She will be kindly remembered by many old friends in the west of the Province, where she lived until the death of her husband about fifteen years ago. Since that time she has resided in the United States. There are several sons and daughters living away, but none in the Island. The remains were taken to Cape Wolfe on Saturday. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon from the United Church. Interment was in the family plot at West Cape. Mrs. Warren's remains being laid to rest besides those of her late husband.—S.

VISITORS RETURN

Very Rev. J. C. MacKenzie, P. P., of Nelson, B. C., and Very Rev. W. B. MacKenzie, P. P., of Kelowna, B. C. left the city last week on return to the West after spending an enjoyable holiday visiting relatives and friends on the Island. Enroute they will visit two brothers, Frank A., of West Outlet, Maine, and Rev. W. B. MacKenzie who is at present making a good recovery after undergoing an operation in Montreal General Hospital. Another brother, Geo. V. who with his wife motored to the Island from Cambridge, Mass., also left on return last week.

AT GYRO—Mr. Lloyd Proude was the chairman at the regular weekly meeting of the Gyro Club held last evening at Beach Grove Inn. Many matters of business were discussed, including final arrangements for the District Convention which is to be held August 31st, September 1st and 2nd, the Open Air Dance, Ladies' Night, and a program for Exhibition Week. Committees were appointed to look after the various activities. The guests were Messrs C. L. Travis of the Halifax Club, Freeman Hamm of the St. John Club, Reuben MacDonald of Charlottetown, Victor Haslam of New York City, and Rod MacDonald of the Bank of Nova Scotia staff, North Bay, Ont., and formerly of St. Peters.

DOULL—BEERS—A pretty marriage was solemnized at the United Church parsonage, Bedeque, on Tuesday, Aug. 2nd, at 7 p.m. by Rev. L. P. Archibald, when Miss Marion Isabel Beers, formerly of Cambridge, Mass., was united in marriage to Edgar Clark Doull, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doull of Carleton. A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Doull, Chelton, to which the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were invited. The young couple received many beautiful gifts. During the evening a large crowd of serenaders invaded the premises, who, after tendering their best wishes to the bride and groom and being well treated, left quietly for their homes. On the Thursday evening following, a shower was given them at the same place, when over one hundred friends gathered to bring their best wishes and present the bride and groom with many gifts, including silver, linen and many useful household articles, testifying to the high esteem in which the young couple are held. The Guardian joins with others in wishing them bon voyage through life.

The sad and unexpected news has been recently received by relatives and friends in Middleton of the sudden passing to the Great Beyond, of Mr. Melbourne S. Wright at his home in New York City, N. Y. Although Mr. Wright had been in failing health for some time, the end came very suddenly. The deceased had lived to the ripe age of seventy years and was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wright of Middleton, P. E. I., where he spent the early part of his life, later leaving for United States where he made his home in New York City. He was associated with the Fulton Fish Market for a number of years. There are left to mourn a sorrowing widow and one brother Artemas Wright of Summerside, and a number of relatives in Middleton, to whom all the community joins in extending sincere sympathy in their sad bereavement.

The residence and property of Mr. Ernest Jenkins, Grafton St., were sold to Miss Annie Praught, for $2,550.

