Mr. Colwell is a representative of The Imperial Oil Company in Alberta and is spending a holiday here. He arrived by Trans-Canada air lines and was very much impressed with the wonderful view he obtained from the air.

LEGION DANCE—Another popular Tuesday night dance was held in the Canadian Legion Rooms last evening and over 300 dancers were in attendance. The additional space provided by the new annex was taxed to capacity as the large crowd spent an enjoyable night at their favorite indoor pastime. Music was supplied by Bill Moreside's orchestra. The dance was under the direction of Mr. A. G. Bruce, Entertainment Officer for the Canadian Legion.

OUTLOOK FOR POTATOES BETTER — "The fine weather and sunshine, which has prevailed in the province this week, has a tendency to dry up any blight spores that cause rot in potatoes," was the rather optimistic statement made last night by Mr. S. G. Peppin, in charge of the seed potato inspection. Although the frost last Friday night undoubtedly did a lot of damage to the green vines, on the other hand it also killed any blight spores on the leaves or surface of the ground that it reached, he added. Very few tubers have been dug yet and it will be about 10 days before the inspectors will be on their rounds again.

HELLO TOM, traded the old car? Yes—I figured it out this way, next year there will be no new cars sold, at least at a price I can afford to pay. The thing to do now is buy the best used car you can find from a dealer you can depend on. I got this one from T. G. Ives. Ain't she a dandy—You better see Ives yourself tomorrow. L-618.

Gillis, B. Paed., Charlottetown. There were about 90 pupils present, the Reverend Sisters of the C.N.D. and Rev. Clarence Pitre. Each film was accompanied by clear explanations from Miss Gillis, who showed the value of teaching wthout access to notes or text, the pictures being the central theme. Pictures of Iceland, Portugal, Children of the world and The Great Charter, were shown.

DANCE AT BEACH GROVE— Over 300 dancers took advantage of the fine weather to be present at the enjoyable dance in the Drill Shed at Beach Grove Inn last night. It was put on by the men of No. 62 Canadian Army Basic Training Corps through the kind permission of the Commanding Officer, Lt.-Col. F. I. Andrew, M.M. and the proceeds were in aid of the camp band. The hall was patriotically decorated for the occasion with flags. Snappy music was provided by members of the band with outside musicians assisting and was under the direction of Cpl. L. Ward. Members of the Canadian Legion Auxiliary helped make the event a success by taking girls from the city out to the dance.

POTATO STEAMER AVAILABLE— A communication has been received by Mr. Rand H. Matheson, of the Maritime Transportation Commission, from a Boston firm representing Foundation Maritime of Halifax, with reference to their small steamer Chedabucto, available to be chartered for the turnip and potato traffic, Prince Edward Island to Boston, Providence or New Haven. Firm rates, it is stated, cannot be quoted with the market changing so rapidly but it is believed the ship could be placed on the run on the basis of about 35 cents per 100 lbs., one port of discharge only each trip. After ice conditions make it impractical to operate out of Charlottetown a tentative rate of 30 cts. per 100 lbs. from either Halifax or Saint John is suggested. The offer is made on the assumption that there will be between 14,000 and 23,000 tons to move, which would more than afford continuous running of this vessel.

COYLE—HUGHES — St. Dunstan's Basilica, Charlottetown, was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding on the morning of September 3rd when Marguerite Bernadette Hughes, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. David Hughes of Vernon River, became the bride of Bernard Coyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Coyle of Fort Augustus. Reverend Parnell Wood celebrated the Nuptial Mass and performed the marriage ceremony. During the Mass appropriate hymns were beautifully rendered by Miss Hilda Seale, niece of the bride who was assisted at the organ by Mrs. Joseph Dougan. The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Bernard McIsaac, was prettily gowned in a redingote costume of navy crepe over rose, with navy accessories, and wore a corsage of pink roses. She was attended by her niece, Miss Marie Seale, who was gowned in a street length dress of deep-water blue and hat of the same shade, with white accessories, and wore a corsage of roses and sweet peas. The groomsman was Mr. Ambrose Coyle, brother of the groom. Following the ceremony a dainty wedding breakfast was served to the bridal party and to their immediate families at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. William Seale. The bride's table was centred with a three tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature price and groom, and the dining room was artistically decorated with pink and white streamers. In the evening a reception was held at the future home of the bride and groom. The many beautiful gifts received, from friends on the Island and in the United States, testified to the popularity of both parties. Prior to her marriage, the bride was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower at the home of her nephew, Mr. Allan Hughes of Vernon River, and received many useful gifts. Out-of-town guests at the wedding included: Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davis, Dorchester, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Bernard McIsaac Fairfield, Maine; Mrs. John Ross and Mrs. James Downey, both of Montreal, P. Q.

New Officers of Education Committee

The regular monthly meeting of the Education Committee was held at 4 o'clock Friday, September 19th in P.W.C. Prof. Reddin presided and opened the meeting by asking the Secretary to read minutes of previous meeting, which were read and approved. Miss Mabel Matheson, Mr. J. Reg Macdonald and Mr. Edison Macdonald entered into a discussion of certain subjects closed in Grade 9. Music taught in schools was also a subject of further discussion.

