, J. Walter Jones, who attended, is an outstanding Holstein breeder.

Still with a chance to catch a playoff berth, Knights of Columbus juniors meet the league leading Recce in tonight's junior baseball game and the Knights who kept their playoff chances alive by beating the Kinsmen their last time out are hoping to be able to turn the same trick against the hard-hitting Ryan-managed crew this evening.

Whether or not they can do it remains to be seen but it is certain that the youngsters handled by "Fat" Connors will be in there giving everything they have in an effort to come out the victors. Victims already this season of some tough losses, the kids nevertheless have kept battling away even when it appeared as if they were fighting in a losing cause. The fact is that their determination have now placed them in a spot where they can upset the old apple cart and get into the playoffs, a position that appeared far distant for them a month ago.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

Summerside All Stars again fell victims to the local All Stars in yesterday's exhibition encounter at the Park diamond and it would appear, judging by the results of games played between the two teams so far this season that the locals will be able to regain their intermediate Island title. But those exhibition encounters mean little when the "chips" are really down.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

Many times in the past, Summerside teams after absorbing defeats through the season have come along in the playoffs to turn the tables on their old rivals from Charlottetown. Such could very well be the case again this season. Summerside have been trying out a lot of players and have not yet decided upon their starting lineup. Time is getting short to do so but it is a safe bet that they will be ready when that time comes.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

And it shouldn't be forgotten for a moment that in the background is a player who will strengthen their chances considerably. Joe Bernard, the kid with the blazing fastball and as courageous as hurlers come has been sidelined for a considerable length of time due to a broken finger. But now we have it on good authority that Joe is starting to work out once more and that will be good news for Summerside fans.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

Bernard proved last season that he is one of the most capable flingers in Island baseball circles. Last year's All Stars had a tough time with him whenever they faced him and it was the same player who practically single-handed pitched his team to their title and at the same time snapped the reign of local squads. With Bernard back the series shapes up as a repetition of the hard-fought games witnessed in last year's series, a series that went to six games before being decided and then only by the slimmest of margins.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

The racing witnessed on Saturday at the Exhibition track certainly proved a fitting climax to what was a wonderful Old Home Week racing program. In the minds of many the racing was the best of the entire program and it certainly produced the most thrilling finish not only of this year's show but of a great many that preceded it.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

Rarely if ever have seven horses come tearing down to the wire so closely packed as were the entrants in the final heat of the 2.17 pace. It was impossible for the human eye to separate the first four and once more the Photo Finish machine proved its worth. Only inches separated all four and the entire field was so close that all seven horses came into the "shot."

Capt. Roy McCabe Wins Place On Bisley Squad At D.C.R.A. Meet

(By Alan Donnelly, Canadian Press Staff Writer)

CONNAUGHT RIFLE RANGES, South March, Ont., Aug. 15—(CP)—A 60-year-old marksman, Lieut. James Boa of Toronto, Saturday climaxed a week of high-scoring shooting by winning the Governor-General's Gold Medal, feature match of the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association meet.

Lieut. Boa, who has been shooting unsuccessfully for the prize since 1908, came through with the most brilliant marksmanship during the week-long shoot.

Firing over the long, windswept 900-yard range, kept tense a packed gallery of spectators as he fired 14 bull's-eyes with 15 shots.

Following the Boas in the Governor-General's match, were Capt. Roy McCabe, Charlottetown, P. E. I., 163; Lt.-Col. Neale Dow, Windsor, N. S., 162.

It was a big week for the two Boa shooters.

Lieut. Boa placed first in the Bisley Aggregate to top the list of next year's Bisley team members and win the silver medal of Britain's National Rifle Association.

Lieut. Boa also set a record by winning the D.C.R.A. silver cross in the Grand Aggregate, scoring for a third time. He compiled a score of 594 of a possible 635.

He has fired on Canadian Bisley teams twice before, as a sergeant in 1920 and as a lieutenant in 1934.

His son, Gilmour, won the Tuton Match after an elimination shoot with four others. All carded perfect scores of 50 in the match.

The big surprise of the week for servicemen, the Kings Medal, was won by a lieutenant from the army's Montreal ordnance depot, R. F. Fendick.

All Stars Are Winners Over S'side Squad

Behind the four hit pitching of their ace portsider "Lefty" MacAleer, Charlottetown All-Stars defeated their bitter Island rivals, Summerside All-Stars by a score of 5-1 in an exhibition baseball game played at the old diamond in Victoria Park yesterday afternoon before a large crowd of fans.

The winners walloped the offerings of the losers' hurler "Pony" Daly for nine hits including a double by "Buck" Whitlock. Whitlock and Charlie Ryan led the winners assault on the big pitcher as they each collected three hits with Whitlock driving in four runs and Ryan one.

The local squad collected one run in the first inning on Ryan's single and Whitlock's double but were behind one run by the end of the second frame as the visitors scored two big runs in the first half of the second on a single, a double and a two-run error by the locals' third sacker. In the last half of the third inning the All-Stars scored two runs on a walk, an infielder's choice and two singles. They increased their total in the seventh inning when they added two more on three hits and two stolen bases.

The locals played a good brand of ball both offensive and defensive as they collected nine hits, and had only one error marked up against them. The visiting team matched the winners' defensive skill but were outhit by five blows as they could not get to the portside slants of MacAleer.

MacAleer allowed only two batters to reach third base and only five men reached the initial sack. Four by hits and one by an error. He struck out eight batters and didn't walk anybody. Daly on the mound for the losers walked one

Condition Of Ruth Is Improving

NEW YORK, Aug. 15 — (AP) — Babe Ruth, baseball's great one-time slugger, sat up for 20 minutes today as he rallied for new gains in his battle for life.

A bulletin issued from Memorial Hospital Centre for Cancer and Allied Diseases said:

"Babe Ruth is resting quietly and is taking more nourishment. He sat up out of bed for 20 minutes this morning."

The hospital reported earlier today that Ruth was resting more comfortably after passing his "most restful night of the past 10 days."

It was the second consecutive day that the 53-year-old home run king continued to gain.
