When we arrived at our host's residence we saw large crowds assembled, who gazed at us with intense interest, against a more picturesque background of quaint buildings that threw a rich, subdued light on the dancers.

While I was conducted into a small, separate room, with deep awning over the window, to wait our hostess.

Meanwhile I was bewildered by the gorgeous apparel of her attendant, at every turn saw towering head-dresses thickly covered with strings of seed-pearls laced and fastened over the forehead and fastened over the forehead and fastened over the forehead.
