STANLEY BRIDGE.—A very large and representative audience met in the Hall at Stanley Bridge in Thursday evening for the purpose of discussing the subject of Women's Institutes. Miss Katherine James, supervisor, explained the aims, objects and scope of these Institutes and after several of the women had expressed their opinion in the matter, it was decided to organize Stanley Bridge and Cavendish into one Institute for which the following officers were elected:—President, Mrs. Walter Simpson Vice-pres.,—Mrs. Wallace MacKay Directors—Mrs. John Sterling, Mrs (Dr.) Fleming, Mrs Alfred Fyfe, Mrs Thomas Bolger; Sec-Treas.,—Miss Lottie Brown. The first regular meeting is to take place on Thursday Quly 3rd at 2 p. m. in the Stanley School when the subject of preserving is to be dealt with. These Women's Institute meetings are open to all and it is hoped that a large number will show their interest in this forward movement and encourage the officers and members of this newly formed Institute by being present at the above date.

After spending a social hour with Mrs. Stevenson the company dispersed wishing her every success in her new home. Mrs. Stevenson left on June 7th to join her husband at New Bedford, Mass, where they intent residing in future.

THE Rogers Farquharson Alaska Blue Fox Co Ltd

Capital Stock $25.000

Are you satisfied with letting your money lie idle when you can make it earn 75 to 125 p. c. in 1 year

The Blue Fox Business promises to be a very lucrative one, and in all probabilities will outclass all other Fox propositions on the market, as the animals have more to a litter and the prices are rapidly advancing.

This company has in readiness 10 prs of high class "Alaska" Blue Foxes to stock the Up-To-Date Ranch which is now under construction at Bunbury on the beautiful farm of Mr Rogers Farquharson

The estimated financial returns to the investor from 10 prs. of these foxes is from 75 to 125 p. c. in one year, as they have from 8 to 12 to a litter, and putting it down at a very conservative estimate at 5 foxes to a pair, which would mean 25 prs. at the market price to day at $1,500 per pair for breeding purposes. This you will readily see will net a large dividend to the shareholder.

The Company is Capitalized at $25,000, of which $15,000 has already been subscribed, and $10,000 is now offered to the public at $100 per share, par value. Payment of 20 p. c. with application, and the balance on the 1st September. For full particulars apply to any of the following Provisional Directors.

Mr. George J Rogers, President, Charlottetown.
