Delegates Return From K. Of C. Convention

Mr. J. A. McDonald, State Deputy of the Knights of Columbus, city, and Mr. A. McQuaid, Past State Deputy, Souris, returned Wednesday night from Duluth, Minn., where they attended the annual convention of the Order.

Both gentlemen report the convention a great success, considerable work being accomplished and plans made for the ensuing year. The convention was held in the Hotel Duluth, opening at 9 o'clock on August 4th by a parade from convention headquarters to the Duluth Amphitheatre where Pontiff High Mass was celebrated by His Lordship Joseph P. Pinton, Bishop of the diocese and an appropriate sermon delivered by Archbishop Dowling of St. Paul. It is estimated that about 10,000 people attended this service.

The parade was headed by St. Paul Zouaves and the delegates from each jurisdiction carried a large banner with the name of the state or province they represented.

As the P. E. Island banner passed along the streets, lined with thousands of spectators the Island delegates were greeted with such remarks as "How are the forty foxes?" "How is Spud Island?" The city throughout was elaborately decorated with flags and bunting, the majority of the stores also displaying the K. of C. emblem in their show windows with the sign "Welcome to the K. of C."

After the parade and mass a civic reception was held, the Mayor of the city welcoming the delegates and giving them the freedom of the city.

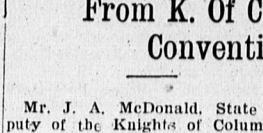

Every available minute clear of the business meetings the delegates were entertained by boat and sight seeing trips. Messrs McDonald and McQuaid had hardly arrived, when former Islanders, residents of Duluth, called them by phone and also called at the hotel personally and entertained them lavishly during their stay.

Among the Islanders met was Wm. A. Hicken, formerly of Georgetown, who has been in the Arrowhead country for over forty years and who has served as representative of the State of Minnesota and also as a commissioner for many years for the city of Duluth. Mr. Hicken is the head of one of the large realty firms in the city, is enjoying unusual prosperity, and is held in the highest esteem by the citizens.

Dick Whittington COLOR CUTOUTS

A FRIEND

This is the end of the first week of the picture-story of "Dick Whittington and His Cat." Children who cut out the pictures every day will soon have a whole set of Dick Whittington dolls. Watch for more of this story next week.

Now Dick's room was in the garret and it was so full of rats and mice that he could not sleep at night. One day when he was out on the street he saw a little girl playing with a cat. He asked her if she would sell her cat for a penny and she said that she would.

Dick took it home with him and soon the garret was free from rats and mice. Every day Dick saved some of his food and carried it up to his pet. The cat became his best friend, the only real friend that he had.

(Make Dick's big cat a light maltese grey. Be sure to mount it on a piece of heavy paper—the cover of a magazine will do—before cutting out.)