The indomitable spirit of the British people—the spirit that carried them successfully through the Great War—a spirit marked by confidence, by the utter absence of despair, is manifest today in a striking degree, reported the Hon. J. A. Matheson, K. C., Chief Justice of the Province, in the course of an intensely interesting address last night on the subject of his recent holiday visit to England and Scotland, which he made accompanied by Mrs. Matheson. The Chief Justice spoke at a dinner tendered him in the Canadian National Hotel by the Law Society of Prince Edward Island. Details of his visit to the British law-courts, and houses of Parliament and Privy Council as well as to many historic spots in London, Edinburgh and other centres were followed with the keenest appreciation by his hearers, who included members of the Bench, the clergy and medical profession as well as of the Bar.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. JAMES CAMERON—On Thursday last Mrs. James Cameron, of Boston, Mass., died suddenly at the home of her sister, Mrs. Hubert Deep sympathy is extended to the bereaved family. Mrs. Cameron was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ellis, of East Bideford and was well known in that district. Besides her husband, there are left to mourn, four children, Ellis, James, and Dorothy, who were with her when she died, and Buelah at Boston; also two brothers, Phillips, of Tyne Valley. The deceased was on a visit to her old home when she suddenly expired from heart trouble. She had been home two months and her children had just arrived to spend the remainder of the summer with her. Mrs. Hubert Phillips, Tyne Valley, Mrs. Thomas McCaull, Ellerslie and Mrs. Murray, of Boston, who is also visiting in Tyne Valley. The remains were conveyed by Mr. Roy Phillips, a nephew of the deceased, to his undertaking parlour on Friday evening and on Saturday morning, taken to Borden enroute to her home in Boston, where interment will be made.—S.

IN GERMANY—Mr. Stewart MacNutt, I. O. D. E. Scholar, City, and Mr. Fulton Underhay of Fortune, Rhodes Scholar, are spending a few weeks in the River Rhine districts together, where they are delighted with the scenery and historical aspects of Germany.

NEW PROPRIETOR—Citizens will be interested to learn that Mr. Fred Colwell, Boston, has taken over the druggist business of Johnson & Johnson from the estate of his late brother, Mr. Robbins E. Colwell. The new proprietor is no stranger to Charlottetown, or to the business, as he was formerly associated with his brother in the conduct of Johnson & Johnson. He is very musical and was a former organist of Zion Church. The Guardian welcomes his return to the community.

In response to an invitation extended by Rev. Dr. G. J. McLellan, pastor of St. Paul's Church, Summerside, Mrs. W. J. MacIntyre, National President of the Catholic Women's League of Canada, Mrs. F. J. Casey, President of Charlottetown sub-division and a party of six members of the local unit, motored to Summerside and organized a sub-division C. W. L. with thirty-four charter members. A meeting was held in St. Paul's Parish Hall and Mrs. MacIntyre explained to the ladies assembled, the aims and objects of the organization, what it has accomplished in the twelve years of its existence, and the many and various ways in which it would be an asset to the church and the community.

It was unanimously voted to form a sub-division in Summerside and the following splendid board of officers were elected. President—Mrs. Parnell McMahon. 1st Vice-president—Miss Den Gaudet. 3rd Vice-president—Mrs. Mark Gaudet. Recording Secretary—Miss Ida Dawson. Corresponding Secretary—Miss Margaret Arsenault. Treasurer—Mrs. Joseph Callaghan.

Hon. G. Shelton Sharpe, Minister of Agriculture, returned last night from Ottawa, where with the Maritime Ministers of Agriculture he was in conference with Hon. Robert Weir, Federal Minister of Agriculture on agricultural matters which might come before the Imperial Conference. "The Imperial Conference has now apparently entered into its final stages. Canada submitted her brief to the British delegates on Saturday. From information gathered it appears that Canada is asking for a preference on lumber, fish and agricultural products, in return for increased markets for Britain in iron, steel and other manufactured, and semi-manufactured products. "During this last week the Maritimes were represented at Ottawa by Premier Richards of New Brunswick, Hon. Mr. Smith, Minister of Agriculture, and Mr. Tilly, Minister of Mines and Forests. Premier Harrington of Nova Scotia, Hon. Mr. Black, Minister of Highways, Mr. Goucher, Minister of Agriculture. Several conferences were held between the Maritime delegates and later delegates waited on the Premier relative to the lumber and agricultural interests of the Maritimes. The officials there have a thorough grasp of our requirements and we look for success in negotiations in the incoming week. "During the week-end the Hon. Mr. Weir invited the three Maritime Ministers of Agriculture together with Sir John Gilmore, the British Minister to visit some of the points of interest around Ottawa and vicinity. A visit was made to the farm of Alex MacLaren Buckingham, Que., who has one of the finest herds of dual purpose Shorthorns in Canada. After lunch with Mr. and Mrs. McLaren in their beautiful home, the party drove to the Oka College at Trappe, Que. This college has a farm of 1800 acres in connection with it, and is operated by the brothers of a religious order. It is here that the famous Oka cheese is made, and Oka melons are grown. The farm also has a very fine herd of Ayrshire cattle with a very high average of production. Sir John expressed himself as being extremely pleased with the agricultural activities, and the fine types of thoroughbred stock being produced in Canada."

