DETROIT TIGERS SWAMP REDS IN OPENER

American League Champs Gain Victory By Decisive Second Inning Uprising

(By JUDSON BAILEY Associated Press Sports Writer)

CINCINNATI, Oct. 2.—(AP)—The powerhouse of Detroit Tigers switched on a shocking five-run rally against Paul Derringer today and crushed Cincinnati Reds 7-2 in the first game of the 1940 World Series before a crowd of 31,733.

The ease with which the Tiger sluggers swept over the National League righthander with five lunched singles in the second inning took all the sparkle out of the remainder of the game. The crowd was hardly awed by the triple and home run of Rudy York and Bruce Campbell hit in succession in the fifth inning.

Buck Newsom, the giant righthander who set the pace for the Tigers in their prowl to the American League Championship, backed up the hitting of his teammates with an eight-hit pitching job that kept the feeble Reds shut out except in the fourth and eighth innings.

In the big second inning 10 Tigers went to bat as Derringer desperately tried to stem the tide and finally had to give way to Whitey Moore after all the runs were in and only one out.

Greenberg Starts Uprising

Hank Greenberg led off the bombardment by smacking the first pitch into the left field corner for what would ordinarily have been a double, although Jim Ripple sent him scurrying back to first with a tremendous throw.

Then York singled into short right center, and Bill Werber made a high throw on Campbell's sacrifice bunt and the bases were loaded. Pinky Higgins rapped the two leading runners home and Billy Sullivan walked to jam the bases again.

Newsom forced Campbell at the plate, but Dick Bartell singled for two runs and Barney McCasky hit home another before Moore finally was flagged out of the bullpen to choke off the Tigers.

Derringer showed no signs of weakness as he retired the first three men in order in the first inning and the explosion in the second was all the more spectacular because of its surprise.

Moore Effective

Moore pitched effectively until removed for a pinch-hitter in the last of the eighth, although he gave up the other two runs when Detroit began to solve his fast ball and once walked three men in the seventh inning to load the bases.

He gave up five hits, but struck out seven sluggers, including Greenberg twice, to the enjoyment of the home crowd.

Elmer Riddle, a rookie righthander, came into the game in the ninth and retired the Tigers in order. Greenberg popped up a foul to Catcher Bill Baker. York and Campbell struck out.

Even the Reds' vaunted fielding collapsed today as Werber, Billy Myers and Baker each made errors.

The Tigers were a near perfect club as they rolled to their opening victory. Only in the two innings in which the Red's scored did Newsom give more than one hit in an inning and the only error was a

Cubs Even City Series

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Chicago Cubs, given a seven-hit pitching performance by rookie Vern Olsen and some wobbly defensive work by their American League opponents, defeated the White Sox 3-2 today to square the City Championship Series at one victory apiece.

Olsen, a southpaw, limited the White Sox to seven hits as his mates were collecting nine off Thornton Lee, the losing hurler, and Pete Appleton, who began his relief chore in the sixth.

Cincinnati managed to get runners on base in all but two of the other frames, but were held helplessly just the same as Newsom snuffed out little rays of hope one by one.

Tomorrow the Reds will have to come out with Bucky Walters, whose record of 22 and 10 is not much better than Derringer's 20 and 12 and whose fast sinker proved a delight to the Yankees a year ago.

The Tigers have Schoolboy Rowe, hero of Detroit's last two trips into the big baseball classic, ready to go to the mound.

Canadian Pro Hockeyists In U. S. Will Aid

(By C. R. Blackburn, Canadian Press Staff Writer)

OTTAWA, Oct. 2.—(CP)—Canadians playing professional hockey for American clubs this winter will be doing their bit for the war effort by making available an estimated $500,000 in foreign exchange. But it may mean slim living for them because they'll get only a portion of their pay cheques for spending outside Canada.

The $500,000 estimate came tonight from a Government official. He said that through an arrangement between the foreign exchange control board and President Frank Calder of the National Hockey League, Canadians playing for American clubs will retain only a portion of their salaries for personal expenses. They will turn the remainder over to an authorized Canadian foreign exchange dealer.

As a basis for operation it has been suggested that a single player restrict his living expenses while in the United States to $25 a week and a married man $30 or more, depending upon the number of his dependents.

The unused portion of salaries will be paid into each player's Canadian bank account and credited to him in Canadian dollars plus the prevailing rate of exchange as fixed by the exchange control board.

From consultations with Mr. Calder the board estimates that 230 players, ordinarily residents of Canada, will play on professional hockey clubs in the United States. Including minor league players with whom arrangements have also been made, their average salaries will be approximately $2,500 each.

This means that Canadian residents will be receiving $750,000 in United States dollars during the season and the foreign exchange board, which has wide powers, hopes to get at least $500,000 of the Toronto in exchange for Canadian dollars.

T. C. A. SHOPS CHECK 930 EQUIPMENT UNITS MONTHLY

In addition to the routine service work on the Trans-Canada Air Lines fleet, at the Winnipeg repair base the various accessory shops receive more than 900 pieces of equipment every month for checking and overhaul, according to J. T. Bain, superintendent of maintenance and equipment.

A dozen engines and propellers are completely inspected and tested for wear, cracks and corrosion. The accessory shop handles 500 units a month, including electrical accessories, plumbing equipment, more than 240 batteries and 2,000 spark plugs. In the radio shop 100 pieces of equipment are handled, such as receivers, power supplies, transmitters and control boxes. The instrument shop takes care of another 200 units.

All shops keep detailed records of the equipment handled. These show the total number of hours a unit has been in service, and the number of hours in service since overhaul. The history aids the shop men in tracing troubles.