The chairman then announced the election of a new slate of officers would be proceeded with with the following results.

President, A.R. Brennan, Summerside.

Past President, W. A. Reddin, Charlottetown.

Vice-President, Mrs. Frank Murray, Charlottetown.

Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Keith Rogers, Charlottetown.

Mrs. Murray moved a vote of thanks be tendered the retiring President and Secretary for the efficient service rendered by them to the Committee during their term of office. It was seconded by Mr. Edison Macdonald and supported by Mr. J. Reg Macdonald and others. Mr. A. R. Brennan the new President then took the chair and assured them of his great interest in the work of the Education Committee and asked for their hearty co-operation during his term of office. The meeting then adjourned until the 2nd. Friday in Oct.

Inquests to Be resumed On Friday

The adjourned inquests into the deaths of Miss Angelina Monaghan, Mrs. Lawrence Doiron and Mr. Ivan Lafferty will take place at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon in the City Police Court room, it was announced last night. A report on the findings of the analysis of the stomach contents was received from Dr. R. B. Smith, Provincial Pathologist, Halifax, N. S.

The three persons died suddenly in the city about a month ago and an inquest was ordered. In each case the evidence pointed to alcoholic poisoning and it was decided to send the stomachs away for analysis. The Monaghan and Doiron inquests were before Coroner Dr. I. J. Yeo, and the Lafferty hearing before Coroner Dr. J. D. MacGuigan.

Police have discovered that the three deaths were connected by the same set of circumstances and it has been decided to hold the three together. As three juries have already been sworn in and listened to evidence in the cases, it is necessary to have them all present. About seven witnesses will be called and in all three cases the same evidence applies. Both Coroners will also be present.

Chief of Police A. Birtwistle, assisted by Cpl. C. F. Deakin, R. C. M. P. is handling the case.

The unusual procedure of holding the three inquests at the same place and at the same time is being done to facilitate matters as it would only be repetition after the first. In all 21 jurymen will listen to the evidence of the witnesses.

Those comprising the jury in the Monaghan death are: W. A. Rix, (foreman), A. Roop, J. E. Wran, O. Harper, G. Berrigan W. Bradley, F. Bell.

The jury in the Doiron death is J. Williams (foreman), Peter McDonald, E. Holnnis, G. Scott, A. Cody, T. Sentner, W. Weatherbie.

Mr. James W. McCallum is foreman of the jury in the Lafferty case, comprised of Messrs. Thomas White, L. A. McDonald, G. S. Williams, Milton Bell, Frank Wheatley and Forest Slocombe.

God and the War

Following is the text of an address delivered by Rev. Nell Herman at the Memorial Day Services at Wheatley River on Sept. 21:

"We are told by some that God is not in this war. God never was in any war. War is a matter wholly and solely, of artillery. So declared Napoleon and St. Helena writes a story about heavy artillery. And the grand jury of humanity will pass the verdict upon Hitler's legions and St. Helena will repeat itself in the doom of the Beast of Berlin.

'Ancient Israel, forgetting his God, went to battle, only to be rent in twain, and, finally, to go into captivities, under the iron and bloody heel of Babylon.

"Count the kings who ruled God out of war. Look at them as they stalk down through the passages of time.

"Belshazzar laughs at God and drinks from golden vessels. Belshazzar is slain and Darius takes the kingdom.

"Darius shuts the door against the Almighty and Alexander the Great breaks through the door, and Persia perishes, and Greece rises upon the dead bodies of an ancient civilization.

"Alexander the Great, ignorant of past history, learning nothing from the former fools who sat upon thrones, played the war game against God, and went down into the dust of defeat, and ancient Rome moved in upon the charred ruins of the world's cultural centre.

"And what about ancient Rome? Every school boy knows about the Eastern and Western Empire. He who runs may read the doom of the Roman dictators. They laughed, they drank, they soaked themselves in lust, in greed, in force and murder, they scorned the God of history, and perished like dogs.

"And what about Hitler? He learned nothing from history, and so had nothing to forget. He has nothing to forget, until the day that he shall be hurled from power, and, in hell, the inhabitants of the pit shall say—'Is this the man that made the earth to tremble and did shake kingdoms?

War Aims

"There are those who still ask about our war aims. Let us place them where they belong, among the Lindberghs and Wheelers.

"But let us reaffirm, today, our aims. We are fighting for the inherent right to possess our own souls. For that right we fought in 1914. For that right we are fighting in 1941. For this right we must fight or live on our knees. Better, infinitely better, to die on our feet than to live on our knees. The fight for the right to be free is God's fight. That right was settled nineteen hundred years ago on the Cross at Calvary, and by the God above us, that right holds today.

"I say again, we are fighting for the right to choose our own form of government. Our democracy is not perfect; we have a thousand repairs to make to our ship of state, but we swear allegiance to that God given right to choose to live under an elective government, rather than to bear our backs to that Austrian paper hanger, and be governed by the brass-buttoned rats of Berlin. For democracy we fought in 1914. For democracy we are fighting today. We fight in line with God when we fight for the right—not to be slaves.

