Doctors say Fleury's case is almost hopeless, but grant the other a slight chance of life.

PREMIER RETURNS

Canada.

For two hours this afternoon the Prime Minister submitted to questions from newspapermen and photographers who boarded the Duchess of York at Father Point. He denied that Canada had entered into any commitments with respect to Empire defence, and reported continued satisfaction in Great Britain with the Canada-United Kingdom trade agreements. He was particularly enthusiastic in his description of the Jubilee ceremonies and declared that words were inadequate to describe the splendor of the scene and the outpouring of loyal sentiment from the English people.

Canada enjoyed a most favored place in all the formal ceremonies and the hospitality of the British Government to the dominions' prime ministers who were the only official guests from abroad, left nothing to be desired.

Mr. Bennett was reluctant to discuss intimately the question of his personal health. He had been examined separately and in consultation by Drs. Cotton and Parkinson, two leading London heart specialists, the former a Canadian, he said, and had been assured that his heart, while tired from overwork, was organically sound.

"I am much better than when I left Canada," Mr. Bennett said, "but I do not know how much I can do until I try. The doctors say my heart is tired and obviously the only thing for a tired heart is rest. I believe I am capable of doing a reasonable amount of work. I do not want to boast that I am fit for anything nor do I want to indicate that I am not fit. I must feel my way.

"If I am not able to do the job the way I think it should be done I don't want to attempt it," Mr. Bennett said. Whether or not he could continue the pace he had set for himself in the past five years remained to be determined.

A dozen newspapermen and photographers who had tossed about on a pilot boat in the choppy waters off Father Point for two hours this morning found the Prime Minister among the interested group lining the rails of the Duchess of York to watch the pilot taken board. He looked very much his normal self and was in a jovial mood. Throughout a very pleasant passage he had been active in all shipboard activities and he declared that his physical condition had not disposed him to any degree in normal enjoyment of the visit to London, and the ocean voyages involved.

During the traditional concert held for the seamens' benefit on the last night at sea Mr. Bennett delivered a 10 minute speech and the collection taken was the largest in the history of the liner, members of the crew reported.

There had been some talk while he was in London with respect to the next Imperial Conference, Mr. Bennett said, but neither the place nor the date had been fixed. He assumed it would be some time in 1936 to allow ample time for any changes that might be deemed desirable in the trade agreements. Discussions regarding the Empire agreements while he was in London had not affected Canada but had been between the United Kingdom and other Dominions.

"From those qualified to comment I heard expressions of great satisfaction in our last budget," Mr. Bennett said. There had been some expressions of opinion three years ago that Canada should not have a woollen industry, he said, but in the meantime British woollen and cotton textile exports to Canada had increased and there was a much better feeling.

Mr. Bennett would not discuss the possibility of Hon. H. H. Stevens reentering the government nor would he talk of the domestic situation in view of his long separation from active participation in Dominion affairs. He would not give any approximate date for the general election nor was he in a position to discuss Canada's stand with respect to Japanese trade, nickel exports used for munitions or the forthcoming negotiations for a United States-Canada trade treaty.

PRESIDENTIAL VETO CAUSES WEAKER MKT.

By Frank MacMillen,
Associated Press Financial Writer
(By Guardian's Special Wire)

NEW YORK, May 17.—The flame of inflationary enthusiasm, which burned rather brightly on Thursday, flickered and petered out as shares turned irregularly downward in less active trading on the New York Stock Exchange today.

The damper on inflation spirits, brokers said, was the statement issued at the White House that President Roosevelt would veto the Patman fiat money bonus bill in the strongest terms at his command.

While this doubtless prompted a good part of the selling, market analysts were at paints to point out that it was not the only factor. A substantial amount of the liquidation, they said, represented profit-taking by traders who wished to withdraw to the sidelines in order to let the market get its breath after yesterday's sweeping advance.

In terms of the Associated Press average of 60 stocks, the market closed .3 of a point lower at 42.2. Trading was considerably less active at 1,821,600 shares compared with 2,419,010 shares yesterday.

Mild advances in the utilities contrasted with widely scattered losses in both industrials and rails. Oils and coppers were generally resistant to the downtrend of other industrials.

Amongst Canadian issues Shawinigan got up a point while McIntyre-Porcupine, Noranda, Lake Shore, Hiram Walker and Distillers-Seagrams gained fractionally. Canadian Pacific, International Nickel, Dome Mines, Hollinger and Dominion Stores averaged slightly lower.

3 minutes 41.8 seconds, a most remarkable showing for a kid.

Having missed out in professional and amateur hockey championships, Toronto decided to make a big fuss over Jack Purcell who successfully defended his world's professional badminton title by defeating Jess Willard, United States champion at Los Angeles Saturday. Last Thursday night the hero was met at Union Station by the Mayor, City Fathers and massed bands that headed a parade to the City Hall where he was officially welcomed and there was much speechifiying.

A mistake by one of the operators of the mutual machines at San Antonia, Texas, last Sunday, caused a riot. The winner had been posted at 40 to 1 and when the payoff was made at $10.80 to $1., nearly a thousand irate fans swept across the track, tore the mutual boards off, threw stones through the press box and stopped the running of the last two events. To quell the disturbance it was necessary to call out forty officers who used billies, guns and gas bombs.

Tommy Gorman, Manager of the world's champions Montreal Maroons hockey team, states that not one of his Stanley Cup winning team is for sale. "The team is standing pat," he said.

