SEPARATE WAISTS.

The Tendency is to Have the Waist Match the Skirt. Separate waists are still in vogue, although the tendency is to have them match the skirt.

Many waists have a deep cape effect rounding up in the front into the collar. Those which do not do this usually have a wide collar or bertha of lace. The shirt waists meant to be worn with tailor made suits are without these shoulder effects, but on a dressy blouse they are indispensable.

DRESSY BLOUSE.

Waists blousing both back and front are seen in lace trimmed with perpendicular strappings which simulate a bolero.

Fichus of every conceivable shape are smart and useful accessories both for waists and summer dresses.

For morning wear the plain shirt waist of white chevrot or white embroidered linen is the proper thing, worn with the tailor made tie of chevrot or white pique.

Delaines rush linens close in popularity for country frocks. Some of the newest patterns from Paris show the spot, while checks and stripes are also increasing in favor.

The waist in the cut is of soft silk and gurgule lace, with a triple yoke and box plaited front.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

A NOVA SCOTIA NEWSPAPER MAN IN THE NORTHWEST.

A correspondent of the Halifax "Chronicle" has recently visited the province of Manitoba and the North West territories. He has been very much impressed with the agricultural possibilities of the various sections visited and anticipates a splendid future for the farming industry. The No. 1 Hard Wheat of Manitoba from which Ogilvie's Flour is made is one of the things which all eastern visitors talk about when they return from the Canadian West. The Prince of Wales was so impressed with it that he ordered Ogilvie's Flour for the Royal Household.

RUSSIA MOBILIZING TROOPS.

LONDON, July 22.—The Standard correspondent sends a report that 128,000 troops are being mobilized from central and northern garrisons in Russia for immediate despatch to the Far East in case of necessity.

ALLAN CONTRACT NOT SIGNED.

OTTAWA, July 22.—Sir W. Laurier told Mr Roche, of Halifax that the government on assuming office in 1896, did not find in any public department that a contract had been signed by the government or any minister with the Allans for a 20, or 21 knot Atlantic service, nor had any order-in-council been approved authorizing such a contract.
