

SOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

Gleanings from Tryon and Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bell of Tryon made a flying visit to De Stable and Hampton on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harvey and Master Lloyd of Crapaud were visitors to Tryon on Friday evening.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Heath Howatt of Tryon on Saturday, Feb. 12th, a fine baby girl. Congratulations.

We are pleased to know that Mrs. Beattie Howatt of Victoria, who has been seriously ill for the past week is somewhat improved in her health.

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Carruthers of Augustine Cove on the birth of a daughter on February 2nd at the Prince County Hospital.

Everyone is glad to know that Mr. Kenneth MacDonald, who was seriously injured in a recent hockey game, is steadily gaining his strength and is able to be about again.

The many friends of Mrs. Neuen Howatt of Tryon, who has been quite seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. Sobey of Charlottetown, will be glad to know that she is slowly improving.

Mr. Eldon Lord of Tryon, who has been indisposed for the past month and a half was taken to the Prince County Hospital last week, and his many friends here are hoping that a decided improvement may soon be reported in his condition.

For cold weather February has surpassed even December and January, which are supposed to be our coldest months. Almost every day has been cold and chilly with a good show of Jack Frost in the atmosphere, but cheer up. February is short, even if it is snappy!

Miss Olga Toombs of Charlottetown, is spending a week the guest of Mrs. Spurgeon Clark, of Tryon. Last year Miss Toombs was principal of Tryon Consolidated School and the many friends and acquaintances she made during her stay here in Tryon are always glad to welcome her back.

The many friends of Miss Amy Lea, R. N. of Malden, Mass., (formerly of Tryon) are delighted to know that she is again visiting Mr. P. E. I., and is at present visiting in Charlottetown with her sister, Mrs. Hiram Howatt, also her mother, who is spending the winter months there. Miss Lea has not paid good old Tryon a call yet, but we are all looking forward to seeing her soon.

Hazelbrook and Vicinity

Mr. Fred Coady spent a pleasant week in Lot 65.

Mrs. J. C. Wood was a recent visitor to Bumbury.

Inspector McPhail visited the school here on Friday.

Mr. Roland Monaghan is visiting friends in Crapaud.

Mr. Robert Drake, Vernon, was a recent visitor here.

Mr. J. H. Judson, Alexandra, made a business trip here on Monday.

The Ladies Aid of the Hazelbrook Baptist Church held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. L. McCabe on Wednesday afternoon with a goodly number of members and visitors present. A very profitable meeting was carried out, and a delightful supper was served by the hostess.

The regular monthly meeting of the Hazelbrook Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. James Monaghan on Tuesday evening with a good attendance of members. The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Russel Jones. Reports of different committees heard and adopted. At the conclusion of the meeting dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mr. McLean McDonald, Melville, was a recent visitor here, the guest of his sister.—H.

St. Louis and Vicinity

Mr. Stephen Gallant of Hallburton, Lot 7, was a recent visitor to Palmer Road.

Miss Annie Mae Doucette, Pleasant View is visiting friends at Mts-couche.

Miss Bernetta McCarthy, Palmer Road, spent last week visiting friends at Lot 7.

Miss Margaret Doucett, teacher entine's Art Gallery and Tree her home at Palmer Road.—T.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fitzgerald, Waterford, were visitors to Tignish on Sunday, the guest of Mrs. Buote.

Mr. Patrick Kenny and Harold Shea, Waterford, have gone to Halifax, to take a short course on fishing.

The many friends of Mr. Emanuel Doucette, Pleasant View are glad to hear that he is recovering from his recent illness.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. John F. Perry, Shiner's Pond, on the arrival of a bouncing baby boy.

The many friends of Mr. Emanuel Doucette will regret to hear of his recent illness. All wish him a speedy recovery.

Waterford School is progressing favorably under the skilful management of our efficient and capable teacher, Miss Francis Kenny.

The weekly whist of the rate payers of Pleasant View was held at the home of Mr. Claude Cormier on Feb. 4th. The night being fine a large number attended. The first prize was won by Mr. A. Peters and the consolation prize by Mr. Elmer Knox. A sumptuous lunch was served by the hostess after which a few hours were wiled away with the fantastic movements of the toe to the sweet strains of music furnished by Messrs. Frank Ellsworth and Cecil Gallant.

