

Dinner Sets

We have been doing a lot of talking about Dinner Sets, but we have a lot of Dinner Sets to talk about. When you know that we have them from the 97 piece Dinner Set at $5.00 up to the large China Dinner Service at $150.00 you will realize that we have put ourselves in competition with any store in Canada—

There's also a big range of sets at popular prices. One just to hand for instance—a good quality of English semi-porcelain—each piece nicely decorated with gilt—97 pcs.—$10.00.

It's the best $10.00 set in Canada.

THE PRINCE COUNTY GUARDIAN

Offices in Summerside: John Dickieson, Agent, and in Alberton, Herbert Clark, Agent.

—The latest news, first of all.
—Contractor Hugh McDonald, Sydney is in Summerside.
—Eight horses were shipped by the Empress yesterday from Summerside.
—Mrs John Ferguson, Summerside, has returned from a visit to this City.
—W. A. Brennan, Editor of the Summerside Journal, was in Moncton Wednesday.
—Mrs. J. D. Enman, Summerside, returned from a trip to Ottawa last evening.
—S. H. Jones is again in the Province arranging for the coming fall trade in sheep.
—Mrs. (Dr.) McPhail, Charlottetown, is visiting with Mrs. W. A. Stewart, Summerside.
—D. Gordon, Summerside, has returned from a weeks vacation in northern New Brunswick.
—The Empress made the round trip with the Harvest Excursionists in six hours returning at 3.00 a. m.
—Seventy-five passengers left Summerside by the Empress yesterday and seventy returned in the evening.
—Fifty passengers went by the special from Summerside last evening to attend the sports in Charlottetown.
—The Trustees of Fanning School have engaged for principal Miss Tanton of St. Eleanor's for the ensuing school year.
—Miss Ella Ramsay, of Perth-Amboy, who has been spending her vacation at Eldon returned to her home yesterday a Summerside. She was much pleased with her visit to the island.
—There were a large number of prominent politicians in Summerside Wednesday attending to the nomination of M. C. Delaney and Capt. Joseph Read, opposing candidates to represent the fourth district.
—A number of Harvest excursionists were a little late getting down to the wharf on Wednesday night and were left behind. Yesterday morning they crossed by the Empress and arrangements were made to have them taken along to their destination.
—The political meeting held at Travelers Rest on Wednesday night passed over rather quietly, more so than was expected, and some who attended were a little disappointed. The chief speakers were John H. Bell, John Anderson, James Kennedy, Capt. Joseph Read and M. C. Delaney.
—A carpenter and builder in Summerside yesterday received an order to place a platform at one of the Baptist Churches. He inquired wishing to know at what of the churches and was told that it was the "hard-shell Baptist." Thinking that the church on Central Street was the one intended he placed the platform down securely. In the evening he discovered that he had performed the work at the wrong church.

—Wednesday night at bedtime Lucas and Mrs. Allan Summerside found they had one more than the usual number of children. To find out where the "little three year old tot came from puzzled all the neighbors in that vicinity and the police were called in to help to find a claimant for the small boy. Later on he was claimed by his mother, Mrs. George B. Chappell. She had prepared the youngster for bed but he thought it was a little too early and tripped out to have a trot around and got astray.

—Dr. Heartz, of the Nova Scotia Conference, will preach in Summerside Methodist Church on Sunday, 15th, at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. The offering for both services will be for the organ fund. On Wednesday the 18th, at 8 p. m. the choir of the central Methodist Church, Moncton, with Professor Knight, of England, musical director, will give a sacred concert and organ recital in the Church. As the trustees wish all to enjoy this musical treat no admission will be charged. Everyone will be made welcome. An offering will be taken for the pipe organ fund. It is expected that the offering will be according to the ability of the donors.
