The old town had a narrow escape from being wiped out.

ARE ADVERSE TO ORGANIZED LABOR

The Boycott Held To Be A Combination To Restrict Trade

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8—The third time within a month the supreme court of the United States promulgated an opinion construing laws adversely to the contentions of organized labor.

The first of the decisions was rendered on January 6th in the case of some railway employes who sought to secure damages under what is known as "the employers' liability law" making railroads responsible for injuries resulting from the negligence of fellow servants, which law the court held to be unconstitutional.

The second important finding in this line was announced on the 23rd ultimo, when the Erdman arbitration act, forbidding the discharge of employes because they are members of labor unions was also declared to be invalid.

THE CZAR HAS TO PAY DOWN

Devlopments Regarding Canadian Suit By Russia in Winnipeg

WINNIPEG, February 8. — The suit entered in the Manitoba law courts by Messrs. Morice and O'Conner, barristers, acting for his majesty the Czar of Russia, to secure funds to the extent of $160,000 alleged to have been stolen by Iran Proskouriakoff, a former steward of the empire, promises to develop into an interesting legal battle.

E. R. Levinson, formerly assistant city solicitor, has received instructions to act for the defendant in the matter.

He filed an order on the czar to give security of two hundred dollars for his clients' cost of the action according to the statute which provides for same in the event of the plaintiff residing outside the jurisdiction of the court. In default of such security the action will be dismissed.

It is learned this morning that the ex-steward is a man about forty years of age, and that Madam Anna Zeman, who accompanied him to Winnipeg from Russia, is a young and beautiful girl of twenty-three, whose father is a nobleman in the czar's domains. They are not married, and it is said the story of their elopement is quite romantic. Since their sudden disappearance from Russia no expense has been spared, it is said, to trace them, and detectives have been on their tracks for months.

CHINESE NEW YEAR JOLLITY

MONTREAL, Feb. 6.—Saturday night and Sunday Chinatown in Montreal was making merry, for the Chinese New Year had begun, and was ushered in with the customary feasting, prayers and rejoicing.

The well known jost house on Lagauchetiare Street had been specially renovated for the occasion, and the joss was resplendent in fine colors.

Ancestor worship was unusually fervent, and there were large crowds all night, offering up prayers to their ancestors and appealing to the joss for his blessing on the New Year. Lantern bright colors, picturesque genuflections and ceremonies, combined with feasting and the change of a considerable sum of money in the shape of debts paid, made up a lively night formost of Chinatown.

The Christian Chinese met in the little mission house on Lagauchetiere Street, where a feast was held, with music and addresses. Yesterday every Chinaman in town visited every other Chinaman, and presents were exchanged for the little ones to expensive silks and costly lacquer work for the older folk. And the usual fowl supper brought a busy day to a close.

SR HARRY MACLEAN REACHES TANGIER

TANGIER, Feb. 7—Caid Sir Harry MacLean, commander of the Sultan's bodyguard and next to the Sultan, the most influential man in Morocco, has arrived here under bondage for the past seven months. He was brought here in accordance with an agreement which the British government finally succeeded in making with Raisuli for his release, in return for which Great Britain will pay one hundred thousand dollars to Raisuli and guarantee him protection and immunity from arrest.

The capture of Caid MacLean was carefully planned. He went out to meet Raisuli alone and against the advice of his companion, to persuade the bandit chief to resume a simple mode of life and to obey the laws of the country. Later Raisuli announced the captain of the Sulatn's bodyguard had been captured in a letter to the Sultan. The terms included a payment of a large indemnity and his re-appointment to the governorship of Tangier and to higher offices. Subsequently the British government took the negotiations upon its own shoulders, finally succeeding in bringing Raisuli to terms.

ARRESTED ON A VILE CHARGE

Richard Grey, Of New Brunswick Brought Before A Police Magistrate

WOODSTOCK, N. B.--(Special)--Richard Grey, of Knoxford, who was arrested on Saturday last for a serious crime, was brought before the police magistrate yesterday morning, charged with murder and was remanded until Thursday.

