IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Pte. Albert George Campbell, Cape Traverse, who was killed in action June the 22nd, 1916.
Servant of God well done;
Thy glorious warfare's past,
The battle's fought, the victory won,
And thou art crowned at last.
—Father and Mother, 5062

In loving memory of William Wallace MacIntyre of Charlottetown, who died of wounds received in action on June 6th, 1918, on the Somme.
More home-like seems the vast unknown,
Since they have entered there;
To follow them were not so hard,
Whenever they may fare;
They cannot be where God is not,
On any sea or shore,
Whatever befalls, Thy love abides,
Our God forever more. 5062

PETROGRAD WINE CELLARS

The Imperial wine cellars under the Winter Palace at Petrograd have been sacked, and nothing remains of what was the largest and finest collection in the world of the very best wines of the choicest growths of the most famous years. A great deal has been quietly stolen during the last six months by enterprising patriots, and in the end the soldiers on guard obtained possession of the cellars, and were joined by a huge mob recruited from the dregs of the populace. Tens of thousands of bottles were destroyed, and the floors of the immense cellars were knee-deep in liquor, the end of the orgies being that muddy water from the Neva was pumped into the cellars, after which the mixture of wine and water was pumped back into the river. Thousands of bottles were fired upon to facilitate the destruction. Numbers of the rioters are reported to have been drowned, as they were lying dead drunk on the floors of the cellars in heaps—London Truth.

Commodore Ledyard No. 34709

ENROLLMENT No. 11

Will make the season 1918 at the owner's stable Montague, Terms:—Five dollars a time of first service and ten dollars additional when mare proves in foal. Commodore Ledyard foaled in 1901 was sired by Admiral Dewey the son of Elmer and Nancy Hank's Commodore's dam was Lady Eberly by Jackson Henck. It will be seen that to horse stands higher in point of breeding. As a sire, he stands without peer in the Maritime Provinces. In fact he has produced more race horses than all the other stallions combined standing for service today on P. E. Island. He is the sire of Bob Mac, 2174, Hilda S, 16, Oran, 2174, 219, Jean Girl 2174, Rocklight 2174, and 19 others in the 230 list, besides a host of others that have trotted in better time than standard time but were successful in having their time suppressed. Commodore is now 17 years old and was never in such good condition as at the present time. He is at the age at which all great sires have transmitted their great number of trotters, as it is an unquestionable fact that our great sire beget more speed between 15 years and 22 years than they do before that age. Anyone owning a likely mare that wishes to get a colt with speed or a superb driver will run less risk of failure by breeding to Commodore than in using those unproved sires that owe their reputation to their owner's ability as boosters.

B. McLeod at noon, back to Eldon same day, Wednesday to Henry Errenick, Louis, Lot 69 over night, Thursday noon at A. D. Martin, Grand View, Thursday night to A. F. Bruce's, Valleyfield, Friday at Samuel Martin's, Ulge, Friday night to Callum Bruce's, Vernon River, returning to Charlottetown by way of 48. This route will be continued every two weeks during the season. Dunholm is a Bay Stallion weighing 1125 lbs. in racing condition is a beautiful mannered horse, any woman can drive him, but Hammond Kelly can drive him faster. When he drove him at Summerside last year he won the free-for-all trot and pace setting a new track record for Summerside of 2.17 1/4. Dunholm started last season in 13 races, winning 5 first prizes and only for an accident at an Annan track in which he cut him self in the front foot would have ended the season unbeaten.

REFUGEES BLOCK FRENCH ROADS

Streams of Fleeing Humanity Made a Pitiful Spectacle—Hundreds of Women and Children Forced from their Homes by German Invasion

WITH THE FRENCH ARMIES IN THE FIELD, June 2.—From every point of the sixty mile battle front between Rheims and Soissons streams of refugees today poured down roads leading to Central France. Seeing the Hun invasion. Late last night when I returned from the fighting line where the homes of these people are being snuffed, the highways were bordered with the bivouacs of fugitives.
For miles upon miles the rolling countryside was all aflicker with camp fires of the refugees on their weary march to God knows where. They hurried for rest wherever night found them, sleeping beneath vehicles, the lucky ones who had thought to bring a little food cooking and eating it under the stars. The streams of fleeing humanity made a pitiful spectacle. Each road seemed to have its own particular caravan and the whole scene resembled the exodus of the children of Israel from Egypt as it is described in the Bible.