The monthly meeting of the Waterford Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. E. G. Ellsworth on Feb. 2nd. with an attendance of eleven members and eight visitors. The roll call was answered by a "Valentine Verse." The minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted. The sick and school committees reported and new ones were appointed. Discussions on holding a debate was left over to the next meeting. Mrs. James M. Kenny invited the members to her home for the next meeting. The Anthem brought this meeting to a close. All joined in a game of whist, the proceeds of which amounted to $4.80. A sumptuous lunch was served by the hostess and the remainder of the evening was spent in games and social intercourse.

The regular monthly meeting of the Waterford Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. E. G. Ellsworth on Feb. 2nd. Eleven members and ten visitors were present and on new member joined the Institute. The meeting opened by singing the Ode. Roll call was answered by "Valentines," and these Valentines were to be sent to a sick member. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. The reports of the different committees were heard and also adopted. New Committees were than appointed for the ensuing month. Sick: Mrs. James Kenny and Mrs. Alice Kinch. School: Mrs. E. G. Ellsworth and Mrs. Hudson McKenna. As there was no correspondence or new business to discuss the meeting was brought to a close. Mrs. James Kenny kindly invited the members to her home for the March meeting. After the meeting a lively game of whist was played. The gentleman's First Prize was won by Austen Alward, and the second prize by Gerald Shea. The ladies first prize was won by Mrs. Alice Kinch, the second prize by Mrs. Frank Shea. The bobbies were won by Miss Georgia Doyle and James Shea. After the whist the hostess served a dainty lunch in her usual good style.

Mr. George E. Bory has returned to his home in the States after spending some time in Greensval's.

Carl—No, I met them at every meet expenses?

Cable Head and Vicinity

Miss Louise MacKinnon is spending a few days visiting friends at Cable Head.

Miss Effie MacDonald of St. Peters, spent a few days at her old home at Cable Head.

We are glad to see Mr. Jimmie MacKinnon out again after his recent serious accident.

The lobster packers of this vicinity are busily engaged preparing for next seasons work.

Mr. Andrew Steel was a recent visitor to Monticello, the guest of Mr. Joseph T. MacDonald.

We are glad to learn that Mr. Patrick McCarthy is recovering from an attack of la grippe.

His many friends are glad to see Mr. Joseph A. MacDonald out again after his recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. MacKinnon of St. Peters were guests at the home of Mr. Hugh D. MacKinnon recently.

The young people of this vicinity are glad to know that Mr. Quigley has opened the St. Peters rink again for the winter sports.

An interesting horse race took place in this vicinity a few days ago the honors going to "Nellie" driven by Mr. D. F. MacDonald.

Mrs. Mathias Callaghan of Lot 65 is spending a few days at her old home and while there has the pleasure of renewing many old acquaintances.

Mrs. Gus O'Hanly enterprising president of the Cable Head Institute is at present organizing a new dramatic club and hopes to see a new play staged in the near future.

Mr. John R. MacDonald veteran horse trainer is training Golden Aubrey promising trotter owned by Mr. John Andrew MacDonald, who intends entering him in the races the coming summer.

A very successful series of whist and dancing parties have been held in the Women's Institute Hall under the skilful management of Miss Imelda MacKinnon excellent violin music being furnished by Mr. Ronnie MacInnis and Temple O'Hanly.

Hunter River and Vicinity

Miss Adele McLennan, Greenvale was the guest of Mrs. William Ling, Wheatley River, recently for a few days.

The friends of Mrs. Walter Rackham, Hunter River, are sorry to hear that her mother Mrs. McLean has been so ill and hope she will recover soon.

The Greenvale Women's Institute met at the home of Miss Beatrice Matheson recently. An enjoyable time was had by all singing old fashioned songs and music. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. James Patterson.

The recent fine weather has resulted in numerous farmers starting to fill their ice houses. One meets as many as five or six teams together hauling from Wheatley River. As the water here is cleaner than most rivers farmers go a considerable distance to haul.

The citizens of Ebenezer and surrounding parts were shocked on hearing that Mr. Frank McCrae was ill and had gone to Montreal for treatment. Mr. McCrae's friends hope he will be back soon and restored to his usual good health. Mrs. McCrae accompanied her husband.

