

A CREAMY LOTION MADE WITH LEMONS

Prepare a quarter pint at about the cost of a small jar of common cold cream.

When this home-made lemon lotion is gently massaged into the face, neck, hands and arms daily, the skin naturally should become soft, clear and white, and the complexion dainty and attractive.

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes, to bleach the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the Midway beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white the way. Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quart of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle, then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, hands and arms it naturally should keep to white, clear, smooth and healthy.

Any druggist will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons. In this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion ladies can easily prepare and have an inexpensive toilet aid which perfectly satisfies their natural desire for a beautiful soft skin.

No surgical operation is necessary in removing corns if Holloway's Cure be used.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Private Gordon Livingston, City, who was killed in action in France on August 15th, 1917. In service by his mother.

The name of Pte. Gordon Livingston in our memory shall live. For he crossed the sea to battle His life for us to give.

He understood his mission For a learned lad was he And clearly saw what sacrifice Was needed over sea.

And with those higher motives, Not prompted by glory or pride, For as he faced the cannon In the war across the tide.

So he buckled on his khaki And took the war did go, He was the first to die for us Whom we did truly know.

Now with his friends we mourn their loss, When to the world was given Alas! His body lies in France His soul will meet in Heaven. 483-5-7M3p.

AWAY
I cannot say, and I will not say That he is dead. He is just away With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand. He has wandered into an unknown land, And left us dreaming how very fair it needs must be, since he lingers there. And you, O you, who the wildest yearn For the old-time step and the glad return. Think of him faring on as dear, In the love of there as the love of there. And loyal still as he gave the boys, Of his warrior-strength to his country's foes. Mild and gentle as he was brave, When the sweetest love of his life he gave To simple things.— Ah, think of him still as the same, I say: He is not dead—he is just away!

Minard's Liniment used by Physician

NO CANADIAN AIR YET

TORONTO, May 8.—Colonel W. H. Meffitt, the honorary secretary of the Canadian aviation fund, has just been notified by the vice-chairman of the war committee of the cabinet that the Canadian government has definitely decided to take no action in the matter of a gift of a unit of aeroplanes to the royal air force through the Canadian aviation fund, pending the visit of the prime minister to the old country, when it is expected the general question of relations between Canada and the royal air force will be given consideration. This, taken in conjunction with Sir Robert Borden's recent statement in the house that he thought it possible a Canadian flying corps might be formed, shows that serious attention may soon be given to the best form in which Canada can aid to "win the war" through air co-operation.

OF INTEREST

The following from the Lynn, Mass. Daily Item will be of interest here, the soldier referred to being a grandson of the late Major Purdy, Charlottetown, and Mrs. Purdy, Hampton.

"Mrs. Harriet A. Wright, 110 Hanover street, organizer of the Ladies auxiliary of Co. D, when the Eighth regiment was first called into service, has received a letter from her son, Corp. Albert S. Wright, who is one of the few original members of Co. D remaining in the company at Camp Wadsworth, South Carolina, where regiment is now known as the Fifth Pioneer infantry.

Corporal Wright went to the border in Co. D at the time of the Mexican trouble and rose to the mess sergeant. His three years' term expired in 1914 when he went to Avero to work on the buildings and there received a puncture in his foot from a nail, causing blood poisoning. He came back to Lynn in July and enlisted with his old command under Captain Jeffers and has been with it since. He was first assigned to be cook at Westfield but his foot getting well, he was promoted to be corporal shortly after leaving that camp for Camp Green at Charlotte, N. C.

He is a great lover of outdoor life and when at home was one of the leaders in the Hikers' Club, at the Washington Street Baptist Church. He is a graduate of Mount Hermon School.

The true Yankee son is evidenced all through the letter in his tender concern for his mother, who he has detected worrying through some of her expressions in a letter to him. To cheer her and cause her to remember that there are thousands of other mothers giving their sons to the great liberty war he cut a poem from a paper and sent it to her, the title being "I Have a Son," the last three stanzas being:

I've given him, yes, and had I more, I'd give them too—for there's a love That asking asks above The human measure of our store And more.

Yet it hurts! here in the dark alone, No one to see my wet old eyes, And only God shall hear my groan, Alone.

I have a son who goes to France, to my sorrow, I have clasped his hand, Most men will understand, And wished him, smiling, lucky chance.

In his letters he acknowledges receiving a smilge book and expresses his great appreciation of the same. He and his comrades were having a snap at the time, as the carpenters were making the tents which the soldiers were to lay the next day.

"You had the blues again in one part of your letter," he says. "Get over it. I know it is hard for you, but just think that it is as hard for me." I found a poem in a paper the other day which I enclose. The Pioneers have a lot of road building, also general guard duty, etc. I don't know just what we will do but we are told pioneers do most everything of that sort."

In a letter to his father he says the drill ground at Spartanburg is on the side of a hill and as there had been a big downpour the surface was very slippery. There is a brook at the foot of the hill that runs over three feet deep and about four feet wide, but he tells of going over it on a jump. The brook was running with much speed and nearly washed away a bridge at the foot of the company street. It was the first rain they had since leaving Charlotte and he had no kick coming. The soldiers are now taking a twenty-eight inch step, 128 to a minute, which he says makes a snappy drill, as everything is faster in proportion.

"I would like to run down there while I am so close, but I guess it is no use. I was down town Sunday and I found that fare is $14.17 one way, and as it too far to walk I am out of luck. This town is much better than Charlottetown, I think, but others think differently. One thing is sure, we can buy soda and smokes here on Sunday when we could not at Charlottetown. The streets are better and have more room.

"There are no signs of filling up the regiment yet and there is a pretty strong rumor that when warm weather returns we are going back to Westfield. We understand that the regiment will be filled from Avero. It is cheaper to send us north than it is to send all the recruits down here and have to go to New York again to take the transports. Don't be sure now as this is only what is rumored, but we hope it is true. Love to all.

CANADIANS ON VESSEL WHICH SUNK U-BOAT

BOSTON, May 6.—One of the biggest and fastest of British liners docked here last night and brought a story of a night battle with one of Germany's U-boats of the newest and largest type. The gun crew believe the submarine was sunk, and they are sure that it was at least disabled. The first torpedo went wild, but the second came uncomfortably close to the stern of the vessel. The ship was zig-zagging and firing at the submarine, which by this time had come to the surface.

A dozen Canadian officers at the rail watched every shot fired by the gun crew and all agreed that the twelfth and fourteenth shots appeared to be fair hits. At any rate, immediately after the fourteenth shot the U-boat disappeared.

Among the passengers, in addition to the Canadian officers, were Canadian soldiers disabled or on furlough.

Externally or internally it is Good—When applied externally by brisk rubbing, Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil opens the pores and penetrates the tissue as few liniments do, touching the seat of the trouble and immediately affording relief. Administered internally it will still the irritation in the throat which induces coughing and will cure affections of the bronchial tubes respiratory organs. Try it and be convinced.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Ladies! Try This! Darkens beautifully and nobody can tell—Brings back its gloss and youthfulness

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients in a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
