Mr. Hall is in the Consular Service since 1902 and is a very reliable and thorough business man. On account of Mr. Shirley's time being mostly taken up with the Car Wheel it is impossible for him to remain in the Consular service any longer, which is the reason for his retirement.
The week's vaudeville at Wonderland is certainly exceptionally good. Hebert, Goldie and Hebert are artists of no mean ability and whatever musical instrument comes to their hands is a means of producing melodies which are the son of harmony. The element of comedy which runs through their act keeps the fun going with a vim which is infectious, and the work throughout of these triple artists is good. That means so much more than it seems at first thought that it is worth while going to see how much more they get than just the standard. They change their act tonight, so those who have not seen it miss much. Lottie McKinnon as the illustrated song singer of the week is a worthy attraction to the most popular houses of amusement in the City, and the bill there for the remainder of the week is one of such exceptional excellence that it is certainly hard to equal.
Any person interested in a nice piece of Cabinet Making and upholstering done in this city should look in the east window of Mark Wright Furnishing Co. Sunnyside, and they will find there among other things, two literary Ladders which are both ladders and armchairs combined. These chairs have just come out of Mark Wright Furnishing Co's, repair shop, are of Solid Quartered Oak, and were made by John Hobbs. The Upholstering which consists of a very unique folding cushion covered in a nice imitation leather, is the work of Wm. Teed, the firm's expert upholsterer. If any person has any doubt as to whether they can get upholstering, or a plain piece of Cabinet Making, or repairs done in Charlottetown their doubts will vanish at once upon examining these goods. They are certainly a credit to the men who made them, and at the same time, show how up-to-date the firm is in being able to manufacture such articles.

That something should be done to improve the present condition of affairs is the general opinion.

In the Dominion House of Commons Tuesday, Mr. Hughes, of P. E. I., read an article appearing in the Halifax Herald, in which his views in regard to railway men and labor generally were misrepresented. The article, he believes, was based on a conversation he had on a train with an individual who said he was "organizer of labor from the other side." During their talk, Mr. Hughes had disagreed with the man's views as to the hours of railway men, and had also expressed the opinion that legislation should be passed to prevent American labor agitators coming into Canada, and stirring up trouble. Thereupon the man had made the threat that he would see to it that labor people know where Mr. Hughes stood on the question. Mr. Hughes supposed that the story in the Herald was his method of carrying out the threat.

Entered into rest, at Birmingham, England, on April 16th, 1908, after a short illness from acute bronchitis, Julia Arthur, relict of the late Matthew W. W. Smith, aged fifty years. The deceased was a person of estimable character and possessed a quiet and harmonious nature. Filled with the blessed assurance that Jesus was the Savior, her faith and hope was steadfast in Him—the Rock of Ages. Death claimed her husband in August 1893, leaving upon her care a family of four young boys, three of whom emigrated to this Province in 1895; the eldest, who remained with his mother, was called away in April, 1897. Early in life she became a member of the Church of England, and did diligently endeavor to train her family according to Scriptural injunction. She leaves to mourn, three sons—Jno. W. H., resident at Rossburg, P. E. Island, George and Peter A., situated in Boston, U.S.A., to whom, many friends extend their sincere sympathy, and commend them to the Father of Mercies and the God of all comfort in their sorrow and bereavement.
Mourning for her whom God hath blest
And taken to her heavenly rest.
Freed from all sorrow, grief and pain
Our loss is her eternal gain.—Com.

S. F. Tarbush of this City, who has been out of town for some days on a business trip was robbed on Tuesday night while driving on the road between Murray Harbor and Murray River. It appears that Mr. Tarbush, who is proprietor of a picture store in this City, was on a collecting tour. He had been apprehensive that he was being followed by two men, and as if to confirm his suspicion, he was halted on Tuesday about 9 p. m. by two men at Brian's Hollow, near the railway. They asked him to take him in the wagon and give them a lift along the road. He consented and when they had got into the wagon they wanted him to take a drink. All who are acquainted with Mr. Tarbush's well-known temperance sentiments will not be surprised to learn that this invitation was declined. Very shortly after this they betrayed themselves in their true character. They stopped the team pulled Mr. Tarbush from the wagon and proceeded to rob him. They took from his pockets something over eighty dollars from the proceeds of his collecting on the tour and not content with that they also robbed him of his gold watch and threw him down in the muddy road. After that they ran away. Mr. Tarbush is not certain whether or not he would know the robbers again if they were not disguised but it was dark and not easy to recognize the features of the assailants.

Early in life she became a member of the Church of England, and did diligently endeavor to train her family according to Scriptural injunction. She leaves to mourn, three sons—Jno. W. H., resident at Rossburg, P. E. Island, George and Peter A., situated in Boston, U.S.A., to whom, many friends extend their sincere sympathy, and commend them to the Father of Mercies and the God of all comfort in their sorrow and bereavement.
Mourning for her whom God hath blest
And taken to her heavenly rest.
Freed from all sorrow, grief and pain
Our loss is her eternal gain.—Com.

S. F. Tarbush of this City, who has been out of town for some days on a business trip was robbed on Tuesday night while driving on the road between Murray Harbor and Murray River. It appears that Mr. Tarbush, who is proprietor of a picture store in this City, was on a collecting tour. He had been apprehensive that he was being followed by two men, and as if to confirm his suspicion, he was halted on Tuesday about 9 p. m. by two men at Brian's Hollow, near the railway. They asked him to take him in the wagon and give them a lift along the road. He consented and when they had got into the wagon they wanted him to take a drink. All who are acquainted with Mr. Tarbush's well-known temperance sentiments will not be surprised to learn that this invitation was declined. Very shortly after this they betrayed themselves in their true character. They stopped the team pulled Mr. Tarbush from the wagon and proceeded to rob him. They took from his pockets something over eighty dollars from the proceeds of his collecting on the tour and not content with that they also robbed him of his gold watch and threw him down in the muddy road. After that they ran away. Mr. Tarbush is not certain whether or not he would know the robbers again if they were not disguised but it was dark and not easy to recognize the features of the assailants.

Stipendiary Inman at Montague yesterday delivered judgment in the prohibition cases tried before him last week at Murray River. Angus M. Ross, and J. W. Carruthers, druggists were each fined $20 and costs for not keeping a proper register. The cases against Ross for illegally selling liquor and against the doctors were adjourned for one week. Milton Reynolds charged with disturbing a meeting in Albion Hall was dismissed. George Hicken charged with the same offence was fined $1 and costs.

In the show case of J. A. S. Bayer's photo Studio, Sunnyside, can be seen a very fine photo group including the members of the Abegweit Football team of this City together with Geo. J. Rogers, hon. President, and L. B. McMillan, Sec'y of the Abegweit A. A. Club. The group is tastefully arranged in the form of a large A. with hon. President Rogers and Secy McMillan in the top corners. The picture is attracting a good deal of attention and admiration.