The February meeting of the Wheatley River, Women's Institute met at the home of Miss Cassie Rattray on the tenth. Quite a number of members were in attendance. After the meeting music and conversation was enjoyed. Miss Rattray assisted by her sister Mrs. Ivo McDonald served a bountiful lunch followed by a treat of home made candy.

Mr. George E. Bory has returned to his home in the States after spending some time in Greensval's.

Albany and Vicinity

Mr. O. W. Harris, Summerside, spent the week end in Souris.

Mr. Andrew Noonan, Albany, was a recent visitor to Charlottetown.

Mr. S. J. McAulay, Line Road, recently visited Souris on business.

Mrs. Robert Carmichael, Albany, was a recent visitor to Charlottetown.

Mr. W. J. McEachern of Campbell's Cove, was a visitor to Souris last week.

Mr. Edwin Lord, Tryon, has entered the Prince County Hospital for treatment.

Mr. P. S. Cobb, of Charlottetown spent a day in the Eastern end of the Island this week.

Mr. Nell Molisac, Rockbarra, spent Saturday in the Eastern Metropolis on business.

Mr. L. D. MacDonald, Souris Line Road, left last week on a visit to friends and relatives in the United States.

Mrs. Delaney has returned to her home in Albany after spending some time visiting in North Tryon with Mr. and Mrs. Parker Delaney.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Paynter and little son Master Kenneth of Lower Bedeque were visitors to Albany Sunday the guests of Mrs. G. Burns.

Hon. H. D. MacLean and Dr. A. A. MacDonald M. L. A. Souris, were in Charlottetown on Tuesday in attendance at the meeting of the Government.

The auction which was held in Kinkora Hall was a decided success. The ladies prize was won by Miss Helen Greenan and the gentlemen's by Mr. David Roberts, both of Kinkora.

It was with a feeling of deep regret that the citizens of Souris learned of the passing of the late Mr. Edgar Francis, whose death occurred on Tuesday at his home in Charlottetown. For a number of years the late Mr. Francis had resided in Souris where he was well and favorably known. The funeral took place on Thursday afternoon to Bay Fortune Cemetery. Rev. John G. Hockin officiating at the home and grave. The Guardian joins with the citizens of Souris in extending sincere sympathy to Mrs. Frances and child in this sad bereavement.

The Dunk River Dairy Co. reports the following for last year. Cream was furnished by 281 patrons, amounting to 552,612 lbs. of cream; 150,214.88 lbs. of butter fat and 182,869 lbs. of butter. $34,097.66 was paid patrons for cream. Butter fat averaged 27.70 cents per lb. Average price for butter equalled 23.89 per lb. Mr. Heber MacQuarrie of Wilmot Valley sent in the largest number of pounds of cream, 11,141, realizing $528.02. Mr. Joseph Muttart of Carleton, drawer, hauled 61,071 1-2 lbs. of cream, value received $305.31. This factory has had a very successful year and the Manager, Mr. Melville Johnson, has given the patrons every satisfaction and convenience during the busy season, and throughout the entire year.

Mrs. James Somers has returned to her home in Norboro, after spending a few days very enjoyably with her daughter, Mrs. John Burgoyne, of Found's Mills.—B. and stories for a short time while seated about the warm fire. Lunch was served by assistants, Mrs. G. R. Prowse and Mrs. L. J. Nuell, the hostess, Mrs. Albert McLeod, served "The cups that cheer but not inebriate."

On the evening of February 15th at the home of Mrs. W. Fred Prowse a very successful valentine masquerade was entered into by a large number of residents of Murray Harbor and vicinity. The home was decorated for the occasion, and all guests were heartily welcomed. Games, contests, piano and vocal music and dance music were entered into with zest. Before the close of the evening refreshments were served by the ladies. Some of the costumes worn were those of grandmothers and great grandmothers. There were girls in boys' attire, and men in feminine dress.—P.

Mercenary May, the many times divorced film star, was entering the martial state once again. She decided to mention the fact to her director.

"Of course, you will understand that this time I'm marrying for love and nothing else," she volunteered. The director smiled knowingly. "How romantic!" he said. "So at last you have decided to go off the gold standard."

Bedeque

Mr. Ralph B. MacCaul of Wilmot Valley, was a visitor to Fredrickton last week.

