CROCKER's wonderful educated horses, ponies, donkeys and mules, will be exhibited for the first time in the city tonight at the Opera House. That the entertainment will be one of the rarest seen in years is apparent from the fact that great crowds were nightly in attendance at Halifax and other places where these beautiful horses have been shown. Today the horses will be paraded through the principal streets of the city. There will be a matinee on Tuesday for ladies and children. Seats can be secured at Jamieson's and Rankin's drug stores.

MATRIMONIALY speaking, the Mt. Allison University class of 1905 is quite a record breaker. Of no preceding class could it be said that two of its members were married in six weeks after graduation. J. A. Sellar, however, of '05, was married about a fortnight ago to Miss Pridham a student of the Ladies' College year before last, and yesterday Teresa Oulton, one of the six ladies of the class, was wedded to John R. Tweedale, who is in the banking business out in British Columbia. And it is worthy of note that one member of the class, S. A. Worrell, was married before he entered college at all. W. E. W. Sellar, 1894, who is preaching somewhere in Manitoba, also got married in the course of last month.—Sackville Ex.
