NEAT WORK.—The Empire Type-writer does neat work—is strongly constructed, easy of operation, and fully guaranteed. Write for catalogue. Also carbon papers and typewriter ribbons. B. G. Rogers, Summerside, P. E. I. 1541-8-19M21.

POLICE COURT. On Saturday the Prohibition cases for second and third offences respectively against D. O'Brien and Owen Trahan were dismissed. The prohibition case against Mrs. Haines was adjourned till Wednesday, also the ejection case of Wasatke, vs. George Morrison & Co.

SCOTTISH GATHERING.—One of the most attractive features of the gathering of the clans will be the splendid dancing of the wee lads and lassies. In their bonnets and plaids they will dance jigs, strathspeys and reels, all to the pipers' tune. Don't fail to see them. 1564

SCOTTISH GATHERING.—Today the Scottish Clans will assemble at Charlottetown, and a draw day it will be. They will forgo their cry and country, from east, west, north and south. In bonnet and kilt, in tartan and fillibeg, with dirk and sporrans, will they come. They will come to see and take part in the running and jumping and dancing. From every coin of vantage you will hear the pibroch sounding, sounding. Come ye an' a', to enjoy sic' a day. 1565

WEDDING BELLS.—A St. John Exchange says:—The wedding of Miss Jean Sangster Campbell, daughter of Rev. (Captain) G. M. and Mrs. Campbell, and niece of Premier Clarke and Mr. Justice McKeown, to Mr. Kenneth Stockton Pickard, son of the late Mr. Charles P. Pickard, of Sackville, was solemnized at Centenary church, at noon Wednesday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Richard W. Weddall, of St. Andrew's, assisted by Rev. W. H. Barracough, of Centenary church. The full choir of Centenary church. The church was very prettily decorated. The bride was given away by her father, otherwise she was unattended. Only relatives and immediate friends of the parties were invited. Following the ceremony a lunch was held at the Manor House, after which the bride and bridegroom left on their honeymoon for a motor tour through the State of Maine, extending over two weeks.—Mrs. Pickard's many Charlottetown friends will join in heartfelt congratulations.

HARRY STANLEY ILL.—Mr. W. W. Stanley received a private cablegram from his son, Capt. J. W. Stanley, saying that his brother Harry, of 88th Siege Battery was sick in base Hospital, France.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—Mr. John Anderson, Provincial Auditor was severely injured several days ago as the result of falling down stairs. Mr. Anderson had two of his fingers dislocated and his shoulder badly strained. The accident will confine him to his bed for some time.

SCOTTISH GATHERING.—The horse races will be a new feature on the programme of the Caledonian Club today, but it cannot fail to be most interesting and attractive. Some of the fastest trotters in the province have entered, and grand races may be expected. This feature alone will be worth more than the price of admission. Don't fail to witness these races. 1554

DOING GRAND WORK.—The Tryon on Red Cross Society held its annual meeting on Aug. 3rd. Reports of the year's work were handed in, showing 260 pairs socks, forty hospital suits, 20 pillows, and some old linen, shipped to Red Cross or to the boys at the front; $160 sent to Red Cross headquarters and 27.53 on hand. The Society wishes to thank the Tryon Lawn Tennis Club for the gift of $25 received since.

ISLAND M. D. WEDS.—Many friends in the City will be interested to learn of the marriage of Dr. Lester Gorham Houle, of Alta., California, son of Mr. A. J. Houle, of the P. E. I., Charlottetown; to Miss Jean Devereaux, daughter of the late Elijah Devereaux, of Guelph, Ontario, and Mrs. Devereaux, Montreal. The ceremony took place in St. James, Methodist Church, Montreal, on August 5th; inst., Rev. Thomas Scott officiating. Dr. Houle's many friends here will unite in wishing his bride and himself hearty felicitations.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS MEET.—The fourteenth annual banquet of the Nova Scotia Funeral Directors' Association held at the Carleton House, was perhaps the best yet held, says a Halifax exchange. Close to one hundred covers had been laid, and about eighty of these were taken. The banquet proved a very enjoyable affair. It was marked by a pleasing incident. This was the presentation of a case of silver to Mr. and Mrs. John Snow, in remembrance of the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding this December. The case of silver was the gift of the members of the Nova Scotia Funeral Directors' Association, of which Mr. Snow is one of its oldest members. A number of toasts were honored. Among the speakers were, Lieut.-Col. Rev. Archdeacon Armitage, Mr. McKinnon, of Montague, P.E.I., a representative of the manufacturers, and Professor Stone, of Toronto, lecturer and demonstrator.

RAILWAY CONDUCTORS MEET.—The members of Bartlett, Lodge, No. 214, Order of Railway Conductors arrived in Charlottetown on Saturday night and held their regular meeting in the City on Sunday morning in the I. O. O. F. Hall. The members of the party were as follows: E. L. Watts, (chief conductor) and wife; Wm. Crockett, chief secretary and daughter; R. L. Hunter, St. John; A. O. Cruickshanks and wife, Fredericton; Augustine McKenzie, Dalhousie; C. B. Clarke, wife and daughter, D. Sweeney and wife; M. Cummings, F. M. Plannery, J. S. Nickerson, Wm. Warman and wife, T. C. Ayer, and wife, all of St. John. The visitors were met at the depot by the P. E. I.

brethren and escorted to the Victoria and Queen Hotels. The visitors were delighted with the hospitality extended to them by the local members of the Order. An enjoyable boating trip on the river was provided for genial Georges—Tanton and Ryan, those fond of the water, while for those who preferred pleasure ashore a splendid drive around the city and suburbs was substituted by the two railway men.

Needless to say the visitors leave here taking with them decidedly pleasing recollections of Charlottetown and its railway men.
