PERSONALS

Mr. Peter MacKinnon, retired driver at No. 1 Fire Station, Moncton, is spending a month with friends in this province.

Mr. Malcolm Fay, a student at Holy Heart Seminary, Halifax, arrived in the city Wednesday evening, where he was met by his mother and brother and the party motored to their home in Newport.

Mrs. Sanford Stephenson and two children, Irvin and Irene, arrived in Charlottetown Tuesday night, and will spend the summer months at the home of her parents in Lewes. They were accompanied by Raymond Perkins from Wallaston, Mass.

Wood-Bourke Nuptials

St. Paul's Church was the scene of a very pretty June wedding yesterday afternoon when Miss Catherine Bourke, youngest daughter of Mrs. Crilly W. Bourke, was united in marriage to Mr. George G. Wood, son of Mrs. William Wood, Charlottetown. Rev. G. P. Raymond performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of interested guests.

The pretty young bride, who looked lovely in an exquisite dress of pink Georgette with which she carried a large bouquet of roses and Lilies of the Valley, was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. H. C. Bourke.

The bride was attended by her sister Miss Isabelle Bourke, whose handsome dress was of yellow georgette, while Mr. Kenneth Ed of Moncton, supported the groom.

During the service Miss Lillian Earle presided at the organ and Miss Marjorie Wood, the groom's sister, sang.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's lovely home on the Esplanade, where the young couple, received happiest congratulations in which The Guardian joins.

Assisting at the reception was Miss Georgie Hunt, who cut the loaves.

Those serving were Misses Eleanor and Isabel Bourke, Mrs. Hal Bourke, Misses Margaret and Marjorie Wood, Miss Helen Jamieson, Miss Mary MacDonald and the Misses Jean and Ruth Miller, Mrs. Fred Bourke ushered.

The drawing room and dining room were tastefully decorated with pink and white peonies.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood left by the Hochelaga on a motor trip through Nova Scotia. They were the recipients of many lovely wedding gifts.
