In Memoriam

MRS. HUGH A. GILLIS

The death occurred at her home at Eldon on Sunday, February 28th, 1948, of Mrs. Hugh A. Gillis. The late Mrs. Gillis was born at Point Prim, eighty-three years ago, a daughter of the late Capt. Donald Neil and Mrs. Murchison.

Her earlier life was spent in Quincy, Mass., where she married Hugh Gillis who predeceased her nineteen years ago.

Friends and relatives were always welcome at her Quincey home, and later at her Eldon home the same hospitality was exemplified.

She was a member of the Eldon United Church, and while health permitted was active in all its organizations.

During her long illness she was patiently and efficiently cared for by her daughter-in-law.

She is survived by an adopted son, Edward and two granddaughters at Eldon, also one brother James D. Murchison, Point Prim, and one sister Hattie, Mrs. Charles Smith, Rumford, Maine.

Her funeral was held from Eldon United Church, Rev. Dr. Quigley of St. John's Presbyterian Church, Belfast, officiating. The hymns sung were "The Lord's My Shepherd," "Rock of Ages" and "Able to With Me."

The pall bearers were: Joseph Robertson, Cecil Knox, Frank MacDonald, Leonard Murchison, Austin MacMillan, Wilfred MacMillan. Interment in Polly Cemetery, Mt. Buchanan.

Skin Eruptions

Here is a clean, stainless, penetrating antiseptic oil that brings speedy relief from the itching and discomfort.

Not only does this healing antiseptic oil promote rapid and healthy healing in open sores and wounds but boils and simple ulcers are also relieved.

In skin affections the itching of Eczema is quickly stopped. Pimples—skin eruptions dry up and scale off in a very few days. The same is true of Barber's Itch, Salt Rheum, Itching Toes and Feet and other inflammatory skin disorders.

You can obtain Moore's Emerald Oil in the original bottle at Hughes Drug Co. Ltd. and The Enkins Pharmacy, or any modern drug store. Satisfaction or money back.

York And Vicinity

Mr. Fred Thompson, York, was a visitor to the city on Saturday.

Miss Gladys Crockett, York, was a visitor to the city on Friday.

Mr. Ronald Bearist, West Cove, spent the past week in York the guest of his sister Mrs. Peter Proud. — C.

Mrs. Harold Watts, York, left last week to visit her daughter, Mrs. Hazen Bradford of Black River, N. B.

Mrs. Fred MacDonald, York, spent the week-end in the city the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Jack Caswell.

Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Howard, Cornwall, were visitors to York on Sunday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lewis.

Mr. Benny Watts was a visitor to York on Friday evening when he entertained Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Vessey, Mr. and Mrs. William Crockett and Evelyn Underhay with his many new songs which were enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Jim MacCormick and granddaughter, Shirley, who were visiting her mother, Mrs. Albert Proud, York left last Friday for her home in Saskatchewan. It was 26 years since she visited the Island and her many friends hope it won't be so long again.

Kindness was appreciated by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Morrison, Pleasant Grove, when their little daughter Anne had taken ill and had to be taken to the hospital and the road was impassable. As they started out their horse got perished, only good neighbors came to their rescue, Messrs. Jack Hardy, Arthur Wyatt, Huber and Charles Morrison and Herbert Carrington gave them his horse to finish the trip only to find when they reached York that the train was gone and the roads still blocked. They stopped at Mr. Vernon Dennis' store and Mr. Dennis phoned up Mr. Shennan, plow dispatcher at Charlottetown, but there was none available but he would send one out as soon as possible. In the meantime, Mrs. Jay called up the town dispatcher, who gave Anne time to prepare for boarding of train for town, and arrangements were made for her to go to the hospital, where Dr. Joe MacMillan was awaiting for her arrival and he found out that the little girl wasn't suffering from appendicitis but pyelitis, and Anne could be taken home and treated. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Girl Guide News

A pleasant event in Scout-Guide week was the get-together luncheon at the Charlottetown on Saturday when members of the Provincial Council of the Guides, and the Local Associations met to discuss the duties of their office, and hear reports of standing committees.

Mrs. MacDonald, Provincial Guide Commissioner presided, and Mrs. J. Walter Jones and Mrs. B. Earle MacDonald were guests of honour. Mrs. Bernard was unable to be present on account of illness.

The chairman explained the purpose of the meeting and called on Mrs. Manning Bagnall who spoke on the duties of the Provincial Council which she said should feel responsibility for the development of the Girl Guide movement. Miss Lillian Duchemin enumerated the duties of a Local Association, whose support assured the standing of the movement in the community.

Mrs. Fred Pickard, Provincial Brownie Commissioner stressed the importance of her department of the work and called for more assistants.

Mrs. C. H. Bear spoke of the value and necessity of training for leaders, and told us how fortunate we were in having so capable a Diploma'd Guider as Mrs. Cudmore to supervise training on the Island. Miss Jean Punter the field secretary is proving a good assistant.

Miss Suzanne MacKinnon's report on the Provincial camping situation was most encouraging, and Mrs. Ray told of her Long Guide and Post Guide prospects and asked for helpers. Mrs. R. H. Rogers of the Public Relations Committee which tries to interpret the Guide movement to the public, invited contributions of news items.

Mrs. J. D. McGuigan is the Divisional Commissioner for Queens. Mrs. Erner Dunning for King's and 1948 Birch, coming. Divisional Commissioner in Prince until her recent retirement. The Provincial Commissioner informed the meeting that there are now 750 Guides and Brownies on the Island.

The last item on the program was an interesting ceremony when awards were given to ten ladies who have been valued workers for a long time.

Mrs. W. M. Rowe, chairman of the Awards Committee made a few introductory remarks and then called on Mrs. MacDonald the Provincial Commissioner to make the presentations.

The recipients included: Long service ribbons (10 to 18 years): Miss Gladys Hart, Miss Iphigenie Arsenault, Miss Carrie Holman, Miss Lillian Duchemin, Mrs. Harry Cudmore.

Medal of Merit (outstanding service): Mrs. Louis Sadler, Mrs. Harry Cudmore, Miss Carrie Holman, Miss Jessie Fullerton, Mrs. K. M. Martin.

Mrs. Cudmore expressed appreciation on behalf of herself and her associates and the meeting closed with the National Anthem.

CLARKIN-FLYNN WEDDING

St. Anthony's Church, Montreal, was a scene of a pretty wedding on Nov. 29, 1947 at 7:30 o'clock, when Rev. P. J. Ambrose united in marriage with Nuptial mass, Mary Gertrude, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Flynn Chatham, N. B. and James Henry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Clarkin, Peakes Station, Prince Edward Island.

The bride given in marriage by her brother, Frank Flynn, looked very lovely in a gown of white satin, fitted bodice, sweet heart neckline, long sleeves ending in points over the hands and full skirt draped in bustle effect, falling into a fan shape train. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by orange blossoms. She carried a cascade of white pom poms and maiden fern.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mae Flynn, who wore a gown of blue taffeta, fitted bodice and full skirt, and shoulder length veil, carried a bouquet of yellow and bronze pom poms.

LIVING & LEISURE

ships just as they built their social ones. And, once they found a clerk or skilled workman to be reliable and helpful, they stuck to him. Not only that, but they introduced their friends to him. They haven't forgotten how valuable such friendships are, how much they simplify the job of running a house and buying for a family. Probably these women will never go back to the high-handed "I'm the customer and you'd better please me or else" attitude that was so prevalent in pre-war days.
