(Special to The Guardian) LONDON, July 4.—Albert, King of Belgium, and Queen Elizabeth arrived in London today for their first visit of state to Great Britain. The royal couple were attended by a numerous suite including Premier H. Carton de Wiart, the Belgian Premier. The royal party drove through cheering crowds to Buckingham Palace where a banquet in honor of the visiting monarch will be given tonight.

"Glorious Fourth" Casualty List Coming in

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 4.—The list of casualties due to celebration of the glorious fourth begin to arrive in despatches received early today, and indications this morning were that the efforts to make the U. S. National holiday safe and sane were not likely to meet with any greater degree of success than in previous years.

German Payment Method Changed

PARIS, July 3.—Payment of 800,000,000 gold marks still owing by Germany as a first slice of her reparations bill can be made in European currencies, according to a decision which has just been taken by the principal allied European countries and approved by the Reparations Commission. This decision, which involves a certain risk for the countries concerned will have, it is expected, the effect of lowering the price of the dollar in the European market, or at least of preventing a rise to the extent that has recently been the case. The arrangement is only experimental and temporary, but if it works successfully it will probably be extended and confirmed.

U. S. Railwaymen Will Accept Wage Cut

CHICAGO, July 4.—Two million railroad workers will bow to the edict of the United States railroad board and accept a twelve per cent wage cut, it was revealed today. Union representatives who have been meeting here for several days to accept or reject the $400,000,000 annual wage slash will issue a statement today agreeing that the membership of their organization will work for less money. According to reliable information, the acceptance of the reduction will be made under protest, however. The powerful unions are expected to tell the public that the cost of living has not decreased to such an extent as to justify a twelve per cent slash. In the same statement which is now being prepared the unions will demand that the working agreement between workers and railroad managers be kept intact.

Bolsheviks Proffer Olive Branch

(Special to The Guardian) CONSTANTINOPLE, July 4.—Soviet Russia has no desire to occupy Constantinople but desires peaceful relations with Turkey as all nations, declared M. Nathaniarow, the new Russian Bolshevik ambassador to Turkey, in presenting his credentials to Mustapha Kemal Pasha, head of the Turkish Nationalist government. Greek Operations Alarm Paris

PARIS, July 4.—The town of Karamanloun, on the south shore of the Gulf of Ismid, about 55 miles in a direct line south east of Constantinople, has been bombarded by a Greek warship. It was announced in advices from Constantinople and the burning of several villages in the region have caused considerable anxiety in French official circles. The probability is indicated that the French government will make a representation to Athens to this effect that military operations around the neutral zone, particularly in the Sea of Marmora, are looked upon with great disfavor in Paris.

Crackers Caused $500,000 Fire

(Special to The Guardian) MARYSVILLE, Cal., July 3.—Small boys shooting of crackers destroyed twelve city blocks east of the centre of Marysville yesterday and burned four spans of a Southern Pacific freight, blocking railroad traffic on the east side of the Sacramento valley for several days. A high wind helped spread the flames. The loss was estimated by the county assessor, Thomas Bevan, at half a million dollars.

Halifax Mystery Solved

(Special to The Guardian) HALIFAX, July 4.—The badly decomposed body of a man found floating in Halifax Harbor yesterday by a boating party, was identified by means of papers in the clothes as that of Reuben Hiltz, a resident of Dartmouth, who mysteriously disappeared on May 11, last. Hiltz's disappearance and the discovery by his wife of a note which read: "I am no use to anybody. You will find by body at Allison Motts," led to expensive and thorough, but vain search, being made for him in the woods and ponds near his home and also in the harbor.

Sang in Pulpit

(Special to The Guardian) MONTREAL, July 4.—An innovation in pulpit etiquette was introduced last night in St. James Methodist Church by a visiting clergyman, Rev. John R. Clifton, of Baltimore, Ireland, who sang a solo standing at the pulpit desk. This solo preceded the address of the Rev. Clifton, who addressed the congregation on the obligation of Canadian citizenship. A special appeal was made to the young men and women of Canada to help rid Canada of the insidious peril of the liquor traffic and the impurities of the gambling mania.