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Elias Basha took place Monday morning, August 8th from his late residence, Dorchester Street, to St. Dunstan's Basilica where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Reverend Jas. Farrell. The pall bearers were: Messrs Thomas Michael, Joseph Shama, Frank Kays, George Tulle, Joseph Manie and Samuel Abraham. Service at the grave was conducted by Reverend Louis Dougan.

ELDERLY RESIDENT OF SUMMERSIDE PASSES—There passed away in Summerside on Tuesday at noon one of its oldest and most highly respected citizens, Mr. William McMurdo, in his 84th year. Mr. McMurdo was born in January, 1849, at Kelvin, P. E. I., but was a resident of Summerside for over sixty years, in fact almost since its inception. On first coming to Summerside he entered the employ of the late R. T. Holman, but after a few years he went into partnership with the late George Warren, S. M. Hicks, and his brother, David McMurdo, the firm carrying on a very successful business for many years. He afterwards retired and assisted his son, Dr. J. A. McMurdo in his dental practice. Mr. McMurdo was a man of exemplary character, brought up under the guidance of parents of the old Presbyterian faith, his character was moulded along lines of courage and endurance and a love for the simple pleasures of life and a staunch believer in God and His Holy Word. He was for over sixty years a member of the Summerside Presbyterian Church, being one of the very few remaining of the first congregation. He was a teacher of the Sunday School and Bible Class until a short time ago. He was a man of who made lasting friendships and will be missed by many both in town and country. Although in failing health, he was only laid up for about three weeks and the end came quickly at the last. He leaves to mourn his widow, formerly, Agnes Brehaut, also three sons, Wm. J., in Lashburn, Saskatchewan; C. B., in Alberta, and Dr. J. A., in Summerside; also three brothers, A. R. McMurdo on the old homestead at Kelvin, Alberta, in California and two sisters, Mrs. D. W. Walker, of Wilmot and Mrs. Peter Sinclair, of Summerside, P. E. I., to all of whom sympathy is extended. The funeral takes place this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Presbyterian Church.—S.

MADE BID—The Guardian is informed that it was the Prince Edward Island Trust Co. which made the bid of $10,600 on the Rogers Building which was sold at that figure on Saturday.

A regrettable car accident occurred on the Bedeque road on Wednesday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sherry of Chelton were driving along the road with horse and wagon, in some unfortunate way, a Pontiac car driven by Mr. George Henderson of Fernwood, struck the wagon, throwing Mr. and Mrs. Sherry to the ground. Mr. Sherry was the victim of a severe cut on the side of the face, while Mrs. Sherry received a severe shaking up with minor bruises. Mr. Sherry was immediately taken to the doctor where it was found necessary to insert several sutures to close the wound. The wagon was also damaged. Mr. Sherry was resting as comfortably as could be expected at the latest report.

