WEDDING BELLS.

VESSEY—WEST.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was that solemnized at the home of Amos West, York, on Tuesday at 8.30 p. m. when his daughter Miss Amy R. Vessey was united in marriage to Edmon J. Vessey son of William Vessey. Rev. E. Bell performed the ceremony in the presence of only the near relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. The party entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss L. H. Tuplin, Margate. The bride who was unattended and given away by her father, was prettily attired in a princess gown of white silk organdy, with lace and silk trimmings and wore white carnations and maiden hair fern. After hearty congratulations the guests were served a delicious supper. The popularity of the young couple was testified by the number of handsome presents received. The groom's gift to the bride was an elegant gold watch and pendant. Mr. and Mrs. Vessey left by the early train on a short visit to Chatham, N. B., where they were the guests of Rev. G. F. and Mrs. Dawson.

DEATH OF MRS. JOHN J. McNABB

In another column will be found a notice of the death of Catherine, wife of John J. McNabb of Grand Tracadie, which occurred on Sunday evening last.

The deceased lady had been in declining health for about a year. It was apparent for several months that she could not recover.

Her sufferings were borne with Christian fortitude.

All that kindness and love could suggest were willingly and cheerfully done to alleviate her sufferings. Fortunately she was conscious up to the very last.

The funeral took place on Tuesday to St. Michael's Church, Corran Ban Bridge where High Mass was celebrated, the Reverend Father McGuigan officiating.

There was a large attendance of COUNCILLOR STEWART, Chairman of Charlottetown Street Committee.

COUNCILLOR BEN. J. ROGERS, JR., Charlottetown, Chairman Finance Committee.

NEW WONDERLAND TONIGHT Strike On

Running After A Helmet And The Chinamen.

New Wonderland has four elegant pictures for their patrons tonight. "Jag ties together their two pig-tails" and "The Lure of the Gown," shown last night was much appreciated and will be put on to-night for the last time. The new reel contains two extremely funny pictures. Running after a Helmet, is a genuine mix up. A soldier loses his helmet and the different mistakes that are made before it is found is very funny. "The Chinamen" is also another genuine comedy. Two Chinamen start for Paris to see the sights neighbors and friends of the deceased from the surrounding country.

Mrs. McNabb was a daughter of the late Malcolm McAulay of Scotch Fort. She leaves surviving her husband, John J. McNabb, and nine children—Alexander, Frank, John, Miss Mary and Miss Barbara in Boston, James and Augustine in Charlottetown, Miss Josephine and Miss Etta at home, to all of whom the Guardian extends sympathy in their bereavement.
