A GOOD WORK

Sir: The committee distributing papers etc., among our seamen last year succeeded in visiting over six hundred vessels. I assure you it was pleasing and encouraging to see these men anxiously waiting upon the decks of the vessels for their weekly supply. It will be gratifying to those that sent in such abundance of reading matter for our seamen to know that often the men, told how good they were; when out on the water and nothing else to read, and after they would read themselves they would take them home for the wife and children to go through. Many thanks are due to Miss Weston, London, England, and to ladies and children throughout this province. Let us one and all keep the good work going, and church papers or good Sunday reading matter will be very acceptable. The Committee will pay any freight or postage.

I am, Sir, etc., For Committee and self, R. K. BRACE, 168 Queen St.

The New Summer Cookery

Oh, if one could only get the real old-time whole-wheat biscuits real brown bread, and other sensible, good things. How their rich, nutty flavor would be enjoyed—and they're so plentiful in summer. But it's almost impossible to get the old-fashioned dark flour to bake them with. White flour is supreme. Here is something far better still—a granulated meal of whole wheat, rye, and tasteless flax. It is the famous Roman Meal. You use it for pancakes, waffles, muffins, cookies, fruit rocks, ginger bread, nut loaf, brown bread, steam pudding—and delicious porridge, either hot or cold. You'll find the recipes on the package.

Baby's Welfare

The welfare of the baby is the fond mother's greatest aim. No mother wants to see her little ones suffering from colds, constipation, colic or any other of the many ills that so often afflict little ones. Thousands of mothers have learned that by giving an occasional dose of Baby's Own Tablets to their children they can keep them well. Concerning the Tablets Mrs. Richard Boston Pembroke, Ont., says:—"Baby's Own Tablets saved my little girl when nothing else appeared to help her. I would not attempt to raise a baby without keeping the Tablets in the house." They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
