COTTONS

your picking time during
COTTON WEEK - COMMENCING TUESDAY, APRIL 27th

The flowers that bloom in the spring are bright, bright cottons that send you to luncheon . . . to shop . . . to care for the kiddies in sparkling freshness. They're blithe fashions that take you coolly through blistering summer days, that keep you poised and fresh looking from morn till midnight.
 They're washable . . . colorfast . . . and so prettily detailed.

—ROTARY MEETING — Dr. Harold Shaw, Provincial Pathologist of Charlottetown was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Summerside Rotary Club on Tuesday. He spoke on the advances made in medicine as the direct result of war. Dr. G. J. Callant, Kinkora, was a guest. —S.

—SAD NEWS RECEIVED — Mr. William Sencabaugh has received the sad news of the death of brother James Seymour at his home, 78 Cliff Ave., Lexington, Mass. Deceased was in the 75th year of his age, and had been in failing health for the past two years. Little Jim as he was familiarly called left home when quite a young man. He was a carpenter by trade and built up for himself a comfortable home. He made various trips to his old home, his last one being eighteen years ago when he visited his aged mother when one week previous to her death. He is survived by his wife at her home in Lexington; one sister, Mrs. Margaret Reynolds of Augusta, Me.; two brothers, John H. (Hort) of Oak Valley, P. E. I. and William H. at Murray Harbor North. Funeral services were held on April 15, 1948 in South Boston with the Rev. Dr. Louis W. West, minister of the South Baptist Church, South Boston officiating.

—HOLMAN'S ANNUAL PARTY— Holman's store bowling league held their annual party following the end of the season at the Imperial Diner, Summerside, on Tuesday evening. Mr. Davis Murray presided during the dinner and the program which was carried out between courses. Mr. J. Leroy Holman presented the prizes won for the season's play and expressed his happiness at being back among the members of the staff again after being away for two months. The prize winners were as follows: Men—High Single—Allie Harris; 2nd. High, Edwin Gallant; High Three, Wallace Coles; Consolation, Felix Gallant. Girls — High Single, Irene Peters; 2nd. High, Eileen Weeks; High Three, Theresa Arsenault; Consolation, Dorothy Baker. Mr. Alan Holman gave some bowling statistics in a very witty and entertaining manner. The program as carried out was as follows: Vocal quartette: Louis Poirier, Bob Shaw, Earle Campbell, Eric Woodside; step dance, Felix Gallant accompanied by Allie Harris on the violin and Edson Baker at the piano. Ladies' sextette, Wilna McNevin, Wanda McNevin, Viola Allen, Shirley Coles, Edith Monkley, Edith Palmer; piano solo, Irene Peters; Duet, Irene Peters and Davis Murray; Duet, Arthur Perry and Irene Peters. After the dinner dancing was enjoyed till one o'clock. This was the most successful party to date with the largest attendance yet. —S.
