TUESDAY ISLANDER DIES IN THE WEST—The body of Mr. William Gillis, a native of St. Margarets, but lately employed in Maple Creek, Saskatchewan, as a well borer, was brought to the island Tuesday and the funeral took place from his old home on Thursday afternoon. The late Mr. Gillis met death very suddenly, as he was poisoned from dynamite fumes arising from an explosion in a well on which he was working. The funeral was largely attended and much sympathy is felt for his relatives.

PROPERTY SOLD—Mr. P.W. Turner who recently sold "Sidmount" to Mr. Donald McKinnon, has bought the South east corner of Mr. Louison's property, corner Ambrose and Brighton Avenue, where Mr. Turner intends to build an up-to-date bungalow for his own use, surrounded by beautiful trees and Hawthorn Hedges. In conversation with Mr. Louison regarding Brighton he stated that a number of people are inquiring about building lots etc at Birchdale, and also for the old home-stead called "Brighton Villa," but that none of these propositions would be considered, until the Spring.

EXCELLENT EQUIPAGE—Citizens in general and horsemen in particular were strong in their praise of the magnificent span and luxurious carriage which was driven through the city yesterday by Mr. C. W. S. McClure. The equipage is the property of a prominent manufacturer in Toronto, N. S. and has been sent to the island for wintering, as evidently the fame of the province as a place for feeding and fitting horses has gone beyond the straits. The span of horses are hackneys, pure blooded and registered with the American Hackney society. They are a perfect match, dark bay in color, particularly height, both geldings. They were bought in Chicago, Illinois and now have some 35 first prizes to their credit having never failed to win first in their class in all the important shows at Chicago, Indianapolis, Cleveland, Rochester, New York and Philadelphia. The harness they wear is of the finest quality and would easily cost $350.00 on the wholesale market today. The carriage, they are hitched to is an undercut show buggy with solid leather cushions and top. This is without doubt the finest in driving horses and equipment that has been shown in the city and needless to say Mr. McClure was the cynosure of all eyes yesterday some of them not little bit envious.

ON FURLOUGH IN ENGLAND—Mrs. Wm. A. Noonan, Bedeque, has received a letter from her son Bdr. Philip Noonan dated Oct. 21, 1917 in which he states that he was then on "pass" in England and was visiting his brother Pte. Daniel Noonan of the 104th Battalion. Bdr. Noonan enlisted in McKinnon's Battery in January, 1916, and landed in England in April of the same year. In July they proceeded to France. In his letter Bdr. Noonan gives a brief account of his experiences at the front. They first went into action at Ypres. Then in Oct. they moved to the Somme and went into action at Poyteres and Martinpuich. In December of the same year they went to Arras and in February moved to Abbain St. Nazaire, from there they proceeded to Vimy Ridge which was captured on Easter Monday, 1917. They remained in the town of Vimy until August, when they moved north to Hill 70. Here Bdr. Noonan was gassed and was sent to a hospital where he remained for over a month. After leaving the hospital he proceeded with the Battery northward to Belgium. He left the Battery when at Ypres. While in England Bdr. Noonan saw many of his friends among whom he mentions, Lieut. Stanley, Donald and Alex Collins. Before he returns he intends visiting Edinburgh and other interesting places.

WEDDING BELLS—A very interesting event occurred at St. Patrick's church, Fort Augustus on Tuesday, Nov. 6th at 8 o'clock a.m. when Miss Angie, daughter of Peter Cumiskey of Mt. Ryan, was united in the Holy bonds of Matrimony with Mr. M. F. Sinnott, son of John D. Sinnott of Morell, by Rev. A. J. MacDonald, P.P. After the marriage ceremony which included a nuptial mass ably assisted by the choir masters, Messrs David and William MacDonald of Glenfanning, the happy couple drove to the home of the bride's parents where a dainty breakfast was served. After some time happily while away in feasting and music the happy couple drove to Charlottetown accompanied by brothers and sisters of the bride partaking of a sumptuous dinner at the Victoria Hotel. About three o'clock the bridal party left for their future home in Morell where they were met with a hearty welcome by a number of friends of the groom. A pleasant evening was spent in dancing and musical interludes. The bride looked very pretty in a costume of white silk with pearl trimmings, she also wore a black plush coat with a white satin hat. She was attended by her sister Emma who wore a silk and cloth costume of Alice blue, she also wore a black plush coat with hat to match. The groom was ably supported by Stephen Cumiskey, brother of the bride. Mr. Sinnott is a prominent farmer of Morell and is a cousin to Arch Bishop Sinnott of Winnipeg. All join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Sinnott a long and happy wedded life.
