Miss Foster and Miss Wynne, in charge of our Ready-to-Wear Department and our Millinery department have just returned from an extended visit to New York.

While there they have been visiting all the smartest makers of hats—millinery trimmings—coats, suits, dresses, and the first of their purchases are coming in from day to day.

On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week we shall hold a great showing of all the new lines that have arrived.

You are most cordially invited to visit the store—stroll around, examine whatever interests you. You will not be pressed to buy.
