Mummy... I'm Hungry. YET many a mother — and father — is faced today with just such a tragic fact. Through-out Europe and Asia children are literally starving — cold and miserable because they have no warm clothing. Millions of them are in desperate need — for food, clothing, shelter, education. We in Canada are going to do our share to help meet those urgent needs. The Canadian Appeal for Children, now being conducted, has a minimum objective of $10,000,000 as Canada's contribution to the saving of the world's children and the world's future. YOU CAN HELP by doing just this: Go to any Branch of THE ROYAL BANK OF CANADA — or any other chartered bank. Hand your contribution to the teller. He is ready to accept it, and will turn the money over to the Canadian Appeal for Children. Every cent collected will be distributed, where need is greatest, under the strict supervision of responsible United Nations' operating agencies. How much you give is a question for your own conscience. Act TODAY; you will sleep better tonight knowing you have done your part for these millions of little ones who look to you for help.