The prisoner is a man of perhaps forty-five years of age, and is quite a well-to-do farmer.

He has a family of eight children.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE GUARDIAN

Sir:—B. C. Prowse, in a long letter to the Patriot and Examiner newspapers on Saturday last attempts to prove his false and slanderous statement made at the meeting in the Market Hall, that I had been paid $100 in the year 1878 for my services as chairman of the street committee for that year, and that that was the only time a chairman of a street committee had been paid for his services.

I characterized his statement then as untrue, and told him if he would prove it true I would resign from the Mayoralty contest. I now again characterize his statement as being false, and he must have known it to have been false when he made it. I never in my life received one cent for my services as chairman of the street committee, or as a chairman or member of any committee, and when Mr. Prowse spent days in hunting up the City Reports for the past thirty yegrs to obtain something to base a charge against me on, the least he should have done was to have stated the truth. It was mean enough, even if it was true, to have gone back such a long time, to obtain something to bring against me, but it was inexpressibly mean and base after going to the trouble of searching the records for a generation, to misquote and falsify these records.

In the very reports that he was quoting from, namely the reports of the accounts of the City of Charlottetown for the year 1878, at page 15 is the following:—

"April 17, 1878, C. F. Harris, allowance as chairman street committee, $100."

At that time although the accounts were made up from January to January the City elections were held in the month of August of each year, and the committees appointed held office from the month of August when the elections took place till the August of the following year. C. F. Harris was chairman of the street committee from August 1877 to August 1878, and on April 1878 he was paid $100 for his services as chairman, as per resolution quoted by Mr. Prowse, and carried six to one on division. This resolution was moved by Councillor Byrne and seconded by Councillor Heartz. It seems I was chairman of the street committee the following year, from August 1878 to August 1879, but I never received one dollar for my services. Mr. Heartz was not a member of the City Council in that year, as theCity Report that Mr. Prowse quoted from shows, and could not therefore have seconded a resolution to pay the chairman of the street committee for that year anything for his services. He was a City Councillor the year before, and seconded the motion to pay C. F. Harris the $100 for his services.

Bring along something more reliable, Mr. Prowse. I can scarcely expect an apology, although one is clearly due me.

Yours truly,
SIMON W. CRABBE.

KING CARLOS LEFT NO MONEY

His Insurance Policies Were Pledges For Payment For Advances Made Him

LISBON, Feb. 8—(Special)—King Carlos died a poor man.

His entire fortune consisted of insurance policies held by the king of Portugal as securities for advances made.

After these repayments have been made it is declared there will not remain more than thirty thousand dollars to be divided among the heirs of the King.

Senor Machade, the leader of the Republican party, in an interview today indignantly denies that there was any connection between his party and the assassination which he deeply regretted.

A TRAIN WRECK IN ONTARIO

Fast Train Ran Off Track But No One Seriously Hurt

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 9—[Special]—A railway wreck occurred this morning about eleven o'clock two miles east of Delhi.

No. 1 fast Webash Flyer, running between Detroit and Buffalo, ran off the track owing to broken rail.

All five coaches went into the ditch and the last two Pullmans turned over and rolled down the embankment. An auxiliary from St. Thomas was hurried to the wreck and had the track cleared for traffic about 5 o'clock.

Several passengers were hurt but not seriously.

RAN A THEATRE THEN RAN AWAY

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 9—(Special)—Detective Campbell left Hamilton today for Halifax to bring back C. W. Swift, theatrical manager, to stand trial for the alleged theft of four hundred dollars from the Bennett Theatre Co.

Swift had charge of the Unique Theatre in both Hamilton and Halifax, and shortage is alleged to have been discovered in his accounts.

QUEEN AMELIE UPBRAIDS FRANCO

SAN SEBASTIAN, Spain, Feb. 8—The newspaper Voz De Guipuzcoa prints a despatch from Lisbon to the effect that when Franco put himsef before the Queen after the assassination, she cried: "It is you alone who are cause of all that has happened and I dare not trust myself to speak to you." She turned her back on him, unheeding the justification he sought to offer.