Miss Selma Myers is spending a very enjoyable holiday with her uncle, Mr. William Bowness and family.

Mr. James Kay of Sackville, N. B., has been spending a few days very pleasantly in Lower Free-town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lidstone.

The pupils of the Central Bedeque School are progressing favorably under the skilful instruction of Miss Mabel Millar and Miss Doris Muncey.

Mr. James MacKay is spending a short time at Marshfield, where he is the welcome guest of his cousin, Mr. Earl Mill.

Mrs. Maida Ferguson has returned to her home at Dunstaffnage, after being the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jenkins.

Mrs. Willard Prowse has returned home after spending a short time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Wood, Southport.

Much interest has been shown this season, by the number of hockey fans who attended Highfield rink. On Saturday evening, Feb. 6, a fast brand of hockey was played between the Highfield Granites and the North River Linds, when the former defeated the latter by a score of 2-1. Both teams were excellent shape and showed fine stick handling, the game was ably refereed by Mr. Otto Campbell. Keep up the good work Granites.

The spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Roper was the scene of a merry evening on Monday, Feb. 8 when they entertained a number of their friends to a card party and dance, both old time and modern dancing was enjoyed. Delightful violin and piano music was furnished by Mr. R. Weeks. Mrs. F. MacKay, Mrs. Russ. Roper, Mrs. W. Watts, Mrs. Roper, assisted by some of the ladies present served a delicious lunch to all, after which all departed for their homes, enthusiastic over having such a jolly time.

Messrs James Cain Martin Corcoran and Glen McLaren are busy these days procuring ice from McNeill's Milldam for the New Perth Creamery.

With the deepest regret do we chronicle the death of William Wendall Coffin, aged 6 days, at the home of Mr. William Menekin, New Perth.

The School at New Perth is progressing very favourably under the management of the skilful and energetic teacher, Miss Marion McDonald, who is spending the week-end at her home in Mount Stewart. The School was visited by the Red Cross Nurse, Miss Loft, last week and she reported that the pupils were all in good health.

The Annual meeting of the New Perth Dairy Company was held in the factory on January, 19th. This factory made a very favorable showing despite the hard times. Mr. James Cain was elected President for the following year and Mr. Douglas McLaren, Secretary. The factory has continued to operate twice a month during the winter months with Hiram Lane as maker.

New Perth has quite a number of its young people attending school away from home: Miss Mary McNeill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver S. McNeill is in her last year of Arts at Acadia University, Nova Scotia; Miss Rena Martin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Martin, attending Business College in Charlottetown and attending Prince of Wales before its tragic destruction were: Ross Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alec Hamilton first year student and the Misses Minnie and Annie McPherson, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McPherson who are respectively first and second year student. To those youthful scholars we extend a wish for that success which is won by hard and persevering study.

Central Royalty and vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart MacFarlane, Wallace, were visitors here recently.

Mr. Russel H. Jenkins, C. N. R. news agent, spent the week-end with his parents.

Mrs. Fred MacRae's many friends are glad to see her about again, after such a long sickness.

Miss Beattie Saunders has returned, after spending an enjoyable holiday with relatives in W. Insoe.

Mr. James MacKay is spending a short time at Marshfield, where he is the welcome guest of his cousin, Mr. Earl Mill.

Mrs. William Bowness of Centreville Bedeque, has been spending a few weeks very pleasantly in Summerside, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Horton and Mr. Horton.

The sympathy of the entire community goes out to Mrs. Annie MacCaul and family, Vaughan Ward, Lewis, Anthony and Harley, of Free-town, in the sudden and unexpected death of a loving husband and father, in the Prince County Hospital on Sunday morning, Jan. 31st.

Mrs. William Bowness of Centreville Bedeque, has been spending a few weeks very pleasantly in Summerside, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Horton and Mr. Horton.

Mrs. William Bowness of Centreville Bedeque, has been spending a few weeks very pleasantly in Summerside, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Horton and Mr. Horton.

New Perth

Messrs James Cain Martin Corcoran and Glen McLaren are busy these days procuring ice from McNeill's Milldam for the New Perth Creamery.

With the deepest regret do we chronicle the death of William Wendall Coffin, aged 6 days, at the home of Mr. William Menekin, New Perth.

