FAMILY REUNION—A very enjoyable Family Reunion was held on Friday evening, July 15th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Dignan of Howland. A fine chicken supper was enjoyed and an inspiring sing song was participated in and prayer was offered. This happy family function concluded by all singing: "Blest Be The Tie That Binds." Present were the following sisters: Mrs. John R. Dignan, Mrs. Elizabeth Elliott of Lynn, Mass., Mrs. Ella Platts, St. John, N. B., Mrs. Pearly Primm, St. John, N. B., Mr. and Mrs. George Oliver, Monrovia, Maine, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hardy, Alberton, P.E.I. also were: Mr. and Mrs. Brenton Ramsay of Montrose, Miss Elizabeth Hardy, a niece, of Alberton, and about a week later with Bloomfield and daughters Lella and Lila. Mrs. Craswell is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dignan. A brother, Mr. Ervin Ramsay of Rosebank was also present.—O.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Paynter, entertained friends and neighbors at their home at Kensington, on Thursday evening, June 22nd, when their daughter, Irene, was guest-of-honor at a miscellaneous shower in honor of her approaching marriage. To the strains of the charming Wedding Chorus, played by Mrs. S.J. Davies, the bride-elect was escorted to the living room by her cousin, Mrs. Henry McKee. The dining table was set, well filled with parcels, was carried in by Shirley Mease and Ina Larkin. The parcels were opened by Misses Emma Gill and Marjorie Sudbury while Miss Jean Cole read the accompanying names and good wishes. Mrs. Lloyd Brown and Miss Joan Larkin arranged the gifts. Irene gratefully thanked her friends for the nice gifts, which included dishes, pyrex ware, towels and a sum of money. The living room had been decorated for the occasion with pink and white streamers and bouquets of cut flowers. A delicious lunch was served by the ladies.—Bur.

ENTERTAINED FOR BRIDE AND GROOM—L. Col. and Mrs. Ernest W. Johnston, opened their charming home at Burlington on Thursday evening, July 7th when friends, neighbors and relatives waited on their son Archie and his bride, the former Phyllis Gladys of Kensington. When all had assembled, the bride and groom were seated by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnston. Mr. Lorne Johnston, acting as spokesman for the company, in a few suitable words, congratulated Archie on his choice, welcomed his bride to the community, and concluded his remarks with the suggestion that the gifts about to be presented would further express the good wishes of those present. Assisting in the presentation of the gifts were Mrs. Archie Paynter, Misses Doris Johnston, Marjorie Warren, Irene Proffitt and Rona Paynter. Archie fittingly replied on behalf of his bride, and all joined in singing, "For They are Jolly Good Fellows." Music by "Mrs. Ernest Johnston and others, added to the enjoyment of the evening. Lunch was served by Mrs. Johnston, assisted by Miss Doris Johnston, Miss Marjorie Warren, Mrs. Leigh Paynter, Mrs. Archie Paynter, Mrs. Harold MacLeod and others.—Bur.

HELD REUNION—A family reunion of the children of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Wright, Central Bedouque was held on Wednesday evening last at the home of their daughter (Betty) Mrs. Harold MacLeod and family, Wilmot. Members of the family present (Prilla) Mrs. Fred Horne and husband Moncton (Bessie) Mrs. Arno Berg and husband and two sons Robert and Donald, Riverside, Rhode Island, Norman and Mrs. Wright, Halifax, N. S., Lorne and Mrs. Wright and son Wayne of Wilmot who recently returned from Trail, B. C. and their grand daughter, Mrs. Claud Lewis and husband York. All the family were present except their son Lewis of Riverside, Rhode Island, who was unable to be present.

OLYMPIA OPENING—The Olympia Restaurant, Summerside, reopened for all types of restaurant business yesterday morning with the newly built kitchen in operation. This building was badly gutted by fire on June 4th and although business was partially resumed about a week later with a small temporary kitchen, no full course meals were being served. Now with the exception of the banquet hall business is in full swing again. The new kitchen is of the new open type with a full view of the preparation of food from the restaurant. In this new arrangement it is not necessary for the waitress to go into the kitchen as all as they are served from a counter. The entrance to the kitchen is finished with gray absorbent and the kitchen proper is a gleaming sanitary white. With a glance any customer can see the activities in the kitchen and satisfy themselves as to its cleanliness.

SCENE OF WEDDING—St. Paul's Church, Summerside, was the scene of a pretty wedding yesterday morning at 7 o'clock when Mary Harriet Gavin, daughter of Mrs. J.W. Gavin and the late Mr. Gavin, Tignish, and Alvin A. MacKenna, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence MacKenna, Bridgetown, N.S. were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. Howard Wright celebrated the Nuptial Mass. Mrs. Irene Peters was in charge of the wedding and her daughter, Miss Eleanor sang "Ave Maria" and "O Sacred Heart" during the mass and the signing of the register. The bride, given away by her brother, Gregory, who was also acolyte, chose for her wedding a street length dress of heavenly blue silk crepe, with lace trimmings, long white gloves and full skirt. She wore a picture hat of straw and matching blue net and carried a bouquet of time roses and Baby's Breath. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls. The bridesmaid, Miss Betty Boyle, was attired in a two piece dress of pink spun rayon with large white hat and white accessories, and a corsage bouquet of Queen Elizabeth yellow roses. Mr. Justin Gavin, by the of the bride, was groomsmen. Following the ceremony a reception was held at Leo Coyle's Restaurant for twenty-five guests. Assisting in the wedding were the bride's mother, who wore a two-piece dress of black crepe with white accessories. The bride's table was decorated with a beautiful three-tiered wedding cake, topped with an arch under which was a miniature bride and groom. Father Wright proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom responded. Mr. and Mrs. MacKenna left by motor on a honeymoon trip to the United States and to the Annapolis Valley, where they will visit the groom's parents. The bride travelled in a suit of green and carried a bouquet of white accessories. On return they will reside in Summerside where the groom is an accountant at the Summerside R.C.A.F. station. The bride's previous marriage was on the staff of Sheen and MacInnis, Water St.—S.

BELL-MACLEOD WEDDING—A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the Summerside Trinity United Church when Joyce Rossena, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. MacLeod, Coleman, became the bride of William Seaman Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Bell, Bedouque. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. K. G. Sullivan, M.A., D.D., and the church organist, Miss Mary Geldard, was in charge of the wedding music. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in her floor-length gown of ivory satin with sweetheart neckline, tight fitting bodice, long and pointed sleeves and full skirt. Her finger tip veil was held in place with a coronet trimmed with orange blossoms and she carried a nosegay of Queen Elizabeth yellow roses. Mr. Arthur Holland was the groomsmen, Mr. and Mrs. Bell left on a wedding trip throughout the Maritimes, the bride travelling in a suit of green garlanded with black accessories. On their return they will reside in Summerside, where the groom is on the staff of the Island Telephone Company. The bride has been stenographer in the law office of Mr. Heath Strongs.—S.

Mr. MacFarlane, the groom, is on the office staff of the firm of "Prack and Prack", Architects, Hamilton, Ont. Also present at the reception were the bride's parents and sisters, Mrs. Austen Prack and Miss Erma Prack. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman MacFarlane, Fernwood. This was the first visit of the bride and her parents to the Island. On their return the bride and groom will reside in Hamilton, Ontario. Many friends and relatives wish them many years of happiness and prosperity.