Dempsey Ready to Fight Jess Willard

NEW YORK, July 4.—Jack Dempsey is ready to fight Jess Willard, and Jack Kearns, his manager announced tonight. The champion is going west for a good vacation in a few days and after that, Kearns said, he will be ready to fight anyone who presents himself with proper credentials. Dempsey, happy at his victory, over Carpenter and showing no marks of the encounter, passed as quiet a day yesterday as his friends and fight fans would allow him.

Artists Not Wanted in Farmers Fields

HARTFORD, Conn., July 4.—The howling herds that wind slowly over the lea in the vicinity of Old Lyme, known for many years as an artists' colony, probably will go unrepainted this year because the farmers of that section have posted signs all over their property which say: "No trespassing by artists." Farmers declare they have had quite sufficient of the action of the artists, who plant themselves and their easels wherever they wish, and then throw the cows, browsing about the meadow, come upon the easel and eat them, with extremely distressing results to the cow. Prominent farmers say the signs against trespassing in Old Lyme apply only to artists, and that others who do not bring paints and an easel may wander about the fields as much as they wish.

Rickard's Profits

NEW YORK, July 3.—Tex Rickard figured today that his net profit from the Dempsey-Carpenter fight yesterday would be in the neighborhood of $550,000. Expert accountants were busy all day checking and balancing the books used in the promotion of the contest. Rickard said he did not expect a final and accurate statement before Wednesday night, but that the expenses of all kinds would approximate $150,000 and taxes on his share $100,000 while the gate receipts were expected to exceed $1,500,000. It was also figured out that Dempsey earned in one minute for his first minute and sixteen seconds of actual fighting. Carpenter's profits as the loser in the contest was approximately $19,000 per minute. The United States Government will receive in one form of taxation or another, a considerable portion of $300,000 paid Dempsey and the $200,000 which was Carpenter's share of the purse. Total government proceeds from the fight will total more than $400,000. The revenue officials estimate that the income tax will take about $150,000 of $300,000 earned by Dempsey and about $77,000 of Carpenter's share. The federal revenue from the sale of tickets will amount to about $150,000.

Manhattan Newspaper Victory

GENEVA, July 3.—A "pirate" newspaper which appeared for the first time last night under the title "Les Nouvelles Sportives," published a long and vivid account of how Carpenter defeated Dempsey by a knockout blow within thirty seconds after the fighters entered the ring. The newspaper was eagerly purchased by rejoicing crowds in the cafes and hotels. When reliable newspapers appeared an hour later announcing Dempsey's victory the majority of Geneva only leave the news definitely and learned the true facts this morning.

Repetition Evidence in Perry Case

YARMOUTH, July 4.—A repetition by Nathaniel Adams of his statements some eight years ago to Mrs. Perry when she had given him wax impressions of keys which would enable him to gain an entrance into the cellar of the Perry house and requested him to disarrange the cellar steps and place dynamite caps in cream separators for the purpose of injuring her husband, furnished the most sensational evidence adduced during the fifth day of the trial here of Clara Elizabeth Perry charged with the murder of her husband, Captain George Henry Perry, found in a dying condition a few feet from the back door of his home on the night of February 26th last.

Senior Member of Presbytery of N.B. is Dead

(Special to The Guardian) TRENTON, N. J., July 4.—Rev. Isaac Patterson, 73 years of age, one of the oldest Presbyterian ministers in the state and senior member of the Presbytery of New Brunswick, died here yesterday at the home of his son-in-law, Nelson L. Petty, after two weeks' illness. He was graduated from Dalhousie College, Halifax, in 1854. In 1858 Rev. Patterson was accepted by the Presbytery of New Brunswick and in October, 1859, was ordained by the Presbytery of Baltimore.