The School at New Perth is progressing very favourably under the management of the skilful and energetic teacher, Miss Marion McDonald, who is spending the week-end at her home in Mount Stewart. The School was visited by the Red Cross Nurse, Miss Loft, last week and she reported that the pupils were all in good health.

The Annual meeting of the New Perth Dairy Company was held in the factory on January, 19th. This factory made a very favorable showing despite the hard times. Mr. James Cain was elected President for the following year and Mr. Douglas McLaren, Secretary. The factory has continued to operate twice a month during the winter months with Hiram Lane as maker.

New Perth has quite a number of its young people attending school away from home: Miss Mary McNeill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver S. McNeill is in her last year of Arts at Acadia University, Nova Scotia; Miss Rena Martin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Martin, attending Business College in Charlottetown and attending Prince of Wales before its tragic destruction were: Ross Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alec Hamilton first year student and the Misses Minnie and Annie McPherson, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McPherson who are respectively first and second year student. To those youthful scholars we extend a wish for that success which is won by hard and persevering study.

O'Leary and Vicinity

Mr. Forbes Kennedy, O'Leary, left recently for Charlottetown, where he will spend some time.

Mrs. William Morrison, Hebron, was a recent visitor at the home of her aunt Mrs. Margaret Forsythe of Elmsdale.

Mrs. E. J. Sabine and son Teddy of West Point, spent some time recently at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Amos Gorrill, Glenwood.

Mr. John R. McDonald, Glen-garry, and daughters, Mildred and Helen, were guests on Feb 7 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stewart, West Point.

Mrs. Andrew Stewart, West Point, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Daisy, arrived home from the Prince County Hospital on Feb. 11, much improved in health.

The semi-annual examination of Dunblane School was held on Feb 5 with a large attendance of visitors. The teacher Mr. Ernest Bradley and pupils are to be commended on the splendid work being done in this school. At the close of the school examination a short program of recitations, etc., was rendered by the pupils, after which members of the Women's Institute, assisted the teacher in serving a treat of sweets to all present. The singing of the National Anthem brought to a close a very pleasant afternoon.

The semi-annual examination of O'Leary School was held on Tuesday, Feb 9th with a large attendance of ratepayers. The pupils of the different grades were examined by their teachers, Messrs Henderson and Shelton, and Miss Horne of the primary department, assisted by Mrs. (Rev.) A. F. Baker and Mrs. A. J. Mathieson. The pupils and teachers were complimented by the visitors on the splendid progress made during the term. Prizes were awarded in each department, the examination closing with the National Anthem.

The Junior Red Cross Society of Montgomery School, West Point, meets once in two weeks, on Friday evening. President Lulu Boates, secretary Margaret Stewart, Treas. Sherman Stewart. The meetings are conducted in a very business like manner, Roll Call being usually answered by jokes or riddles. The pupils are very much interested in their society, being aided in every way by their teacher, Miss F. E. Boulter. They have a nice little "nest egg" in the treasury with which they hope to relieve some little sufferer less favored than themselves.

The February meeting of the West Point Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. H. B. Boates on Feb 9 Meeting opened by reading the Creed in unison. Roll call was answered by members contributing pennies corresponding to size of shoe. All correspondence was then read by the secretary. It was agreed to guarantee $150 for Dental Clinic, provided this work is carried out. New sick committee, Mrs. John McDonald and Mrs. E. J. Sabine Hostesses, Mrs. Sam Smith, Mrs. John MacDonald and Mrs. E. J. Sabine. Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. John McDonald. Roll Call to be answered by jokes. The business meeting then adjourned. Two very interesting contests proved very amusing. Several musical selections were contributed by Miss F. E. Boulter and Mr. H. B. Boates, after which all joined in a song and the National Anthem. Receipts $236.—O.