CHALLENGE WAS NOT DECLINED

OXFORD., Eng., Feb. 8—The report that the Oxford University Athletic Club has declined the challenge sent by the American Intercollegiate Athletic Association for an International track and field athletic meeting between teams representing the universities of the United States and Great Britain at the Olympic games in 1908, is not true. The question of acceptance of the challenge has not yet been received. A meeting will be held to consider the question.

It is believed the challenge of the Americans will be declined, owing to the difficulty that will be experienced in selecting a suitable team, and the fact that the athletes of Oxford and Cambridge end their training by Easter, and it will be difficult for them to keep it up until July, the time of the Olympic meet.

DRUCE CASE IS DISMISSED

Master in Chancery Decides Favor of Present Holder of Title

LONDON. Feb. 5—Almost the last prop was knocked from underneath the Druce myth yesterday when the Master in Chancery dismissed G. H. Druce's suit for the possession of the estate of the late Duke of Portland.

The attorney for Druce appealed the case and the appeal was allowed.

PASSING THE NATAL ACT

Unless Imperial Government Protest The Action of the B. C. Legislature Dominion Won't Meddle.

OTTAWA Feb. 9 (Special)---Unless strong objection is taken by the Imperial Government to the Natal act as just passed by the British Columbia Legislature, it is unlikely that the Dominion government will interfere in any way to bring about disallowance of the bill

The present bill differs from the one disallowed last year by Lieut. Governor Dunsmuir in that it expressly does not affect immigrants from any countries covered by legislation of the federal government.

Thus Japanese immigrants do not come within the purview of the bill, which will apply only to Hindoos and other Asiatics.

However the Imperial government may have objections to the action of Canada in prohibiting entirely the immigration of Hindoos.

THE PUZZLE OF INDIAN NAMES

LONDON, Feb. 8—The unusually full telegrams from India recently have furnished several examples of that perpetual puzzle the proper use of Indian names. Both the home and the Anglo-Indian press are apt to stumble, and to an Indian reader their mistakes must be amusing. As a rule, the blunders occur in reference to Parsee or Bengali names. Roughly speaking, every Bengali man has three names. The first is his given name, the second is conventional or honorific, the third is the patronymic, analogous to an Irish or Scottish clan-name.

For example, Dr. Rash Behari Ghose (who should have been president of this year's National Congress,) Mr. Romesh Chandra Dutt (the historian and ex-civil servant), Bepin Chandra Pal (the well known agitator). In each case the important names are the first and third; the second cannot be used without the first, though in certain forms of address the third is omitted. Thus, while it is permissible to speak to Dr. Rash Behari, Reuter is quite wrong with his 'Dr. Behari Ghose.' Similarly, the 'Times' should not speak of 'Mr. Chandra Pal,' nor the 'Morning Post' of Babu Benerjea' We may say 'Bepin Babu' or 'Mr. Pau,' 'Surendra Babu,' or Mr. Banerjea; but it is safer to give the full names. Parsee names are another matter, and a more intricate one.

FELL ON SCISSORS AND WAS KILLED

OTTAWA, Feb. 8—Adelard Bolduc, of 189 Alena Street, Hull, met his death Saturday evening in Tellier's Hotel, that city, in a singular manner. He had been to the house of a friend to have his hair cut, and for that purpose had taken a pair of scissors with him.

After the operation he placed the scissors in his pocket, points upwards, and then proceeded to the hotel where he had some liquor. Stepping up to the bar, he fell to the floor and made no attempt to rise. Bystanders sought to lift him, when blood was observed to be flowing freely to the floor, saturating his clothing. In falling the scissors had been driven between the ribs and penetrated his heart, and death followed immediately. The coroner, after hearing the facts detailed by several witnesses, decided that an inquest was unnecessary.

JAPS HAVE TO INCREASE TAXES

The Japanese Ministry Pass The Bills By A Good Majority

TOKIO, Feb. 8—After a heated debate lasting five hours, an increase in the taxation bill on sugar, sake, alcohol, beer and kerosene was passed today in the diet. The government had a majority of eighty-four in every case except in that of kerosene, on which the majority vote was twenty-four.