The Right of Religion

"We are fighting, today, as we fought in 1914-1918 for the right to worship God, according to the dictates of our own consciences. I absolutely refuse to force a yoke of faith upon my fellow man. You have a right to worship under your own vine and fig tree, and if you haven't the courage to stand up against that forerunner of the Antichrist, you deserve to lose every privilege of religion, and every vestige of free worship.

"I say, again, God is in this fight—the fight for the right to look up and say—'My Lord and my God.'

"I respect the Mohammedan, who kneels upon his mat and in his own way looks up to his God. Let us respect every man, who sincerely worships his God, his Christ, and let us not lay down the sword nor cast aside our gun, because the pagan god of the Hun, belching fire through the mouth of the devil-inspired corporal of the last war, bids us deny our God, and betray our Christ, and join with Hitler in a league of hell."

Island Capital Subject of sketch In Ottawa paper

"Three Plain Tables Covered With Red" is the title of an article featured on the editorial page of the Ottawa Journal of Sept. 20; the tables referred to being those in the Confederation Chamber, Charlottetown, at which the Fathers of Confederation met for their historic conference in this city. The author, Mr. V.M. Kipp, of the Ottawa Journal staff, recently visited the Province. He gives an interesting description of matters of interest in the Provincial Building, and refers appreciatively to the Island and its people.

"Government," Mr. Kipps writes, "is close to the people, and the people are politically-minded. From the farthest point of P.E.I. the indignant citizen can motor to the capital in about three hours, and their footsteps over the years have worn deep grooves in the old grey flagstones in the lobby of the famous building. It is a small and intimate community, with plenty of graces but few airs. An official explained that really there is no permanent civil service, because the theory is pretty widely held that to the victors belong the spoils."

The author notes in conclusion that while the Island has no great wealth, it has on the other hand very little extreme poverty. "Its average of comfort is high," he says, "as is the average of education and intelligence."

MONTREAL, Sept. 23 —(CP) — A shift in the direction of the wind today helped firefighters gain an upper-hand on several bush fires in the woods around Terrebonne, Que., about 18 miles north of Montreal.

(St. Peter's, St. Paul's and St. James)

A special company meeting will be held next Friday Sept. 26th from 7—8.30 p. m. in St. Peter's Hall. All Guides are asked to attend; uniform is not necessary. Any recruits wishing to join this company will be welcomed at the regular meeting on Friday, Oct. 3rd.

Guide National War Service

The following letter was received from the Victoria Hospital for children in London in reference to boxes of garments, etc., sent by Canadian Girl Guides in which P. E. I. Guides and Brownies participated:

"I have just received two packing baxes full of lovely clothes, coming from the Canadian Girl Guides, sent on by Guide Headquarters here. This part of London has been badly bombed—in fact the hospital itself only just escaped destruction and we have no glass left. The soap and face cloths were much appreciated as the dirt of London now has to be seen to be believed!

"It is greedy to ask for more but if any Guide felt like knitting babies' leggings they would always be useful especially for when they have to go to the shellers. If there was any spare chocolate it would be welcomed too. We are so grateful to the Empire for their help, and I feel that this horrible war will have one good outcome, namely, that of bringing us all closer together.

"Please ask the Guides to accept this letter of thanks as coming from all the sick children as well as from the hospital. I only wish I could write to each Guide."

Guides and Brownies of this province will be asked to continue their good work of sewing and knitting so well started last year.

A few Guides who are clever with their fingers will be selected to enter toys for a toy fair which will be held in London in December in aid of the soldiers', sailors' and airmens' families association of London.

MRS. H. M. DAGGETT IS ACCIDENTALLY KILLED

Mr. W. F. Rose of Mt. Stewart has received the following particulars of the death of his mother Mrs. H. M. Daggett of Los Angeles, Calif., which occurred in August. Mr. and Mrs. Daggett were returning from a ten day vacation trip and were about 129 miles from home, when the three vehicle collision happened. Mr. Daggett was at the wheel and started to pass a heavy truck when another heavy truck pulled out to pass a car coming in the oppusite direction and they met in head-on collision, both travelling quite fast. Mr. and Mrs. Daggett were thrown out and Mrs. Daggett so seriously injured that she died in the Hospital without regaining consciousness, while Mr. Daggett is still in hospital near where the accident happened, and is desperately ill, and the outcome very uncertain as the accident has left him with little desire to fight his way back to health.

Mr. and Mrs. Daggett motored here five years ago and visited different points on the Island.

Mrs. Daggett was formerly Mrs. Stephen Rose of Priest Pond and is very lovingly remembered. They have a great many friends and relatives who were deeply shocked over the accident. The immediate family of Mrs. Daggett are her two sons W. F. Rose and Sylvester Rose of Mt. Stewart; one brother Fred Carew of East Baltic, 14 grandchildren and one great granddaughter. The funeral of Mrs. Daggett was largely attended and her coffin banked in fragrant flowers, silent tokens of the esteem in which she was held.

A picture of the collision in the Los Angeles paper stated that this was the seventeenth Kern County traffic fatality in 20 days—and 94th for the year so far.