ELDERLY RESIDENT OF SUMMERSIDE PASSES—There passed away in Summerside on Tuesday at noon one of its oldest and most highly respected citizens, Mr. William McMurdo, in his 84th year. Mr. McMurdo was born in January, 1849, at Kelvin, P. E. I., but was a resident of Summerside for over sixty years, in fact almost since its inception. On first coming to Summerside he entered the employ of the late R. T. Holman, but after a few years he went into partnership with the late George Warren, S. M. Hicks, and his brother, David McMurdo, the firm carrying on a very successful business for many years. He afterwards retired and assisted his son, Dr. J. A. McMurdo in his dental practice. Mr. McMurdo was a man of exemplary character, brought up under the guidance of parents of the old Presbyterian faith, his character was moulded along lines of courage and endurance and a love for the simple pleasures of life and a staunch believer in God and His Holy Word. He was for over sixty years a member of the Summerside Presbyterian Church, being one of the very few remaining of the first congregation. He was a teacher of the Sunday School and Bible Class until a short time ago. He was a man of who made lasting friendships and will be missed by many both in town and country. Although in failing health, he was only laid up for about three weeks and the end came quickly at the last. He leaves to mourn his widow, formerly, Agnes Brehaut, also three sons, Wm. J., in Lashburn, Saskatchewan; C. B., in Alberta, and Dr. J. A., in Summerside; also three brothers, A. R. McMurdo on the old homestead at Kelvin, Alberta, in California and two sisters, Mrs. D. W. Walker, of Wilmot and Mrs. Peter Sinclair, of Summerside, P. E. I., to all of whom sympathy is extended. The funeral takes place this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Presbyterian Church.—S.

TOURISTS RETURN—Professor Robert Watts with Mrs. Watts and three children, Robert, Barbara and George, and Mr. George Taylor, Mrs. Watts father, left for their home in Milton, Mass., after spending the past six weeks touring and visiting relatives on the Island. They all enjoyed their first visit to the province and plan on having more vacations here. Professor Watts is a nephew of Mr. John Watts, Hampshire.

An inspection of the Prince Edward Island Highlanders, now encamped at Brighton, was held at 3 p. m. yesterday on the grounds west of the central Park roadway. The salute was taken by Lieut. Col. D. W. B. Spry, O.B.E., V.D., with him at the saluting base were Lieut. Col. Goodeve, District Paymaster, and Major A. C. Campbell, of the R. C. R's. Lieut. Col. U. G. Dawson, V.D., commanded the Highlanders, who marched past, first in line, then in column of route, and later in review order. The pipe band of the regiment was in attendance. Lieut-Colonel Spry then inspected the men, and complimented them upon their splendid appearance and also upon the spirit they had shown in view of the fact that their expenses while in training were being borne this year by themselves. He also stated that some other regiments were doing the same, and that the towns where

MADE BID

The Guardian is informed that it was the Prince Edward Island Trust Co. which made the bid of $10,600 on the Rogers Building which was sold at that figure on Saturday.

A regrettable car accident occurred on the Bedeque road on Wednesday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sherry of Chelton were driving along the road with horse and wagon, in some unfortunate way, a Pontiac car driven by Mr. George Henderson of Fernwood, struck the wagon, throwing Mr. and Mrs. Sherry to the ground. Mr. Sherry was the victim of a severe cut on the side of the face, while Mrs. Sherry received a severe shaking up with minor bruises. Mr. Sherry was immediately taken to the doctor where it was found necessary to insert several sutures to close the wound. The wagon was also damaged. Mr. Sherry was resting as comfortably as could be expected at the latest report.

WEDDING BELLS—A very pretty wedding took place in Charlottetown Baptist Church on Wednesday, June 29th, when Miss Alberta Rose, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Rose, of Lakeville, and Mr. James Arthur MacNeill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon MacNeill, of St. Peter's Bay, were united in marriage. The Rev. Mr. Vincent performed the ceremony, the double ring service being used, the church was beautifully decorated with lilies, peonies, etc. The bride entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's bridal chorus, played by the organist, Mrs. Full. The bride was given in marriage by Mr. Sidney Acorn, of Charlottetown, and looked charming in a gown of beige georgette with hat, gloves and shoes to match, and carried a bouquet of white carnations and maiden-hair fern. During the signing of the register, Mrs. Arthur Roper sang very sweetly "Because." Immediately after the ceremony, the bride and groom motored to the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Leigh Webster, of Morell, where a wedding supper was served to the immediate relatives and a few friends. The bride and groom were the recipients of a number of lovely gifts, including an elegant banjo clock, from the bride's girl friends in Boston. The happy couple will reside in Charlottetown.
