TO JOHN W. TROWSDALE, Miss Alice Ramsay was united in marriage at a very pretty ceremony which took place at the home of the bridegroom, No. 280 West 15th street, last week. D. J. McMillan, of the New York Presbyterian Church, officiated. The bride was handsomely gowned in white chiffon de laine, trimmed with real lace and tulle. The veil was also of tulle, caught up with lilies of the valley. The bridal bouquet consisted of chrysanthemums and sunlax. The bride was attended by her niece, Miss Florence Craig, of Brooklyn, as maid of honor. She was attired in white organdie prettily trimmed with lace and insertion, and she carried a large bouquet of carnations. The marriage was attended only by the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. This was owing to the recent death of the bride's father. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and costly gifts, the groom's present being a beautiful upright piano. After congratulations and the serving of refreshments the happy couple left for a trip to Niagara Falls and through Massachusetts amid showers of rice and good wishes. Both the bride and groom were formerly of Prince Edward Island, Canada.—New York Evening Telegram.

By every mail we get hundreds of letters like these: "I will say that two prominent physicians of our city declared that unless I underwent an operation, and that very soon, I was in danger of death. I saw your ad in a newspaper and at once sent for a sample which I received very promptly. I want to tell you that it was the first thing that eased the terrible pain and itching and allowed me to have a night's rest for 7 long weeks. My husband immediately went to our druggist, Mr. Heinzbach, and procured a 50-cent box. I am now cured and will always recommend you highly to every one. Your mind, too was almost gone from the pain. Yours gratefully, Mrs. Rose H. Stouffer, 1803 18th St., Moline, Ill."