Hamilton Tigers hockey team who were defeated by the Toronto All-Stars in the playoff series just previous to the All-Stars tackling the Montreal Royals, returned from their trip to the United Kingdom Saturday night. Capacity crowds marked their appearance throughout the tour. They commented upon the different brand of hockey played in the United Kingdom and the continent. "Body checking of the Canadian variety is out. The English crowds won't stand for stiff body checks and will shout off the ice anyone who hands them out," said one of the huskier members of the team.

The six day bike race which ended at the Maple Leaf Gardens, Toronto, last Saturday night, had an attendance of 92.000 for the week. 6.000 more than the previous race. It was won by Torchy Peden and was his 28th win since he turned pro in 1929. Just one less than the world record held by Piet van Kempen, who dropped out of the race. The largest attendance was last Monday when 24.000 passed through the turnstiles. The riders travelled 2.396 miles during the 141 hours of riding.

Mt. Herbert Meeting Favors Bonus Payment

At a meeting of about thirty farmers of Mount Herbert, Mermaid and Johnston's River held in Mt. Herbert hall on May 15th, W. F. McDonald was appointed chairman and L. J. MacDonald secretary. The object of the meeting was outlined by the chairman as to the advisibility of the federal government paying a bonus to farmers for 1934 potato crop. The discussion followed along lines discussed at previous meetings in the Province, the following taking part: J. J. McCarthy, M. W. Wood, Martin Power, D. A. McDonald, Lawrence Heron, Earl Ings, L. J. MacDonald, Wm. Trainor.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved that we, the potato growers of Mermaid, Mt. Herbert and Johnston's River, join in a movement with other districts of Prince Edward Island in petitioning the federal government to pay a bonus on the Island potato crop for 1934. That this bonus be $10 per acre up to six acres.

In considering the fact that the federal government has from time to time assisted the farmers in other provinces, and that no such assistance has ever been given to Prince Edward Island potato growers notwithstanding the fact that they have for several years been operating on a losing basis, we feel we are fairly entitled to a consideration.

Further resolved that immediate action be taken by federal government to correct excessive acreage all over the Dominion of Canada.

HALIFAX, May 17—Frank Patch, probably the most famous horse that ever ran in the Maritimes, found a final resting place today when he was buried close to the Halifax exhibition track which he made famous.

A 2.06 1-4 pacer foaled 30 years ago, Frank Patch had such a consistent career he was a favorite in most of the races he ran in the old Maritime circuit.

Before and after being bought by the late Jim Adams of Halifax as a four-year old, he ran in the Grand Circuit.

East End House League

Last night at the P. W. C. diamond the fast-stepping Hermits jumped into first place defeating the cellar position Hard-Hitters 15 to 7.

The winners, never in danger, played good all-round ball behind the steady pitching of Roach who had the Hard-Hitters well in hand. MacDonald, MacLeod and Conway each got a homer, with Doyle getting two.

The losers failed to live up to their name at the plate, and played poor ball in the field. Poor throws from the plate with timely hits caused many blow-ups. Mahar was batted from the box in the third and was replaced by MacKenzie who finished the game. "Scotty" Dowling got a homer.

ENTRIES CLOSE FOR TORONTO TURF CLASSIC

Thoroughbreds Primed For 76th Running of the King's Plate.

(By D. E. Burrit, Canadian Press Staff Writer)

TORONTO, May 17—(CP)—All the mystery traditionally surrounding racing tactics hung over Woodbine Park tonight where 14 Ontario-foaled thoroughbreds were scheduled to face the barrier for the 76th running of the King's Plate tomorrow afternoon.

MUCH SPECULATION

Closing of the entries today found racing fans anxiously seeking the answer to the sudden decision of Trainor Harry Giddings to increase to four the entry from R. S. McLaughlin's Parkwood Stables. They also sought information concerning the closely-guarded trial records of Harry Hatch's pair of fillies, Chickpea and Donstick, reported to have covered the nine-furlong Plate route under the record of 1.54 1-5 set by McLaughlin's Horometer last spring.

Trials of the other nine candidates failed to produce anywhere near the speed of the Hatch duo, whose entry was considered an uncertainty until 20 minutes before entries were declared closed. Even McLaughlin's Listaro, top favorite ever since the opening of Winter Books, has done no better than 1.56 3-5 over the mile and a furlong, and Gidding's sudden move to include in his entry Eileen D. and Vingt Cinq with the favorite and Epicurus, led to speculation concerning the condition of Listaro.

MANN TO RIDE FAVORITE

Frankie Mann, seeking his fourth winner in the Plate, worth $5,000 and 50 guineas donated by the King, was given orders to ride the favorite, which in itself made it appear that Giddings had his confidence based on Listaro and had entered the other trio as part of the strategy that has brought him victory in the historic classic more times than any other trainer.

The report concerning Hatch's entry made the race, for three-year-olds and up who have never won a victory since juvenile days, appear more wide-open than ever.

Around the Woodbine it was believed the real contest lay between the entries of McLaughlin, Hatch, W. H. Wright and Edward Seagram, which constituted 10 of the 14 horses named.

Further mystery enveloped Wright's entry of Worthing and Tax Free, the latter a three-year-old gelding without a start, which equalled Listaro's best time in the workouts. Neither Worthing or Tax Free have been under pressure and their full ability was a matter of conjecture.

JUNIOR BASEBALL GAME

A friendly game of baseball was played between the Junior Wizards and Rangers. The Rangers won by a score of 10-9. Gallant pitched good ball for the winners. Lineups:—

Rangers: A. Cantwell, E. Gallant, J. Davis, B. Hooper, J. Herrel, I. Herrel, E. Carroll, E. Doolie.

Wizards: A. McDonald, B. Steele, T. Richard, E. McDonald, P. Prowse, I. Mahar, J. Pickard, P. Steele.