Women and Babies

Every conceivable vehicle was in use, from huge two wheeled French farm wagons hauled by oxen to baby carriages. These ox carts are capable of transporting the effects of an entire household. On top of the piles of goods on some of these wagons I saw groups of old women sitting with babies among them, some of the children clutching pet goats and chickens to their breasts. In the farm lorries, we saw buggies, decrepit cabs, smart traps and dog carts, even automobiles and between them and flanking them passed the less fortunate families who had to march on foot, carrying their sole possessions in wheelbarrows and baby carriages and hand carts and

PALE, DELICATE GIRLS

Does your daughter inherit a delicate organization from you? The anaemia of young girls may be inherited, or it may be caused by bad air, unwholesome food, hasty and irregular eating, insufficient out-of-door exercise and not enough rest and sleep.
It comes on gradually beginning with languor, indisposition to mental or bodily exertion, irritability and a feeling of fatigue. Later comes palpitation of the heart, headache, dizziness following a stooping position, frequent headaches, and breathlessness.
In a majority of cases constipation is present. There may be no great loss of flesh but usually the complexion takes on a greenish-yellow pallor.
Cases of this kind if neglected, become serious, but if taken in time there is no need to worry. The treatment is quite easy and simple. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills which are free from any harmful or habit-forming drug are just the tonic needed to remedy this wretched state of health. Though it is not noticeable, improvement actually begins with the first dose. As the blood is made rich and red the pallor leaves the face, strength and activity gradually return and if the treatment is continued until the last symptom disappears the danger of a relapse is very slight.
If any symptom of anaemia appears, pink Pills should be given at once, and the sooner they are taken the more speedily will the trouble be overcome. You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

PRACTICAL DAILY GUIDE FOR VACANT BACKYARD GARDENERS ENLISTED IN GREATER PRODUCTION CAMPAIGN.

issued by the Canada Food Board in collaboration with experts on the staff of the Dominion Experimental Farm.

CREEPING VEGETABLES.

The creeping vegetables, such as squash, cucumbers, peppers and pumpkins are all tender and should not be planted until all danger of frost is over. They require warmth and sunshine and are useful to fill up blanks in the garden, although they have a tendency to take up a lot of space. They should be protected at night for two or three weeks after being set out.
A forkful of well-rotted manure worked into the soil under each hill will help greatly where cucumbers are concerned. Place hills three feet apart with rows 3 or 4 feet apart.
Plant ten or twelve seeds in each place and thin when the plants are well started. If beetles appear, dust with fine street dust to which a very little kerosene has been added.
Eighteen inches should be allowed between each pepper plant. Egg plants are set out with two feet between each. Three or four plants will supply a family of six.

ROYAL YEAST

there were some folks still poorer whose only possessions were what they were able to carry on their backs. Sometimes the luggage which these wanderers bore on their shoulders was topped off by a sick baby and firmly to the bundle of household effects, intermingled with the human caravan were herds of oxen, horses, sheep, goats and cattle.

Saving the Stock

Here and there little girls drove flocks of sheep before them, older, berbered chickens and pigs, poking them with long sticks to bustle them along, sometimes stopping a moment to glance back at the familiar scenes that were being left behind, then hurrying on to give the family live stock another urge on its way. The peasants walked behind their single cow. Those who had had once fairly well to do rode behind dozens of cows but all were homeless and few had any particular goal in sight.
As mile after mile of the endless column trudged past we scanned their faces and saw that there were no young men among them all. The faces were those of women, girls, children and very old men showing that every Frenchman who can fight is at the front. Where all these who were forced from their homes at a few minutes notice are going God alone knows. Few of the refugees had any particular haven in view.

Church Union off the List

One thing is sure, there will be no church union squabble. This will be the very distinguishing thing about this assembly. Church Union talk which has been canvassed and criticized, expounded and denounced in the Presbyterian assembly. For half a generation it has been the apple of discord and despite its age, it has never been a dried apple. This year it will be a canned apple, but of course, "hines are canned" for future use, and what the war is over the can of church union will be opened.

