I AM A NEW MAN.

Angus McMillan, Over Eighty Years of Age, Pays His Respects to Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets—They Cured His Dyspepsia.

Nothing tells more forcibly the benefits aged people receive from the use of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets than the story of one of those old people themselves. Hear then the story of Angus McMillan, of Laggan, P. O. Glengary Co., Ont. Long past the three score and ten mark is Mr. McMillan for he is over eighty years of age, and though for twenty years he suffered the pains and discomforts that only the Dyspepsia Tablets know how to-day as bright and strong and cheerful as many a man of sixty. He has shaken off his old tormentors. He is a new man. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets did it.

"I suffered with Dyspepsia for more than twenty years," says Angus McMillan, "but never met with anything to cure me till a few months back when I commenced taking Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets when after using them for two days all pain and restlessness left me entirely. I am a new man. I have great reason to be thankful for all the good Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets have done for me.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are the antidote for discomfort.

THE EDITOR'S MAIL

DR. JENKINS REPLIES TO "ADVANCE."

Sir,—There is a letter in this morning's Guardian purporting to be a reply to mine on "Communication with the Mainland," but consisting chiefly of an attack on the Steam Navigation Company.

In one paragraph "Advance" says, "In advocating such a move Dr. Jenkins is obeying the old masters." I know no master, young or old, and am not much given to obeying any how. When I wrote my letter I knew nothing whatever of the wishes or intentions of the Company, nor do I now. I gave my views on a subject of public interest to which I had given long study, with no ulterior object. The accusation of "Advance" is entirely devoid of truth—were I replying viva voce I should use much stronger language.

Insinuations are contemptible under any circumstances, doubly so when based on falsehood and infinitely contemptible when they are made to reflect on the character of another by a cowardly scribe who dare not put his name to what he writes.

J. T. JENKINS.

The following schedule of races to be held in Summerside harbor during the coming summer has been arranged by the Summerside Yacht Club: May 25th, July 1st, Sept. 7th. It has been decided to substitute a rowing race for Class C.

It is suggested that some of our enterprising men secure that "pan" of ice which the Stanley took with her from Sea Cow Head, and sell the "cakes" as souvenirs. It is time now to act while the weather is cold, and the question of communication hot.

CONSIDERING the many hockey matches which have taken place this season between opposing tradesmen, business men and others, it would not be surprising to next hear of the crew of the Minto challenge the crew of the Stanley to play a match on that "pan" some of these days.

- Stanley pan,
- Iced pan,
- Pan of agitation,
- Frozen pan,
- Floating pan,
- Pan of speculation,
- Wind-toss'd pan,
- Noted pan,
- Pan humiliation,
- Minto pan,
- Dangerous pan,
- Pan communication.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION AT O'LEARY.

On Monday afternoon and evening March 1st the O'Leary districts S. S. Association held a good convention with Presbyterian Church at O'Leary. The afternoon attendance was not large owing to a funeral in the community but at the evening service the church was crowded. Rev. F. A. Wightman, the Provincial President was present and gave an address on the advantages of the Interdenominational S. S. Association emphasizing the important place the Association has in fastening a large Christian fellowship among the churches. Miss Margaret McNeil read a good paper on the place of the S. S. in the development of character. A united choir rendered excellent music. The Field Secretary spoke briefly of the progress being made in keeping schools open all winter and establishing normal classes and Home Departments. The District President, Rev. A. H. Whitman, spoke of the advantages of the organization to that District. The devotional service was led by Mr. Sellar, Methodist Minister of O'Leary. At the afternoon session a helpful conference was conducted by the Field Secretary. The following persons were appointed a nominating Committee: Archibald Campbell, Rev. A. H. Whitman and Henry Ritchie—who selected the following officers for the ensuing year.
President—Rev. W. B. Peppier, Springfield.
Vice—A. J. Matheson, O'Leary.
Sec. Treas.—W. E. Brooks, Springfield.
Additional Executive—Rev. Mr. McLean, E. J. Lidstone, Henry Ritchie—The following schools were represented: Presbyterian—O'Leary, Millburn. Methodist—Knuttsford, W. Devon, Millburn, Cape Wolf.
Baptist—Knuttsford.
Robt. Henry of Clinton and Mrs. Wm. McNeil of Elmisdale were invited to seats in the convention. The next convention will be held at the call of the Executive.

SCORES OF USES.

While Dr. Chase's Ointment is best known on account of its wonderful control over eczema, salt rheum and piles, it is found to be in almost daily demand in many homes as a cure for children, chafing, pimples, sunburn, burns, scalds, and each and every form of itching, irritated or inflamed skin. It is invaluable in every home and as a soothing and healing application known no equal.
