WEDDING BELLES.—The marriage took place at St. Patrick's Church, Fort Augustus, on the 23rd of Sept. 1919, of Catherine Ann Koughan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Koughan of Donah, to Edward White son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick White of the same place. The bride looked beautiful and wore an exquisite gown of mid-night blue silk with a wide band of the same shade with beige colored ostrich tips, and American con fur. Her cousin Miss Margaret Power of Peakes Station was bridesmaid. She wore a pretty suit of Copenhagen blue with taupe fox furs, and a black hat to match. Mr. Patrick R. Trainor acted as groomsmen. To the entertaining strains of the wedding march charmingly rendered by Mrs. J. McCarthy the happy couple marched up the aisle to the altar. At the offertory of the Mass, Mr. John J. McCarthy sang Hymn's O' Salutaris in his usual happy style. After the service the party motored by way of Pownal to the city and then to the bride's home where they were greeted by the near relatives. Owing to a recent death in the family there was no wedding at night. The bride who is very popular received many valuable presents. Particular mention may be made of a beautiful silver tea service from her brother in Cambridge, Mass., also a cut glass water set from her uncle, Francis Beagan, of Cambridge.

WELCOME VISITOR.—There are great rejoicings in the home of Capt and Mrs. Findley McDougall at Bell River over the birth of their first son on Oct. 12th. The Guardian unites with the many friends of Capt and Mrs. McDougall in extending hearty congratulations to the happy parents.

STEAMER GROUNDED.—The Halifax Chronicle says: The small Newfoundland steamer "Dominion" Trader, owned by J. E. Lake, grounded inside the Bras d'Or Lakes on Friday, about three miles from New Campbellton. The Dominion Trade was bound to Prince Edward Island from New Campbellton with coal. It is believed that the damage to the steamer was slight.

WEDDING BELLS.—An event more than ordinary interest took place on the 8th inst. when Mr. Watson Jay, of Mount Stewart was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Miss Ethel MacMillan, of this city, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Maurice McDonald. The bride looked charming dressed in blue Duchess satin and crepe de chine and wore hat to match. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Frank Jay, brother of the groom, while the bridesmaid was Miss Frances McManus, of Bonshaw. After the wedding ceremony the happy couple returned to the home of the bride where a wedding supper awaited them.

Tired Overworked Men

We Guarantee Vinol is What You Need You who are run down, nervous, lack energy and working strength, we know that Vinol is what you need. It creates strength because it is a non-secret combination of the most famous body-building and strength-creating elements known.

Here is Proof that is Indisputable "I am a farmer and was overworked, run-down and weak. My druggist recommended Vinol. It built me up and made me strong. I also gained in flesh. Other members of my family have also used it with splendid results."—Joseph J. McDougall, Kelvin Glen, Cape Breton, N.S. "I was weak, run-down and had no appetite so I could hardly keep about my work. I heard about Vinol from home friends and after taking it for two weeks it built me up so I feel better than I have for many years."—Mr. Bartholomew, 12 Salisbury Ave., Galt, Ontario. For all run-down, nervous, anaemic conditions, weak women, overworked men, feeble old people and delicate children, there is no remedy like Vinol. Your money will be returned if Vinol fails—Leading Druggists.