College Combination

Another thing is fairly sure of settlement, and that is the Theological College question. The Presbyterian Church has eight colleges for training men for the ministry. Some men think that there are seven too many for these days, and a professor in Knox College, writing in the newspaper of the church this week, argues for a combination of these eight colleges into one strong college at Montreal. Assembly will be asked to deal with his solution and with less radical solutions in view of the scarcity of students. This present scarcity of men for the ministry is, of course, due to the war. Theological students, like sons of ministers, have made a deep impression on the country by volunteering for overseas service. The colleges are empty, not through conscription, but by the choice of the students.

Few Students

The highest number of students studying for the Presbyterian ministry in any year was 260, in 1900. The next highest was 230 in 1902. After that it never got higher than 224. This was in 1914. In 1916 there were only 117, and last session it dropped to about 100 in the eight colleges. As the cost of the colleges approximates $100,000 a year, the need for some retrenching plan is plain.

"BUSINESS" FOR ASSEMBLY

LONDON, Ont., June 3.—Some forecasts of the program of the Assembly which meets here June 5, hint at the likelihood of there being more scrapping between urban and rural ecclesiastics for the moderatorship. There is not one chance in a hundred that anything of the sort will take place.
Anyway, the commissioners of the city and country churches alike are said to favor Mr. John Kay Macdonald, the lay nominee for the chair.
Mr. Macdonald has no competitor for the position in respect of his unique fitness, and in all probability when he is nominated the others will ask to have their names withdrawn out of courtesy to his age, respect for his ability and gratitude for his long service in connection with the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund, which he has superintended gratuitously for many years. It was predicted today by a local supporter.
No one can say what big, small or medium issues shall engage the minds of men. The work of the Presbyterian Church is so complex, and the desires of its people to help are so varied and so many, that, as a rule the assembly is a week of surprises. Much depends upon the personnel of the assembly. Given certain men present and charged with leading and what they promote is sure to be the big thing. Given others, other things will bulk most largely.

"JUST ASLEEPIN"

Sweet my baby just asleepin'
Close your little eyes so bright,
Whilst the winds are crooning softly,
Thro' the signing leaves of night.

Dear, their little good night whispers
Sighing softly sweet and low
Oh to slumberland you're drifting
Rising falling off you go.

Sweet my baby, soft asleepin'
Pink little toes are peepin' out
One little hand is clutch'd so tightly
Bright little curls are toss'd about.

Rose-bud lips are slightly parted
Two little pearls just show
One little tear-drop bright is glistenin'
There on the curling lashes low.

Then my baby just asleepin'
Rox in his little sleep,
As peeps a moon beam, thro' the curtain,
Caressing coverlet, and dimpled cheek

Then awakened, O awakened,
My bonny babe, a man!
Just so good; so brave, so handsome,
Just my baby, but a man.

Then came the day of suspense and yearnin'
Mother, he wrote, I'm doing fine,
We're filling the gap the Huns have made
We're holding firm the line.

I was filled with pride and hopin'
As again my baby there
Write back, don't fret, dear mother,
I'll come back,
Or I'll hold the line up there.

Now my old eyes seem always wet,
And my heart it always achin'
To hear the voice, and old time step
The old day hopin' and the waitin'.

Ah! Over there, He's just asleepin'
Where the crosses stand row in row,
And the moon reveals the story
In the fields where poppies grow.

Sweet the earth, when peace comes stealing
When blasting winds are lulled asleep
Know that somewhere in the shadows
Angels guard your baby's sleep.

"BY THE WAY-SIDE"

I stand alone wind-tossed about
Sighing by grasses that bend only out
Alone! no one chooses or caresses me
here
For the blossomed moss is far more dear.

In the lives of men, I'm but a blight
a weed,
I'm not chosen for the world's great need,
The blossomed mass, are the gems of the night,
And their sweet white purity, the gems of light.

They trample me under their feet as they pass,
So I'm wearied and worn, with their faults again,
And fall like a rag in the tears of rain.

I'm of little use in this world of night
I'm but a daisy, to make its dark ways bright,
My petals are narrow, not fragrant or bright,
And I do not sparkle in the gloom of night.

So I stand apart, sore tossed about,
I nod in silence, as the children shout,
But I'm a part of God's great plan,
So I'll blossom and smile, and do the best that I can.

Soon my petals will wither and fade away,
The seeds to fall in the thorns by the way,
But perhaps from my tomb, some blossoms may grow,
The thorns may be roses, brighter to do more.

MARY I. S. YEO
