The lobster race yesterday did not start until about one o'clock owing to the lack of wind. Then however a good breeze sprang up and the first round was completed in one hour and thirty minutes. Grit crossing the line first, Lou Dillon, second; Mayflower, third; Maple Leaf, fourth; Georgia A, fifth. The Grit and Lou Dillon kept their positions to the finish, Georgia A, third; Volunteer, fourth and Mayflower fifth. The remainder of the boats were only a few minutes in the rear. The race finished a few minutes before the time allowed was up and the breeze strengthened when the boats rounded the last buoy.

Yesterday a Guardian representative called at the music store of A. Horne & Co. and had a look over their display of pianos, organs and sewing machines. The Newcombe pianos are among the finest to be seen. The Thomas organs are five and six octave and finished in walnut and mahogany. The sewing machines are all ball bearing and have the latest improvements known to the trade. The goods are all new and no dirt will sell readily.

In two sessions of the Christian Alliance camp meeting held at Old Orchard, Me., on Sunday last, Rev. Dr. A. B. Simpson of New York secured pledges for foreign missions aggregating $41,500. The first gift announced was $11.98 from a widow. The pledges poured in, the amounts ranging from 50 cents upwards. One pledge was for $5,000 and there were many others for large amounts. The names of the donors were not made public. Mr. Simpson is a P. E. Islander. A shower drove the audience to the tabernacle in the afternoon. More pledges were added at night, the total amount being increased to $15,214.

A VERY pleasant social event took place in the Methodist church at Kensington on Wednesday evening Aug. 10th when Edward Urch of Boston, and Miss Mahele, daughter of Newton L. McArthur of Montreal were made man and wife—the Rev. Mr. Young being officiating ceremony. The church, which was prettily and unsparingly decorated for the occasion, was packed beyond standing room by invited guests and those anxious to witness such a sacred ceremony. The bride, who was beautifully attired in white silk is a young lady of exceptionally fine qualities, a favorite with all who know her. The groom who is a native of America and a citizen of Boston is a type of his people, free, jovial, sociable and gentlemanly and one whom everyone is to admire. The groomsmen were George Sheen of Kensington and Dr. Hogan of Lynn, Mass. The bridesmaids were three sisters of the bride and Miss McNeil also of Lynn, all of whom were dressed in nice green crepe de chene. The flower girls were Miss Carr, McArthur and Miss Winnie Thompson both elegantly dressed in white. The ushers were Alfred Glover and Hugh Morrison. The Wedding March was played by Miss Lena Tuplin. After the ceremony the happy couple, accompanied by invited guests, numbering about two hundred, drove to the residence of the bride's parents at Marate where the remainder of the night was spent in feasting, dancing, jollity and song. One feature of the occasion was the splendid services rendered by H. R. Moore's lively ten-piece concert band to and from Kensington to Marate. Mr. and Mrs. Urch intend remaining on P. E. Island for a few weeks, after which they leave on an extended wedding tour to California and other points in the west. After that they will reside in the city of Boston. The Guardian with all other friends join in best wishes for a happy and prosperous journey through life.