Many parts of aircraft are discarded after a definite number of hours in service regardless of their condition. Mr. Bain points out. While they may be capable of many more hours service, all possibility of failure must be eliminated. These

Thanksgiving Day Horse Races

A bang-up program of harness racing for Monday afternoon, October 14th.

The Provincial Exhibition grounds will be the scene of lively tilts between horsemen Thanksgiving afternoon when the Victoria Driving Club will stage a program of four races on the matinee plan under the sponsorship of the Carry On Canada Corps. This event has been taken off for weeks, but plans have only been completed recently, as horsemen racing in Nova Scotia had to be contacted, so that each event would be filled with tried and tested speedsters.

The CLASS A PACE will have Jane Azoff 1.59 1/2 and Aaron L. 2.07 1/4 as starters. They have been rivals since the first of the season, and each has won and lost to the other. The owners of each are confident that in this final meeting of 1940 racing they will have the winner. Jane Azoff only three weeks ago set a new track record at New Glasgow of 2:08, but has not raced since, while Aaron L. has been campaigned at Truro and this past week at Bridgewater.

The CLASS A TROT will have June Evans, that took a new record of 2:10 1/2 at North Sydney, where she showed her heels to Alloway 2:04 1/2, holder of the Provincial trotting record of 2:07 1/2. Hal Britton 2:09 1/2, Harriet Moody 2:10 1/2, and others. Picked against June Evans will be the redoubtable Squire Hanover 2:11 that has headed June Evans on occasions this year, and Millie Kalmuck 2:12, that was a bang-up second to Alloway when he set up a track record and Provincial record of 2:07 1/2 at Charlottetown.

CLASS B PACE. This will have the triple winner in recent weeks, Major Bowes 2:12 1/2, Uscita Britton 2:12 1/2, Direct L. 2:09 1/2, winner at North Sydney, and Nell Cochatodale 2:12. Home to Victoria 2:14, which took a three-year-old record recently of 2:07 1/2, and Miss Victoria 2:14. These will make a classy race.

THE CLASS C TROT AND PACE will have Scotty Watson, Lucky Guy, George Mac, Ethel Bellini, Silent Mac, Anna Guy and others. They are as evenly matched a bunch of trotters and pacers as one could find and will put up a grand race.

The track will be in perfect condition for the event and a band will be engaged to liven things up between heats. Arrangements are being made to have tickets available through Carr's Canada Corps and various parts of the Province and Charlottetown has been "zoned" by Chairman Frank B. Clarke, of the ticket sale committee. Frank is calling for volunteers. Phone his office or house if you are willing to help sell tickets. Remember, every cent goes to the Ambulance Fund of the Victoria Canada Corps. Your efforts will help a great deal.

The meeting which sponsored this program for Thanksgiving afternoon, will be held at 7:30 p.m. and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed, showing the Corps is behind the event one hundred per cent. Ever since the Home Front Week the question has been asked—are we going to have any more racing? Now it is answered!

TABLET HON 'S SHEEP Sheep have been honored by a memorial tablet unveiled on the estate of the late Dr. Webster at Oamaru, New Zealand. The inscription reads: "This stone was erected to commemorate the origin of the Corriedale Breed of sheep, on this estate, by James Little, 1838. It is a tribute to the Corriedale Homestead, where Little was manager for Dr. Webster. The estate was named for the estate on the Scottish-English border, where both men came from."

Indian Sign On Reds, Tigers Think

By Charles Dunkley Associated Press Sports Writer

CINCINNATI, Oct. 2.—(AP)—The victorious Tigers, from Bobo Newsom down, held a sneaking suspicion tonight that they have the Indian sign on Cincinnati Reds and will win the World's Baseball Championship for six.

Newsom, individually, was the only Tiger brave enough to make the prediction that they might win four straight.

"If we win as we did today, we may win in four straight," said Newsom. "I don't think we'll come back to this ball park after we get through with the Reds in Detroit."

There was an absence of explosive atmosphere in the Tigers' dressing room. They took their victory merely as another game. The lack of yelling and back-slapping was due possibly to the fact that they went through all that when they finally conquered Cleveland for the American League Championship.

Del Baker, Tiger Manager, was smiling and happy. "Nice going, fellows," he cried. "There was a silent but firm air of 'tomorrow is another day' in the beaten Reds' clubhouse."

Still Optimistic Manager Bill McKenchie said: "We'll be back tomorrow!" McKenchie defended the work of Paul Derringer, whom the Tigers embold for about everything he had in the second inning. "These boys hit some mighty good pitches," he said. "Paul had as much stuff as he ever had but they got onto it."

McKenchie promised that the teams two crumples, Catcher Eric Leubardt and Second Baseman Lemmie Frey, might get into the series. "Not tomorrow though," he added.

Major Bowes Takes Named Race In Straight Heats At Bridgewater Harness Meet

BRIDGEWATER, N. S., Oct. 2.—(CP)—Summer-aided Major Bowes took three straight heats in the Named Race on today's card as the first day of a two-day race meet was staged at the South Shore's only trotting park opening.

B. S. Alloway of Maine outstayed Charlottetown's June Evans to capture top honors in the Free-for-all while Hal Britton of the New Glasgow Driving Club placed third.

Thriller of the card was the Class A Trot when E. J. Direct, owned by C. Walker, backed the honor hopes of both Jean Hanley, owned by W. Crankshanks, and F. McCurdy's Silent Joe by clinching the two final heats. Other entries in this event were Hillside Scott, owned by Jack Kerr, Brian Yorkie by W. Dauphinee and O. V. Volo by C. Paunney.