Inter-School Contest

On Thursday, June 20th, an inter-school contest was held at Tracadie Cross Hall. The pupils of the contesting schools were examined in Reading, Oral Arithmetic, and Geography. Entries in Composition, Writing, Drawing, Map Drawing, and Writing were also made. The system under which the contest was carried out was that each school send two pupils from each class for each subject to be examined in each subject. The entries to be made from each class to each section of work decided on, the pupils entered or whose work was to be examined by the teachers of each individual school. It was thought to be the best in the subject to be examined in for the work to be exhibited. Owing to lack of time a little alteration in the programme was necessary. The geography classes were originally intended to be put in two classes namely, (a) Senior and Junior Fourth, (b) Third and Second Readers, were examined together. The answers were surprisingly prompt and accurate. It is proposed to keep up this contest work, and judging by the effort it caused the pupils and teachers to put forth, the enthusiasm and attendance of parent and child, and the interest of the several districts taking part, and the satisfaction expressed by the judges and outsiders, it would seem to prophesy that this "first Inter-School Contest" may be an awakening interest in the different schools; each school seeing its weak point will be ambitious to improve and the healthy rivalry cause a greater effort. The examining and judging was done by Inspectors Doyle and Court who were of much praise for their promptness and the manner in which they are the most deserving of the highest merit. Next year it is intended to have totally disinterested persons do the judging. Most of the work, both class-work and otherwise was very creditable, indeed, and gave evident proof that in this locality at least, "proving" good teachers, and when we consider the youthfulness and limited experience of these teachers, and the untidily class conditions in some of the schools of 39 mounting to an enrollment of 39 in one, and over thirty in two others, and that two of the schools are doing matriculation work in a credible manner, we certainly must remember it is by no means an easy task to have to judge promptly from a class of fourteen or fifteen.

U.S. Now at Peace

(Special to The Guardian) RATTAN, N. J., July 3.—The resolution of Congress declaring war with Germany and Austria Hungary at an end was signed here yesterday by President Harding. Congress adopted the resolution last week and it was hurried here at once for the President's signature necessary to make it effective.

Nova Scotian Did Magic Carpet Trick

PARISBORO, N. S., July 4.—When J. Goldstein, of Advocate, decided to move himself and all his worldly possessions to Joggins Mines—a distance of some seventy miles—he took a leaf out of the Arabian Nights and called in the genie, in the person of John Canyng, of Port Grenville. The genie, assisted by a number of Nova Scotians, located J. Goldstein and his three-story house of no small dimensions on a lumber scow, and towed by Captain G. Mills in the Parrishboro tug Almanac, away they all sailed for Joggins Mines, with the kramophone playing "Rule Britannia" and the Goldstein boys proceeding up and down the deck. People on passing vessels rubbed their eyes and stared to see the prodigious houseboat, while their nostrils dilated, filled with the savory odor of a real country dinner cooking in the sea-going kitchen. Debarcation took place without mishap, and the genie firmly established the house at Joggins Mines, where J. Goldstein and some, if not all, of the hens, are living yet.

Plane Carries Plane

LONDON, July 4.—Experiments on a remarkable type of battle-plane which carries its own crew on a machine poised at the tip of one of its wings have been carried out at Farnborough last week. Two big bombing planes have been flying over Aldershot with diminutive aeroplanes fixed to their upper surfaces. So far the tests have been successful. The parent machines have travelled at the usual pace, although the engine of the scout is kept running so that it is ready to fly off at a minute's notice to protect the larger and heavier craft. An automatic releasing apparatus is constructed on ingenious lines. An expert pilot is carried by the bombing plane and directly his services are required he climbs over the top of the wing and takes his seat in the scout. By pressing a trigger he frees the smaller machine which at once glides along the wing and dives off.

School Board Appointments

The regular meeting of the School Board was held last night at which the usual routine business was disposed of. The resignation of Miss Ducheman and the resignation of Miss McDonald from the teaching staff of Prince Street School were received. The temporary appointments of Miss Kiely, Miss Tait, and Miss Jennie Brown, of Margate, were made permanent. The resignation of Miss Watson from the teaching staff of Prince Street School staff who has been absent on a holiday, resumes duty next term.

Island Lady Returns After 49 Years

Mrs. S. N. Cole, of Fairmont, Nebraska, arrived in the city last week on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Levi Langill, Great George Street. Mrs. Cole has been away from her native province over forty-nine years. Despite the fact that she went to the States when quite a young girl, she remembers distinctly many places on the island which she hopes to visit before returning to Nebraska. The first word was uttered in the construction of the P. E. Island Railway a few days before Mrs. Cole's departure, a half-century ago. She had to journey to Point du Chenoy by way of Summerside and there she saw for the first time a railway engine. Mrs. Cole is at present visiting friends at Pownal.