The regular monthly meeting of the Glenwood Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. John Currie on Feb 10 with 13 members and 18 visitors present. Meeting opened by singing O Canada, followed by the Creed in unison. Roll Call was responded to by Pinning the Tail on the Donkey. Minutes of last meeting were read and adopted without correction. Two bills were presented by the sick and school committees, and these were on motion ordered paid. After some discussion it was decided to donate five dollars to each of the two Orphanages, Mount Herbert and St. Vincent's. As there was no further business the committees for March were appointed as follows: School, Mrs. John Currie, Mrs. Mae Gillinash, Sick, Mrs. Charles McIsaac, Mrs. Albert McIsaac, Lunch, Mrs. Elmer Betts,

We regret to chronicle the passing, on Friday last, of Miss Flora Moran, Fairfield. A large funeral cortege followed her remains to their last earthly resting place in St. Columba Cemetery, on Sunday, February fourteenth. C

Mrs. John Currie, Mrs. Alfred Gorrill and Mrs. Albert Gorrill. The program for the evening consisted of several humorous readings and old time songs. Roll Call for next month to be answered by a "Grab Bag". The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. John McDonald. Meeting closed by singing "Institute Ode" Receipts for the evening $310.

South Lake Notes

Although there is some ice in the Strait due to the last "cold snap," there is as yet no sign of any heavy drift-ice from the North.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace MacDonald, South Lake, attended the funeral on Monday, the fifteenth, of Mrs. Adelaide Sutherland, Little Harbor.

Miss Lillian Enman and her cousin, Miss Mabel Enman, Pownal are at present visiting at South Lake, the guests of Mrs. Harold MacDonald, cousin of the latter.

Following is the standing of South Lake School for the month of January:

Grade X.—1. Cecil MacDonald; 2. Angus MacDonald; 3. Roland MacDonald.

Grade VIII.—1. Roland F. MacDonald; 2. Alfred Fisher.

Grade VII.—1. Adele MacDonald; 2. Ellen Fisher; 3. Daniel MacDonald.

Grade V.—1. Eileen MacDonald and Inez Rose (equal); 2. Mary Fisher and Mary MacDonald (equal); 3. Elva Ford.

Grade III.—1. Vernon Fraser; 2. Kimble MacDonald and Ronald MacDonald (equal); 3. Dorothy Ford.

Grade II.—1. Eleanor Rose; 2. Vernon Fraser; 3. Lillian Ford.

Grade I. (a)—1. Annie Rose; 2. Alvin MacDonald; 3. Genevieve Fisher.

Grade I. (b)—1. Everett Coffin; 2. Daniel Gillis.

The January meeting of the South Lake Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Elmer Fraser, with a large attendance of members present.

The meeting opened in regular order; roll call was answered with "A New Year's Verse."

Three dollars and a quarter were voted for purchasing books for the school.

Two dollars and a half were voted for a charitable purpose. The school and program committees were re-appointed for the month of February.

An enjoyable program of "Recitations and Readings" was put on by some of the members; and an entertaining contest was furnished by the hostess.

Vocal selections by Mrs. Aiton Robertson and Mrs. Harry MacDonald were heartily enjoyed by all present.

Roll Call for February is to be answered by "Making a Valentine."

A pall of sadness was cast over the community of South Lake on the morning of Monday, February eighth, with the passing of Eleanor little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Frederick Rose, at the tender age of seven years, nine months. Although the deceased had not been in robust health for some months previously, no one realized that the end was so near, and her passing came as a great shock to her friends and relatives. She was a child of high ideals, a kind and loving disposition, and had won the hearts of all her acquaintances. The sincere sympathy of a wide circle of friends is extended to the bereaved and heartbroken parents. There are left to solace them in their great loss, two daughters: Annie and Margaret, aged six and three years respectively.

The funeral, which was held on Wednesday, the tenth, was largely attended and bore mute testimony to the esteem and respect in which the deceased was held. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Cecil Rose, Wallace Morrow, Charles MacDonald, Stanley Fisher and Angus MacDonald.

Reverend H. R. Bell conducted a beautiful and impressive funeral service and assisted in the singing of several hymns appropriate to the occasion, after which she was tenderly laid to rest in cemetery adjoining South Lake Baptist Church.

We regret to chronicle the passing, on Friday last, of Miss Flora Moran, Fairfield. A large funeral cortege followed her remains to their last earthly resting place in St. Columba Cemetery, on Sunday, February fourteenth. C

Mrs. John Currie, Mrs. Alfred Gorrill and Mrs. Albert Gorrill. The program for the evening consisted of several humorous readings and old time songs. Roll Call for next month to be answered by a "Grab Bag". The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. John McDonald. Meeting closed by singing "Institute Ode" Receipts for the evening $310.

Continued on Page 14