"Eat drink and be merry," may not be the exact motto of the Order of the Good Time of Nova Scotia, but it seems to suit these Indian chiefs, who munch cake and quaff cider during a special convale of the society. Here to carry out experiments in the production of a special crop, ginseng, he had spent $7,000 and stood to lose all the development work so far as the crop was concerned as it could not be moved.

NEW PICTURES BLESSED IN CONVENT CHAPEL—During the visit of His Excellency Rt. Rev. Bishop O'Sullivan to the western part of the province, he visited the Convent at Miscouche where he officiated in a pretty but very impressive ceremony in the chapel when a new set of pictures of the Stations of the Cross were blessed. The pictures are exquisite copies from a noted German artist and are a very beautiful addition to the Convent chapel. The pictures were presented to His Lordship by Rev. Dr. Monaghan for the dedication ceremony. Afterwards the congregation attended the meditation service of the "Way of the Cross." Bishop O'Sullivan complimented the Sisters on the beautiful works of art they had been so fortunate in receiving.

MEETING OF SUMMERSIDE TRADE BOARD

Improvements Made To Marine Wharf to Handle Potato Shipments.
 The opening meeting for the fall months of the Summerside Board of Trade was held last evening with a very good attendance and many matters of importance to citizens generally discussed and proposed.

Mr. J. Frank Arnett, president, occupied the chair. Mr. Richard Hinton, secretary, read several communications dealing with such matters as transportation; freight rates and transportation of motor cars in the car ferry. An optimistic note was struck by Mr. John E. Campbell in his report for the marine committee. Mr. Campbell made the pleasing statement that the necessary improvements have been made to the Marine wharf and that accommodation can now be given to three large steamers at the wharf at one time and in view of the fact that there will be considerable movement of potatoes to the Argentine this year these improvements have been very timely. The Argentine potato trade has created quite a stimulant to the potato business.

Some discussion took place with regard to Queen's wharf and the possibility of its being taken over by the government. Another important matter discussed was the Fox Educational Week. The committee in charge stated that considerable interest is being taken in this movement which it is realized will be of great value to the ranchers.

Mr. Peter G. Clark reported for the town improvement committee, and expressed the satisfaction that the town was enlarging the Electric Light Plant and made the suggestion that the street past the plant should be paved and if possible connect up with the highway at the eastern boundary of the town, which would relieve the congestion over the railway crossing and on Water Street. This proposal was very favourably received.

Delegates were appointed to the Maritime Board of Trade meeting, Mayor Robinson, L. R. Allen, A. E. MacLean, Peter G. Clark and Frank Arnett.

With reference to the cleaning up of the stagnant pond at the west end of the town, Mr. Allen stated that the Provincial Government has at the present time relief money under consideration and that a representative would be going to Ottawa shortly on the question of relief and he thought that this would be an opportune time to approach the Government for the relief money to carry out some improvements to this pond. As the work would be almost entirely labour, it would receive very favourable consideration.

THANK OFFERING OF TRINITY W. M. S.—The thank offering meeting of the W. M. S. of Trinity United Church was held on Wednesday in Epworth Hall with a very large attendance of members and visitors. Mrs. T. M. Linkletter, president, opened the meeting with a call to worship half hour. The scripture lesson was read by Miss Eva MacNeill; Mrs. William Muttart offered prayer. During the offering, hymn 374 was sung. The thank offering was a very large one and the officers were very encouraged by it. A most interesting paper on stewardship was read by Mrs. Llewellyn. Mrs. A. S. MacKay gave a very pleasing solo; Mrs. L. R. Allen a reading. It was decided to pack a box for Trinidad and afterwards to see about sending a box to the distressed areas of Saskatchewan. The study book for November is "A New Church Faces a New World." The announcement was made that Miss Griffiths of Toronto will visit the W. M. S. in the near future, and arrangements will be made for her reception. A very pleasing part of the program was the piano selection by Miss Malson, who entertained the members during the social half hour. Afternoon tea and refreshments were served, followed by a social hour.

tion that the Provincial Government should have requested it." Mr. Bentley pointed out that the establishments permitted by the Dominion National Park Act were so elaborate that they would not be operated profitably in this province with its short season. It was "utterly preposterous" to expect people in the Park area to own such places. The income would not pay interest on the initial cost, let alone pay wages.

Mr. Sinclair disagreed that the regulations mentioned by Mr. Bentley would be the ones in effect here. "We don't feel like going ahead and making regulations for here until the property is settled for by the Provincial Government," the speaker said.

What assurance had anyone, Mrs. Wyand asked, that if they went ahead and settled for their property that any concessions would be considered. They just have until the 1st of November to move the cottages unless they wished to commit an actionable offense.

Senator Sinclair replied that they need not worry about the 1st of November.

Mr. Sydney Ranicar, Stanhope, declared that it was quite a different thing when people wanted to sell their property as compared with having it taken. When anyone had a farm to sell it went to the highest bidder. In the case of the expropriated farms the people had to take what the government offered or leave it.

Island Pair Mark 50th Anniversary

EVERETT, Mass., Oct. 7.—(CP)—Mr. and Mrs. George A. Gould today looked back over 50 years of married life and counted scores of messages of greetings and presents received on their golden wedding anniversary. They were married at Summerside, P. E. I., Oct. 6, 1887.

A family party was held yesterday at the home of a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Bertram Jones, Chelsea, Mass. They have four children, eight grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Mr. Gould is employed at the Merchants and Miners Transportation Company.

tant of those colonies and disastrous to the welfare of our countrymen, whether engaged in the factories of Great Britain or in production overseas.

"This Conference further calls upon the Conservative Party to resist these subversive proposals and to make the integrity and unity of the Empire under the Crown one of its foremost articles of faith."

