R. E. Palmer, son of the late Charles Palmer, arrived on the express last evening from Rio Tinto, South Africa, on a visit to his home in this city after an absence of ten years.

The following passengers arrived in this city on the S. S. Halifax last evening:—Mrs. E. Gillis, W. Gillis, S. Gillis, G. L. Merrill, H. Proctor, E. W. Braden, R. C. Paradis, H. Laralle, A. J. Orr, W. S. Russell, N. McLaren, M. F. Clark, M. Leach, C. MacAree, Mrs. M. J. Berrins, Miss F. Berrins, Miss G. Berrins, Miss B. McElvenny, D. McKinnon, B. M. Whiting, Miss E. Gordon, C. Buttman and wife, D. M. Hall, J. P. Douglas, Miss M. Perry, Miss G. Perry, Miss L. McDonald, Mrs. P. LeClair.

The death took place at his home in Centreville yesterday morning of Capt. Lewis Leard, one of the most respected residents of that place, aged 78 years, after an illness of about two weeks. He leaves to mourn a wife, three sons, Hiram in Newcastle, N.B.; Albert in Chelton, Colin at home and five daughters, Annie in the United States, Jennie in Northam, Edith, Elizabeth and Margaret at home; also two brothers with Charles at Fernwood and W. A. at Summerside, and two sisters, Elizabeth Bell of Centreville and Margaret Mary Wright, North Bedouque. The funeral takes place tomorrow at 2 p. m. from his late residence to the Scarietown Methodist Cemetery.

A noticeable addition to the residential section of Charlottetown is "Portree Cottage," St. Avars. It is built on a slightly elevated ground and stands picturesquely in the centre of a generous lot of land. This cottage is owned by A. S. McLeod of Montague. Mr. McLeod and family intend taking possession about October 1st. The contractors were Messrs. McPherson and Bradley, and to this firm deserves the credit of a capably completed contract. The house is twenty-four by thirty-six feet with verandah and bay windows. The living room, hall and parlor are finished in hardwood, the dining room and kitchen in clear hemlock.

During the past two months there have been in this city two ladies representing one of the most educative and valuable works extant. These ladies are Misses Wilson and Wickens of Washington, D. C., and they certainly have proved marvellous workers in the mission of introducing a series of lectures, which include the wide world—and the author of which, John L. Stoddard, is known everywhere through his lectures and writings. It is learned that these ladies have about concluded their stay here, as they intend leaving for Baltimore next week. The opportunity to own a work which is an education of itself is fast drawing to a close. Those wishing to possess volumes of intrinsic literary value will find either of the representatives at 70 Great George Street, and make an appointment for them through Telephone 20—L.

ARENA Bowling Alleys open to-day 10 a.m. to 11 p.m. 9-274tt.

Advance notice. I have a number of choice registered mares, fillies and foals booked for sale by auction at the Exhibition grounds on Thursday, the 22nd instant. Any further entries will be sold in order as booked. Ad. later. R. Beairsto, Auctioneer. 9-134tt.

The Misses Dimock, daughters of R. V. Dimock, Halifax, came to the city last evening on the Northumberland on a visit with friends in this city.

The parishioners of Rustico held a delightful picnic at that place yesterday afternoon in aid of their fine convent. Several parties were present from this city.

Thos Campbell, City, has returned from Toronto and Montreal where he attended the Canadian Exhibition and the Eucharistic Congress, and was not in St. John as stated.

York Methodist Church will be reopened Sept 25th after having been painted and papered in the most up-to-date style by Messrs Howatt & Son, City. Dr Hartz will officiate at the morning service and Rev Wm Harrison in the evening. Collections will be taken up to defray expenses.

A quiet wedding took place on Wednesday morning, Sept. 7th, at the home of George Cameron, Union Street, Westville, N. S., when his sister, Isabel Morrison and Heath Bradley Crosby of Bonshaw, P. E. Island, were united in marriage by the Rev. C. J. Crowdis, of Durham. The bride was becomingly dressed in a navy blue travelling suit. After refreshments were served Mr. and Mrs. Crosby left on the 7.20 train for Toronto, Niagara Falls and other places on interest. On their return they will reside at Bonshaw Mills, P. E. Island.—Com.

The Halifax Herald of yesterday said:—Three days from today and the delegates to the second annual convention of the Canadian Brotherhood of railroad employees will leave their destinations for "The Garden of the Gull," Charlottetown, P. E. I., where three days later the convention will open and continue until the business is completed. ARRESTED WRONG MAN.

ST. THOMAS, Sept. 12—In compliance with the request of Dr. English of the Hamilton Asylum, Sergt. Ketchum and High Constable Hopkins early on Saturday morning made a hurried trip to George Johnston's farm, near Clearville, and arrested a man suspected of being Robert F. Taggart, the escaped insane wife-murderer. The prisoner was brought to the city, but Dr. Webster, of the asylum staff, declared him not the man wanted. The man was George Phillips, whose home is in Woodstock, and who formerly taught school and conducted a paper in Hagersville. He had been working on Mr. Johnston's farm only a few days, and Mr. Johnston grew suspicious of him.
