WELL KNOWN LADY DEAD.—The death occurred at Milford, N. S., on Dec. 14th, of Mrs. David Smith, aged 88 years, of that place, leaving to mourn her loss two daughters, Mrs. D. H. Lantz, of Milford and Mrs. R. S. Whidden, of Sherness, Alberta. Also eight grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. Mrs. Smith has many friends in Charlottetown where she visited her grand-daughter, Mrs. Percy Barlow.

THE MALABAR SAFE.—Much anxiety has been felt during the past few days for the safety of the schooner "Malabar" of which Captain Daniel Miller, of Alberton is owner and captain. According to word received by the family of Capt. Miller at Alberton, the Malabar left Sydney on December 9th for Souris, and further had been heard, nothing was feared the old ship had got out in the terrific storm that swept the coast and had been lost. On Thursday evening, however, these fears were allayed when a telegram was received from Capt. Miller from Baddeck, C. B., stating he and the crew were safe. It was weather, the Malabar made that port in safety.

TEACHERS' TRAINING.—On Sunday last in interesting event took place in the Peter's Road church, when the pastor, Rev. Archibald Sutherland, presented five members of his Sunday School Teachers' Training class with diplomas issued by the General Assembly's Committee on S. S. work. The successful students who passed a difficult examination in Toronto and received the above mentioned awards, were: Miss Mabel Kerwin, Miss Louise Kerwin, Miss Alice Graham, Mr. Oswald Graham and Mr. Russell Finley, all members of the Cambridge Sunday School.

CAUGHT A SEAL.—A lad named Meigs Peters captured a large seal yesterday morning on the ice and when it saw the boy approaching it started to make its escape. The lad chased it almost all the way across the river and upon overtaking it despatched it with a stick. It was brought to town and sold to Mr. J. B. Robinson who will use it for fox meat. After skinning it the pit of this variety of seal is only good for making leather.

HAVE WOMEN CANDIDATES.—The Journal, Summerside says:—In a little more than a month from now the civic elections will be held in Summerside. The Mayor and three Councillors will retire, and all four express themselves as unwilling to offer for re-election. It seems to be coming so difficult to have public-spirited men with real town manager ability to offer themselves for the Council Board that we believe the only way to liven up matters is to urge women to enter civic politics. The fact that women are as capable managers as men has been proven too many times to doubt.

WHETHER IT IS THE NOSE, THROAT, OR OTHER ORGANS GET RID OF IT

Catarrh of the nose or throat when it becomes chronic weakens the delicate lung tissues, deranges the digestive organs, and may lead to consumption. It impairs the taste, smell and hearing, and affects the voice. It is a constitutional disease and requires a constitutional remedy.

Take Hood's Sarsaparilla, which by purifying the blood removes the cause of the disease and gives permanent relief. This alterative and tonic medicine has proved entirely satisfactory to thousands of families in three generations.

If there is biliousness or constipation, take Hood's Pills—they are a thorough laxative.

After an absence of several years H. Wilmot Young and Marjorie Adams return to the Prince Edward for a nine nights engagement commencing matinee today in a repertoire of plays all handsomely costumed and correctly mounted with scenic effects. An entire change of play each night, with clean, classy vaudeville between the acts, and a strong company of versatile players supporting these two favorite stars will make this engagement one to be remembered.

Among the plays to be presented are "Sandy MacKay," a real Southern comedy full of rich, clean humor and Mr. Young excels in the part of "Sandy." "All of a sudden Peggy" is a dainty quaint comedy. A smile in every line, and as "Peggy" Miss Adams scintillates with clean, wholesome wit, that makes her lovable to her audience.

"The Butterfly on the wheel" is a rare Society drama, the eternal triangle two men and a woman depicting the snares that befall a young society matron with wealth and leisure at her command causing her to be one of the "idle rich." A strong court room scene gives both Miss Adams and Mr. Young wide scope to display their intense emotional temperament.

"In Secret Service" full of sensational situations, and dramatic climaxes offers these versatile favorites strong lines opposite to the lighter view of humor, displayed in other bills.

"The Marriage Question" full of domestic complication and ludicrous situation, has made both young and old think of (shall we call it) Gamble. "The Marriage Question." Each member of the Young Adams Co. has been selected with a view of their especial fitness for the various parts they play, insuring smooth performance. Mr. Young and Miss Adams will be remembered by theatre goers at all times giving clean artistic performances on a scale not equalled by any travelling organization. High class vaudeville between acts changes mightily will be a feature with this favorite company at the Prince Edward. The engagement opens with matinee today, other plays to be presented are "Peggy O'Moore," "The Gambler," "Trail of Lonesome Pine," and other successful comedies and dramas. 5865.