Masahisa Matsuda, acting minister of finance, stated that the increase in taxation was absolutely necessary. In the present financial condition of Japan he believed that the whole people would be willing to pay it.

WOMEN'S RIGHTS IN BRAZIL

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—The curse of Brazil lies in the great illiteracy of its men and women,' declared Edward B. Norris, an Englishman who has been many years a resident of Rio Janeiro.

'According to the official government figures the illiteray is eighty percent. Certainly a country where only one man in five can read and write and only one woman in twenty, has cause to blush at the ignorance of its people. A country of enormous size, yet with a population of anly 16,000,000, Brazil is sadly handicapped by lack of modern enterprise and an enlightened citizenship. One of the most discouraging features of the country is the low esteem in which woman is held. A great many Brazilian girls marry by the time they are twelve years old and are grandmothers long before they are thirty. Woman is regarded as a chattel, and in many household of the republic never opens her mouth except at the bidding of her husband.'

CHANGE OF PICTURES

Change Of Musical Bill Tonight At Fairyland

At "Fairyland" to-night, Miss Homer will give an entire change of program. It was thought, at first, that Saturday night would be her last appearance here, but arrangements have been made by which she is to remain longer on the Island and may probably give a return engagement in Summerside also. Her work last week, has been highly praised and has proved most enjoyable to the large audience that thronged "Fairyland." She possesses a contralto voice of great range and sweetness and, is a clever comedienne as well.

There will be a complete change of moving pictures. The headliner is "The Girl And The Judge." This picture runs a whole reel, and is of absorbing interest from start to finish. The other two entitled "The Little Conjurer" and the "Eleventh Hour" are also of the high standard that has made "Fairyland" famous for its pictorial programs.

A new song by Mr. Maddison will be another feature of a splendid performance.

To-morrow night the vaudeville attraction will be Professor Dodd and his talking dog "Nigger." This is a great act and has drawn big houses on the Mainland. It is sure to make a great hit here as it is the first of the kind to be presented in this city. Professor Dodd comes with the highest recommendations and this feature will be in line with the high class vaudeville that "Fairyland" introduced to Charlottetown.

LE PELLETIERS AT WONDERLAND

In Their Fascinating Playlet On The Cheyenne Trail

Tomorrow evening the engagement will open at Wonderland of Le Pelletiers—Jean and Eugene, presenting in their own inimitable way "On the Cheyenne Trail" a touching and forceful drama by Jack Burnet. Jean Pelletier as "Mayme" is one of the sweetest and most touching characters in any drama staged today, while Eugene as the cowboy is a true depiction of a character strangely made up of contradictions, the redeeming feature in it being his love for the orphan girl who is so strangely part of his life.

The paylet savors strongly of Western life, is replete with the emotional element, and is redolent of the prairies and the free, untrammeled life of the ranches. It is one of the biggest successes of the hour, drawing crowded houses wherever these clever vaudevillist appear. For its production they carry their own special scenery, and the costumes worn are simply magnificent.

A Chicago paper says "Le Pelletiers presented for the first time their new act by Jack Burnet, entitled "On the Cheyenne Trail," for the benefit of Chicago vaudeville agents. Their position on the bill was a difficult one (7th) following four good acts. Notwithstanding all this they were accredited with being the hit of the bill, and were offered considerable time by the agents present."

For a limited engagement only Le Pelletiers are booked for Wonderland, coming here almost direct from St. Louis, having played but one or two stands in the Maritime Provinces. As an attraction as presenting in a way that but few can equal a beautiful story well told; and as artists of first rank they will certainly eclipse any previous vaudeville seen here. It is with the customary readiness and accuracy in choosing and securing ever the best and most select attractions, that Le Pelletiers have been secured for the present engagement, and Wonderland is to be congratulated on the preference shown it by artists of merit.

The remaining program is in the usual space, and the excellent motion pictures; the high class vaudeville; the Orchestra, and Mr. Trainor's exceptionally fine numbers, will make Wonderland the great centre around which all amusements will turn for the coming week.