"When Hitler declares," Sir Henry Page Croft said in moving the resolution, "that the British mandated colonies belong to Germany by moral right, we must reply that if we admit that claim, then Germany was morally right to enter Belgium and we were morally wrong to oppose her in the Great War."

"According to all tests of the past, Germany has no more moral right to these territories, which she lost in the Great War, which was the result of her entering Belgium, than we have to Heligoland today."

Britain, he added, could expect no great material advantage from the mandated colonies. Before the war they provided Germany with only one-half of one per cent of her imports.

"We ought to tell the German people that it is not a question of material gain," Sir Henry declared. "We have no advantage from these colonies in trade which is not extended to Germany or other foreign countries. But we are not prepared to risk the whole of our future by allowing ourselves to be established which could sever our air communications in Africa and could cut our sea communications around the cape to the Far East."

"But this is not enough. We should adopt a positive Empire policy to complete the great advance we have won in putting our country on the top of the world in the last four or five years."

During the afternoon resolutions ranged from the decline in the birthrate to protection of poultry. On the birthrate, the Conference amended a formal resolution by striking out words which would have ensured advance support for Government measures to encourage an increase in the size of families.

The resolution as adopted reads:

Re Commission Valuation

Mr. John Martin, Tracadie, repeated a declaration made at the York meeting that the commission who valued the land were the most honorable gentlemen he ever met.

At this point Mr. James Pendergast interrupted to ask "why wasn't their word taken if they were such honorable men?"

Mr. Martin's reply was lost in a roar of applause which followed the question.

When he could be heard Mr. Martin said that the commissioners, Mr. Higgs, Mr. McKinley and Mr. McDonald, were honorable intelligent men who told him they had permission to pay 50 per cent more than the real value of the land. That was before they asked him to put a value on his land.

People in the Cavendish area had valued their land a little high, Mr. Martin stated, and repeated former statements that the park was a fine thing for the country. The North Shore had gotten it because they had the two best men at Ottawa they ever had. They had said, "we're going to do something for you" and had given the park. Men were employed on the park this year, "getting good pay, government pay" who otherwise would have been unemployed, the speaker said. Now there was a "handful" of land owners kicking but the government, "can't taking any notice of them at all," Mr. Martin said.

Mr. William Campbell of Tracadie asked Mr. Martin if he had been used so well why was he following the meetings. So far as Mr. Martin's property was concerned the speaker said whatever he got was all it was worth as it was mostly bushes.

Re Concessions

In reply to a statement by Senator Sinclair that it was his understanding that concessions would be given former property owners in the Park, Mr. D. L. Mathieson read a letter received by Mrs. Wyand from Mr. Williamson, controller of National Parks. It stated that upon the Provincial Government taking the property and paying compensation those people would be in the same position as far as securing any concession in the Park area as any other person. The Dominion National Park Act respecting the Nova Scotia Park provided for the granting of concessions, the Dominion Act respecting the P. E. I. park did not. Mr. Mathieson stated. Why was the section left out of the one.

Mr. Sinclair: "There was no request for such a provision here."

Mr. Mathieson: "It's my conten-

A mother of five has a lot to do. Especially a country mother. And this one was "always tired." But Kruschen ended all that—now she gets up, feeling fresh, at five o'clock in the morning! She writes: "I find Kruschen Salts the best thing money can buy for my health. I am the mother of five children, and before taking Kruschen I was always feeling tired and run down, not feeling fresh—and I get up at five o'clock in the morning. I do my housework, look after my children, and leave the house at 6:30 to start my daily work."—(Mrs. B.)

Tiredness and that run-down feeling can be traced to one root cause. That cause is internal sluggishness, failure to keep the inside free from poisonous waste matter. Kruschen Salts is an excellent recipe for maintaining a condition of internal cleanliness. The numerous salts in Kruschen stimulate your internal organs to smooth, regular action. Your inside is thus kept clear of those impurities which, when allowed to accumulate, lower the whole tone of the system.

DISPOSSESSED

 Mr. Bentley declared, "I say this is utterly absurd on the part of those in authority. It must be redressed and the quicker the better for everybody."

Senator Sinclair

Senator John Sinclair told the meeting that he believed "many of the troubles were magnified and could be ironed out," if they went about it properly. So far as the right of appeal to the courts was concerned there was a wide variety of cases. Here it was simply a matter of dollars and cents. If the right of appeal was denied in some other matter it would be a different thing.

He had never read the National Park Act of this Province but it had been on the statute books for a year and a half and just lately was the first time anything had been said about it.

Referring to the amounts offered for the properties the Senator said he felt there were many people in the vicinity of Kensington that would be only too glad to sell 20 acres from the back of their farms for $50 per acre.

Mr. Jeremiah Simpson of Cavendish, one of the property owners involved in the Park area, declared that the 20 acres taken from him were not from the back of his farm, but were really the best part of his land. He was offered $1000 for it and would rather keep it than take $3,000 if he had the choice.

Mrs. Alan Wyand, Cavendish, told the meeting that her tourist business was only starting to give returns after nine years of hard work. It wasn't only the property that was being taken but her business and her living. The privilege of moving the cottages meant nothing for there was no place to move them. The government offered her $1935 for the property for which she borrowed $2000 to start.

The Provincial Government had told her "we'll push you back and maybe help you standardize the business" and when she told that to Mr. Cautley of the National Park he said, "they have nothing whatever to do with it, the Park is the property of the Dominion Government."

They do permit businesses to operate in the Park area if they came up to a certain standard, Senator Sinclair said.

Mrs. Wyand replied that when early this summer they started to build an additional cottage, Mr. Cautley stopped them and said, "so far as we are concerned you're closed now."

What Mr. Cautley had done on that occasion was bad judgment on the part of an official, Senator Sinclair said, and he had been recalled from this area.
