Piles All Gone Without Salves or Cutting

ITCHING, bleeding, protruding piles go quickly and don't come back, if you remove the cause. Bad blood circulation in the hemorrhoidal veins causes piles by making the affected parts weak, flabby, almost dead.

Another schoolboy has placed himself far in front of the high jumping brigade and the chances that Jack Portland, tall limber and 18, will develop into as good a performer as Alex Monroe are good.

CANADA'S 1932 OLYMPIC TRACK AND FIELD SPORTS

(By Elmer Dulmage, Canadian Press Sports Writer)

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 24.—Men who pole vault 14 feet, broad jump 25 feet, 6 inches and high jump 6 feet, 6 inches, are going to be champions at the Los Angeles Olympic Games next year.

While the shipbuilding town's prodigy is able to clear 6 feet and a little more, he has not yet established himself as the equal of Monroe, the Toronto star who made a place on the 1928 team.

Canada has two athletes who pole vault 13 feet, two or three broad jumpers who might come close to 24 feet on a good day and one high jumper who clears better than 6 feet consistently.

United States has never failed to turn loose a couple of jumping geniuses around Olympic time just the same as the British Empire has always turned up with a surprising set of world beating runners.

Less than a year before the games, the Dominion's pole vaulters seem to possess more point scoring power than any other jumping set.

As it is, Tom Coulter, ex-Winnicians for Carnegie Tech., at Pittsburgh, and for Montreal A. A. in the summer season, appears to be the best 440 yard hurdle man.

Coulter scored some sensational victories in intercollegiate competition and will try for a place on the Canadian team.

Pickard, lone vaulter on the Canadian squad at Amsterdam in 1928, took fourth place in his event. He was the only member of the field to place. Pickard has cleared 13 feet, 6 inches and a little better.

At his best he is one of the greatest pole vaulters in the world—but not quite the greatest.

Performing for his coach, Capt. J. R. Cornelius recently at Hamilton, Stoddart went over 13 feet—the first time he had jumped into the magic circle. He hasn't done it in competition yet but the black-haired youth who only now is getting proper coaching, looms as a real rival for Pickard and a possible Olympic teammate.

At the conclusion of which he reviewed the course of studies. He strongly emphasized the correct pronunciation of French and urged conversational knowledge of the language.

The afternoon session opened with the reading of a splendid paper on Discipline by Miss Bertha Doyle. Mr. Picketts gave an able demonstration on temperance education.

GEORGETOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lavendier and little son Clarence, who have been visiting Mrs. Lavendier's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph David, left recently for their home in Providence, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. James Condon, accompanied by Misses Helen and Genevieve Solomon, and Janie McKay, recently visited Souris.

Miss Mildred Fraser, Souris, spent the week end in Georgetown, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hughes.

The news of the death of Mrs. J. W. MacPhee, which occurred at the Prince Edward Island Hospital on Tuesday, September 22nd, and were forwarded to Georgetown on Wednesday, will be learned with deep regret.

The late Mrs. MacPhee was 53 years of age, a daughter of Capt. Samuel Hemphill, of Georgetown. She was a woman of intelligence and refinement, gentle in manner, ever kind, sympathetic and sincere.

Her death has been a great shock, not only to the whole community, but to everyone with whom she had been intimately acquainted with in the years gone by.

Her devoted sister, Mrs. Boyce, when hearing of her illness, left her home in Dorchester, Mass., and nursed her tenderly until the last.

Mrs. Boyce's sympathy is extended to her husband and relatives, as well as other friends. Besides her disconsolate husband, there are left to mourn their irreparable loss, one sister, Mrs. Boyce; two half sisters, Mrs. McNeil, in Georgetown, and Mrs. McKean, in Dorchester, Mass.; one half-brother James, in Dorchester, Mass.; her father and step-mother; also one step-son Alex in Boston, Mass. who have the sympathy of the community.

Many beautiful floral tributes and messages of sympathy show the high esteem in which she was held. She was a member of St. David's United Church, Georgetown.—A.

German Super-Babies Sought To produce a race of super-Germans a group of scientists in Berlin are subjecting babies to a new treatment which is expected to increase tissue formation and develop mentally simultaneously.

The scientists say that only one-tenth of the brain of an ordinary person is utilized, and they propose to bring the other nine-tenths into use.

Children are taken from their homes for periods averaging two weeks, and are returned to clinics immediately.

Inspection of the treatment is being carried out by a committee of the League of Nations.

STANDARD BRANDS LIMITED EXPANDING THROUGHOUT DOMINION

New Buildings for Montreal and Halifax Larger Quarters in Edmonton and Saskatoon

Montreal—Corwin Wickersham president of Standard Brands Limited, has recently announced a program of expansion for the company that includes new office buildings in both Montreal and Halifax and new, larger premises in Edmonton and Saskatoon.

He further states that this expansion is a direct result of the steady growth in popularity of all Standard Brands products since the merger of Fleischmann's Yeast, Chase & Sanborn, E. W. Gillett & Co., Limited, and Royal Baking Powder, two years ago.

The new building in Montreal will serve as headquarters in the Montreal District for all Divisions of the company. It will provide increased storage facilities for all products and at the same time permit of the concentration of all activities, other than manufacturing, under one roof.

This new structure completes plans started in Montreal, just over a year ago, when the new, million dollar Fleischmann's Yeast Plant was erected at Ville La Salle.

Similarly in the Maritimes and West, the new, larger quarters being taken over in Halifax, Edmonton and Saskatoon are part of the company's plan to provide improved facilities for the sale and handling of Standard Brands Products in all parts of the Dominion.
